2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."
- Jn 2:1-3

From Father Ron

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we enter into the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time we are given that interesting story of the Lord and his disciples at a Wedding Feast and the caterers have run out of wine.

As we continue to plow our way through this cold, icy and snowy winter and are very aware of the pandemic that has engulfed our world, running out of wine seems so trivia.

But may we be grateful to the Lord that he was sensitive to those and to us that wish to celebrate life, a wedding or just a family gathering.

Continue to celebrate life. Continue to celebrate your faith.

In Search of Spring:

Father Ron

P.S. On a humorous note, many people have expensive alarm systems for their place of work or their home. If you come to my house you will find a unique way of keeping your property safe and you only need a head of lettuce for your payment.

The Parish of Saint Joseph

By Jim Wright

Children at St. Joseph were very patriotic during World War II. The US Treasury Department presented citations in April 1944 to St. Joseph School and individual students for their efforts raising funds for World War II bond and stamp drives. Children receiving were Rosemary Ohnemus, Virginia Paulson, Mary Alice Centers, James Stelter, James Swann, Eugene Masini, Freddie Turner, James Driscoll, Leroy Montbriand, Roy Peloquin, George Messenger, William Ohnemus, Judith McGuire, and Angela Mantell. Mrs. Leo Cummings (second row, far left) represented the treasury department. Also pictured in the back row are, from left to right, Vincent McGuire, Abbott Spaulding, William H. Cato (Homewood postmaster), and Father Stephen Sullivan (second row, far right).

RENEW MY CHURCH

Dear Parishioners,

We are pleased that Bishop Joseph N. Perry, our regional bishop and Cardinal Cupich's representative to our region of the archdiocese, will be with us on Monday, January 24, at 8:00pm, to join us in prayer and share an important update on the future of our parishes. This will be held online.

Please go to www.renewmychurch.org/announcements for details about how to access the meeting from your computer or smartphone.

Around the Parish

The A & E Committee thanks those members of the Marian Council Knights of Columbus who assisted us on January 9 in taking down our angels and transporting them to the Burke Center for storage. We could not have done this without their competent, efficient help. Special thanks to Dave Wolken who recruited the KC volunteers in our behalf. --- Erin Roeper, A&E Chair

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

JANUARY 16, 2022

First Reading: Isaiah 62:1-5
God delights in Israel and will rejoice as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 96:1-2,2-3,7-8,9-10
A song in praise of God's marvelous deeds

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:4-11
All spiritual gifts originate from the same Spirit.

Gospel Reading: John 2:1-11
Jesus performs his first sign at a wedding feast in Cana.

Background on the Gospel Reading

This Sunday we begin the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. For many Sundays in this lectionary cycle (Cycle C), our readings will be taken from the Gospel of Luke. Occasionally, however, we will read from John's Gospel. This is true of today's Gospel reading, which describes the beginning of Jesus' ministry and his first miracle.

To situate today's reading within the context of John's Gospel, we note that John's report of this event follows Jesus' call of his first disciples. John tells us that Jesus and his disciples were invited to this wedding at Cana, as was Jesus' mother, Mary. There is no parallel report of this miracle at Cana in the Synoptic Gospels.

In the Church's liturgical history, the wedding feast of Cana is closely associated with the baptism of the Lord and the adoration of the infant Jesus by the Wise Men. In this context, the sign Jesus performs at the wedding feast is celebrated as an epiphany or a manifestation of Jesus' divinity.

Yet awareness of Jesus' impending passion and death is ever present in John's Gospel. Even in this report of Jesus' first sign, the language used anticipates Jesus' passion. When Jesus says to his mother that his hour has not yet come, he protests against her wishes in language that John will use again when reporting Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples. When introducing the story of Jesus washing his disciples' feet, John writes that Jesus knew that his hour had come. In John's Gospel, Jesus is very much in command and aware of all that is to happen to him. Here, as elsewhere in John's Gospel, Mary is not mentioned by name, but is referred to instead as the mother of Jesus. Mary is influential in Jesus' first sign. She will also be present at his Crucifixion, a witness to the final manifestation of his divinity.

John's Gospel describes seven signs that indicate Jesus' identity to his disciples. John never speaks of these signs as miracles because their importance is not in the deed that Jesus performs but in what these deeds indicate about Jesus' identity. Here, as when John describes the other signs, the disciples are said to begin to believe, but no mention is made as to whether the other wedding guests are even aware of what has happened.

Marriage and wedding feasts are metaphors used in Scripture to describe God's salvation and the Kingdom of God. Here at the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, John's Gospel seeks to establish that Jesus is going to reinterpret and fulfill Yahweh's promise to Israel. Jesus establishes the New Covenant. A hint about what this New Covenant will be like is made evident in the deed that Jesus performs. Asked to do something to address the awkward situation that the absence of wine at a wedding feast would create, Jesus' miracle produces vast quantities of wine—six jars holding thirty gallons each are filled to overflowing with choice wine.

This lavish response to a simple human need is a vision for us of the abundance of God's kingdom. It challenges us to respond generously when confronted with human need today. We respond as best we can, fully confident that God can transform our efforts, bringing the Kingdom of God to fulfillment among us.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

January 18-25

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity has a history of over 100 years, in which Christians around the world have taken part in an octave of prayer for visible Christian unity. By annually observing the WPCU, Christians move toward the fulfillment of Jesus' prayer at the Last Supper "that they all may be one." (cf. John 17:21)

LIGHTER SIDE

Divine Delivery

A businessman ordered flowers to be sent to the opening of his friend's new branch office. When the businessman got to the event, he was shocked to see the flowers with the inscription "Rest in Peace." He was so outraged that he stopped at the florist to complain.

"It could be worse," the florist said, "Just think: Today someone was buried beneath a floral arrangement with the inscription 'Congratulations on Your New Location!'"
