

St. John Neumann Parish

July 1, 2024-June 30, 2025

WHO we are

A Family of Believers

St. John Neumann Parish is a joy filled, Eucharist centered community of missionary disciples, rooted in Scripture, Sacrament and Prayer, dedicated to encountering Christ in our lives, and creating a culture of belonging, unity and compassion as we reach out in service to others and embrace all people to give witness to the Love and Mercy of God in the greater community.

An Engaged Parish

We pray that the Lord will help us to be an engaged community with open hearts and open minds to Seek The Lord, Share His Gifts, and Rejoice in His Blessings.

Dear Parish Family,

Today's readings extol the virtue of gratitude. We hear first from Naaman, a foreigner, who is so grateful to Elisha and the Lord for curing his leprosy that he returns to offer gifts. In the Gospel, another foreigner—a Samaritan—returns to Jesus to offer thanks after his leprosy is cured. May we be as grateful as them for God's blessings upon us, starting with our "thanks be to God" for the saving power of God's word.

As we reflect on the past year, we are filled with gratitude for the many ways our parish community has grown in faith, fellowship, and service. We are pleased to share with you the Annual Parish Report, a snapshot of the blessings, milestones, and stewardship that shaped our journey together.

Inside the report, you'll find:

- Highlights from our ministries and outreach programs
- Financial overview and Stewardship updates
- Sacramental celebrations and parish events

Total income has increased over the last fiscal year mainly due to interest and investment income (as we continue to move savings to higher interest accounts). Special gifts, bequests and fundraising have also had a positive impact. We thank you for your generosity.

Expenses have been reduced mainly due to reduced heating fuel and electricity costs because of our more efficient equipment and milder winter. We also had reduced property insurance and archdiocese assessments now that the St. Emeric campus has been sold. This positive shift strengthens our foundation and allows us to focus more fully on our mission: serving one another, deepening our faith, and reaching out to those in need.

Our Total savings (in our local bank accounts and at the Archdiocesan accounts) are still healthy but we did use some of these for capital projects such as the new Church boiler and necessary repairs of the rectory and driveways.

In summary, the parish financial picture is improving. We are closing the gap on having our regular income covering our regular operating expenses. We still have potential expenses coming during the next few years for funding our hospitality and evangelical programs which we plan to expand to grow our church membership.

The Finance Council and Facilities Committee continue working on a long-term plan to budget for all our capital needs.

Thank you for being a vital part of our parish family. May God continue to bless you and guide us all in the year ahead.

With heartfelt thanks,

Fr. Edmond

South Holland Master Chorale

Presents Free Family Concerts

"YOU DO NOT WALK ALONE"

South Holland Master Chorale will present a concert of contemporary sacred and secular works this

Sunday, October 12th, 4pm

St. John Neumann Parish, Homewood

"Everyone has a journey and a story to tell," Chorale Music Director Philip J. Bauman said. "The story may be ours or that of someone else, but it's certain to say, we have not traveled alone. Our intersection with others has created who we are, how we see, how we listen, how we feel, and how we care for one another."

"Our songs touch on a wide variety of emotions, reflecting moments of celebration, joy, wonderment, consolation, beauty, the hereafter, and now."

Today's leading composers, including Dan Forrest, Kyle Pederson, Elaine Hagenberg, Marques Garrett, Rosephanye Powell, Shara Nova and others "bring into focus how our experiences and the communities to which we belong shape us. In moments of triumph or despair, know that You Do Not Walk Alone."

Accompanying the Chorale will be Marilyn Bourgeois, piano; Mark Sudeith, organ; Pat White, cello; and Jeff Handley, percussion.

Admission is free; donations accepted.

THE ARCHDIOCESAN COMMISSION ON MENTAL ILLNESS
INVITES YOU TO

WITNESSES OF HOPE

FINDING MEANING AND MISSION IN THE MIDST OF MENTAL ILLNESS

Witnesses with experience of mental illness—either themselves or through someone they love—will share their stories of hope and God's grace along their journey.

We will address common questions, such as:

- Can you live a full and meaningful life with a mental illness?
- Does God really want and call me?
- Does suffering with mental illness have any meaning?
- How can my Catholic Faith illuminate the journey?

Come and hear about how the experience of Christ provides hope grounded in His presence and the confidence that He has a call and purpose for us.
