Happy New Year and Epiphany!

As we begin this New Year, we celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God, and this weekend the Epiphany of the Lord. The word Epiphany means “manifestation.” In Matthew’s Gospel, we hear of the Magi from the East who followed the star to Bethlehem. There they found the child Jesus with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage, offering gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh—revealing Christ as King, God, and Savior.

As we continue to rejoice in the Christmas Season and enjoy the presence of one another, I’ve taken time to reflect on the meaning of Christmas. At times I become emotional, remembering experiences that shaped me and remain part of my story. It is often the simple things that matter most—the memories we hold dearly in our hearts and cherish.

I remember how my mother made the holidays special with very little. Our home was modest, but it was rich in joy and faith. Our Christmas dinner was simple, yet gathering around the table brought laughter, carols, and joy as we waited until midnight to share our Christmas hug. One of my favorite memories is from when I lived in Mexico. As children, we eagerly awaited the coming of the Three Kings, who for us were like our version of Santa Claus. I remember placing my shoes by the door with great anticipation, hoping the Kings would visit our home and leave presents. My mother would wake up early to prepare a special breakfast, and I would wake up to the smell of her cooking. She would tell us to hurry to the door, standing behind us so she could see our smiles as we opened our gifts from the Three Kings. We usually received candy, fruit, socks, and a toy.

I recall asking my mother the names of the Three Kings, and she would give me three names. Later I realized they were the names of my godparents. Looking back, I see that the best gift was not the presents themselves, but the joy my mother gave us and the love she poured into making the holiday special.

We often hear of three wise men, but did you know there is a fourth? Can you imagine who that is? The truth is—it’s you. To be the fourth wise man or woman means recognizing that holiness is not only about arriving at the manger, but about the journey of compassion.

Each time we pause to help someone in need, we offer our homage to Christ. Ordinary people like you and me bring Christ’s presence through our service, gifts, and talents. God has blessed us with many treasures, and the best gift we can give the newborn King is to share those treasures with others—not only material things, but also forgiveness, kindness, hospitality, and love.

So let us ask ourselves: How do we welcome people into our homes, neighborhoods, or parish and make them feel at home? Just as the Magi were guided by a star, what guides us to Jesus, and what gift do we bring to him?

During this season, I think of the carol The Little Drummer Boy:

“Come, they told me, pa rum pumpumpum,
A newborn King to see, pa rum pumpumpum.
Our finest gifts we bring, pa rum pumpumpum,
To lay before the King, pa rum pumpumpum.
So to honor Him, pa rum pumpumpum, when we come.”

It is not how much we spend or how much we give, but what we offer from the heart. Like my mother’s Three Kings gifts—simple yet meaningful—or the boy’s drumbeat offered with joy, the simplest gifts become treasures in the eyes of God.

May the light of Christ guide you on your journey and help you rediscover the wonders of your faith this Epiphany.

Carlos A. Román, Director of Faith Formation

SAINT JOHN NEUMANN- FEAST DAY JANUARY 5

As a boy, John Neumann lived in Bohemia, which is now part of Czech Republic. He studied hard, for he wanted to be a missionary priest in America. By the time he was twenty-four, he had learned six languages and had completed his studies for the priesthood. He was not ordained, however, because his bishop thought there were enough priests in his country. So John Neumann decided to leave for America, hoping to be ordained there. He said goodbye to his parents and brother and sailed for the United States. When he arrived, he had one suit of clothes and one dollar in his pocket. Three weeks later, the bishop of New York ordained him.

Father John's first work was with the German-speaking people in mission parishes near Buffalo, New York. He was not considered very handsome, and some people disliked him and his ways. Priests at that time traveled on horseback and went long distances to care for people in neighboring towns and villages. People laughed at the clumsy way Father John rode. Because he was short, his feet did not reach the stirrups. Children made fun of him. John remained silent, however, and continued going about teaching religion, visiting the sick, and training teachers.

Father John felt the need for community life, so he entered the Redemptorist Order. He was the first Redemptorist to make vows in the United States. He became the superior of the American branch of the order. When Father John was forty-one years old, he became the fourth bishop of Philadelphia. Still, some people did not welcome him. They did not care for his accent and his plain style. Besides these people, John had to deal with an anti-Catholic group that was burning convents and schools. Because John felt he wasn't capable of doing his job, he asked for a smaller diocese, but he was told to stay.

John started Catholic schools in his diocese, for he believed it was very important for children to be educated and taught the ways of Jesus. In eight years Philadelphia's two Catholic schools grew to one hundred schools. John brought many teaching orders to his diocese. He published two catechisms and many articles.

Bishop John Neumann died of a heart attack while he was walking down the street.

Throughout his life, John Neumann went about his work quietly and humbly. No special honors were given him. He was even unpopular. Only after his death did people begin to talk about their humble, good bishop who worked so hard for God.

WHAT TO MAKE OF APPEARANCES?

How has God revealed Himself to us lowly humans? His appearances were a common feature of literature in many cultures in the Ancient Near East. The ancient Greeks had a special word to describe these phenomena, 'theophany.' It translates as "appearance of God." It describes how He reveals or manifests Himself in a very real and visible form. Such appearances in the Old Testament are always regarded as a sign of God's favor. God visited the Patriarchs Abraham & Jacob to personally deliver His message and make clear His will. Abraham had 3 visitors at a critical moment. God tussled with Jacob/Israel ("one who wrestles with God) at Bethel, the 'place of God.' Was it real or a dream? Jake's hip was damaged as a reminder of the encounter. Surely dreams don't inflict injury?

After them, God turned up the volume. His subsequent theophanies are characterized by such awe-inspiring signs such as thunder, fire, enveloping clouds or extremely bright light. God first 'appeared' to Moses most dramatically in the burning bush at Mount Horeb. While Moses didn't strictly 'see' God, His presence was made known to Moses in an unmistakable fashion. The bush blazed with fire but was not consumed. This encounter signified the beginning of Moses' prophetic mission. Later God descends to Moses in fire, thunder and a cloud on Mount Sinai to give him and His Chosen People the 10 Commandments. The people noticed that his face shone as if he suffered a bad case of sunburn (Exodus 34) whenever he went up the mountain to talk with God. Even the entire community fleeing their bondage in Egypt yet grumbling about their departure were treated to the daily sight of a pillar of cloud or fire. The priest & prophet Ezekiel wrote of his visions and how God's presence came to dwell within him in the first few chapters of his book.

We Catholics recognize and accept the very real significance of these appearances. The chronicles of Jesus' life on earth in the NT Gospels are a continuous & prolonged theophany. This weekend we celebrate the beginning of a special subset of the Christmas season on this feast of the Epiphany. This word shares its root with theophany and connotes the idea of an extra special appearance. Epiphany actually relies upon an alternative translation of 'epi' & 'phaneia' to mean a "shining upon." The 1st reading from the book of Isaiah tells how the "light & glory of the Lord has come to shine upon us." This word commonly refers to Christ's appearance to the rest of the world beyond His Jewish parents, Mary & Joseph. We therefore celebrate today the feast of the 3 Kings who traveled from the ends of the earth to pay homage to the newborn King. Next Sunday we celebrate the Baptism of the adult Lord when God and the Holy Spirit announced to the world that "this is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." This 'season' closes out on 2 February on the feast of Candlemas; this is the formal presentation in the Temple of the infant Jesus 40 days after His birth. It is also the ritual purification of Mary His mother according to Jewish law. The Orthodox include the miracle at the Marriage Feast of Cana, the episode of JC's first sign in John's Gospel, as the end to this season of Epiphany. It is the first manifestation of Christ's divine nature in His public ministry.

'Epiphany' should have a personal meaning for us all. The word 'epiphany' has come to mean a sudden insight. It is the 'aha' or 'light bulb moment' when we receive that flash of intuitive understanding. Perhaps it is our abiding reaction to the very real sense of God's presence in our lives. Do you willingly accept God like the Patriarchs, Prophets & Apostles? Or do you argumentatively resist His presence like Jacob before submitting to His will? What does it take for His presence to be manifest to you?

Epiphany House Blessing

Sing: WE THREE KINGS
3 Verses before the Blessing

LDR: Peace to this house.

ALL: And to all who enter here.

LDR: Wise men came from the east to adore the Lord; opening their treasures, they offered gifts.

ALL: GOLD to the Great King!
INCENSE to the true God!
MYRRH for the day of burial!

LDR: My heart praises the Lord: my soul is glad because of God, my Savior!

ALL: God has remembered me a lowly servant. From now on all will call me blessed because of the great things our God has done for me. God's name is holy; for mercy is shown to all who fear God, from one generation to another. The Lord stretched out a mighty arm and scattered the proud with all their plans. Mighty kings were brought down from their thrones, and the lowly were raised up. The hungry were filled with good things, and the rich were sent away with empty hands. God kept the promise made to our ancestors, and came to the help of Israel. God remembered to show mercy to Abraham and Sarah and to all their descendants forever!

LDR: Wise men came from the east, to adore the Lord. Precious gifts were offered from their treasures.

ALL: GOLD for the Great King!
INCENSE to the true God!
MYRRH for the day of burial!

ALL: OUR FATHER.....

LDR: All from Sheba shall come.

ALL: Bearing gold and frankincense.

LDR: O Lord, hear our prayer.

ALL: And let our cry come to you.

LDR: Let us pray. (Pause)

Gracious God, you revealed our Lord, Jesus Christ, to the nations by the guidance of a star. Lead us to Your glory and our eternal home by the light of faith in Jesus, our Lord.

ALL: Amen!

WITH CHALK OR A CRAYON, AN INSCRIPTION IS MADE ABOVE THE DOOR:

20 + C + M + B + 23

(The letters represent the Magi, traditionally named Casper, Melchior and Baltassar, the enclosing year represents the timeless God. Each cross marks a point of the compass for all nations.)

LDR: Arise! Shine! Jerusalem, your light has come.

ALL: The glory of the Lord shines on you.

LDR: Nations shall walk by your light.

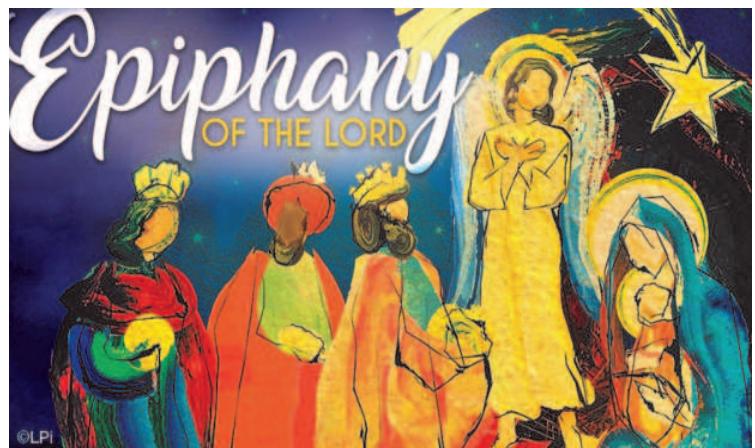

ALL: Kings by your shining radiance.

LDR: Lord, almighty God, bless this home. Let health and goodness abide here; humility and faith, and every victory over sin. Let your words be obeyed and fulfilled here, and thanksgiving ever be made to you, now and forever.

ALL: Amen.

Verses 4 & 5

These are Pope Leo XIV's prayer intentions for 2026

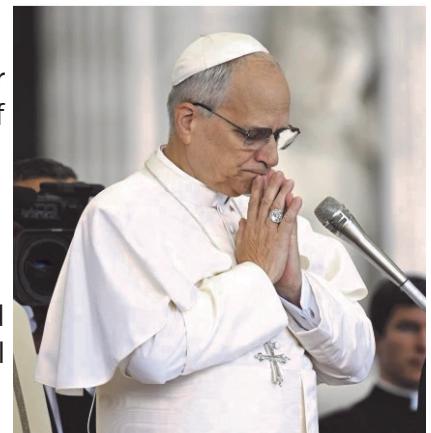

By Francesca Pollio Fenton, Catholic News Agency

Every month, Pope Leo asks Catholics around the world to pray for a particular intention. This initiative is accompanied by a video in which the pontiff expresses the reasons why he has chosen that particular intention.

Below is the complete list of Pope Leo's prayer intentions for 2026.

January: For prayer with the word of God

Let us pray that praying with the word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

February: For children with incurable diseases

Let us pray that children suffering from incurable diseases and their families receive the necessary medical care and support, never losing strength and hope.

March: For disarmament and peace

Let us pray that nations move toward effective disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that world leaders choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy instead of violence.

April: For priests in crisis

Let us pray for priests going through moments of crisis in their vocation, that they may find the accompaniment they need and that communities may support them with understanding and prayer.

May: That everyone might have food

Let us pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoid wasting food and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

June: For the values of sports

Let us pray that sports be an instrument of peace, encounter, and dialogue among cultures and nations, and that they promote values such as respect, solidarity, and personal growth.

July: For respect for human life

Let us pray for the respect and protection of human life in all its stages, recognizing it as a gift from God.

August: For evangelization in the city

Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.

September: For the care of water

Let us pray for a just and sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone may have equal access to it.

October: For mental health ministry

Let us pray that mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

November: For the proper use of wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

December: For single-parent families

Let us pray for families experiencing the absence of a mother or father, that they may find support and accompaniment in the Church, and help and strength in the faith during difficult times.
