PARISH SURVEY

Our parish is on a journey to know, love, and serve Christ as a parish community. Together we must embrace Christ's vision for missionary discipleship so our parish can thrive and be a place for others to grow together in faith.

The very first step in this process involves assessing our greatest strengths and opportunities, and that is where the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) comes in! The DMI is an important survey tool that invites you to reflect on your discipleship journey here at St. John Neumann.

Please take a moment to complete the DMI survey today. Our parish has until March 29 to submit responses.

- Your input helps strengthen our parish.
- Results help leadership prepare for the future.
- A report of the findings will be shared in the late spring.

If you prefer a paper copy, you may pick up a survey after daily or Sunday Masses. They will be available near the church entrance, or you may ask an usher for a copy. Completed surveys can be returned to the parish office or placed in the collection basket.

The survey may also be completed online. It requires approximately 10–15 minutes.

Please use the following link to access it:
<https://survey.catholicleaders.org/d/pb3dp8> or use the QR Code.

At St. John Neumann, we are blessed in so many ways. Together, we will identify our strengths and opportunities in greater detail as we strive to grow in missionary discipleship.

For any questions or additional information, please contact Carlos at 708-798-0622, ext. 4.

Please continue to pray for this intention and for the growth and protection of our parish.

If you would like a copy of your summary of donations to St John Neumann Parish for 2025, please call the rectory: 708-798-0622 ext 2 or email rectory@sjnhomewood.org.

SCRUTINIES

In the olden days prior to 1969 the 5th Sunday of Lent was known as Passion Sunday; it marked the beginning of 'Passiontide,' the final 2 weeks of Lent. Popes John XXIII & Paul VI, who straddled the modernizing 2nd Vatican Council, revised the Roman Missal & General Liturgical Calendar to discontinue references to it. Are you too young to remember the traditional practice of shrouding crucifixes & other images with a purple veil? Statues were veiled until the start of the Easter Vigil and crosses were uncovered after Good Friday. While not, strictly speaking, the start of a separate liturgical season, this Sunday represented a subtle shift in feeling. We move from our concentration on our self-examination & repentance to more intense reflections on Christ's Passion. Passio is the Latin word for 'suffering.' This shift does not relieve us of our need for scrutiny. It is not enough to be aware of the immensity of His sacrifice to atone for our sinful ways. We need to change.

This transition occurs today at the final Scrutiny for our catechumens. They are the 'Elect' who have chosen to convert to our Catholic faith. The source of this Latin word means to 'turn toward.' During the prior 2 weeks these 'Elect' have specifically scrutinized themselves. They have been expected to open the eyes of their souls, examine carefully how sin works in their lives, and make the deliberate choice to turn away from turning away from God. Their formal 'turn toward' Him occurs at their Baptisms at the Easter Vigil. We too should have been scrutinizing our selves for the same purpose. In the traditional Gospel passage for each of these Scrutinies, we witness a miracle caused by an unexpected encounter with Jesus. The episodes are from John's Gospel. Each passages is a story of forgiveness, healing, and radical transformation of life, otherwise known as conversion.

Each meeting is uncomfortable. Scrutinizing questions are asked and responsive answers are demanded. In similar ways Jesus makes Himself known to us as well. We need, however, to see the spiritual dimension to His invitation. We are asked to convert to an offer of a new life that isn't necessarily easy. There can be strong reasons for staying safely in our old ways with their security of familiarity. To assent to a new but unknown life takes courage and a willingness to change and grow. Our conversion requires that we too enter into a new life of the spirit. We are introduced to this concept when Jesus meets Nicodemus, a Pharisee & member of the ruling council, in John 3. Jesus prescribes a spiritual transformation that occurs when one is "born again." To depart from our former life to be 'born again' signifies a profound renewal. This change involves repentance from sin, acceptance of Jesus 's atoning sacrifice & the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. The evidence of being born again is manifested in a transformed life. This includes a growing love for God and others, a desire for holiness & the blossoming of the 'fruit of the Spirit' as described in Galatians 5: 22.

Two weeks ago we met the Samaritan woman who talked with Jesus at the well. It was clear that she was metaphorically 'thirsting' for what only God's love can satisfy. The woman's honesty about herself was painful. Her confession opened her mind & heart & voice to God for His purpose. Last week a man born blind is given a new life. His gift is not merely eyesight. He is blessed with the awareness & insight to see all things as they really are. Who was really blind to the light of Jesus's presence, this poor guy or the Pharisees who interrogated him? Today's story is about Jesus's friends in Bethany, Martha, Mary & Lazarus. The sisters' faith is sorely tested by their despairing grief in this dark moment. Jesus restores their hope with His revelation that "no one who lives and has faith in me shall ever die." No one is more 'born again' than Lazarus. This can happen to you if you allow it!

Have you scrupulously scrutinized yourself this Lent? Psalm 19:12 asks the "Lord, cleanse me from my unknown faults & restrain your servant from sin." Are you ignoring a hidden sin that you foolishly presume to keep from God out of shame? Allow the examples of Jesus's gentle compassion to redirect our self-examination to heal our past. Allow the Spirit to be our companion in the transformation of our lives. Don't let the salvation of His sacrifice be squandered in you. Turn away from turning away from God by re-turning to Him.

LENTEN SERIES

We were also deeply moved by Kevin Peace's presentation at our third Lenten Speaker Series. Kevin began by asking a simple but powerful question: Have you ever had a broken heart? He reflected on how, when people believe they no longer need God, their hearts can harden—just as Pharaoh's heart hardened in the Book of Exodus. Broken hearts can harden too, as people close themselves off to avoid being hurt again. Yet in doing so, they also close themselves off to God. Kevin reminded us that God thirsts for us to thirst for Him, and that God loves us first so that we may learn to love Him in return.

We are grateful to Meal Plus for providing the soup and bread, and to our Hospitality Ministry for the wonderful baked goods that made the evening even more special.

ST. JOSEPH'S TABLE

This past Sunday, our parish joyfully celebrated the Feast of St. Joseph. Many families and children joined us and generously donated delicious pasta, baked goods, and other treats. Saint Joseph holds a special place in our faith—he is one of the most important saints in the Church. As the foster father of Jesus and the husband of Mary, he is the patron of the Universal Church, workers, fathers, families, immigrants, travelers, unborn children, and many professions. His feast days are March 19 (Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary) and May 1 (St. Joseph the Worker).

It was a beautiful gathering, and we extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone who volunteered, donated, and helped make this celebration so meaningful for the St. John Neumann community.
