PASTOR'S MESSAGE

"Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all,
 and did not need anyone to testify about human nature.
 He himself understood it well."
 John 2:24-25

Jesus did not trust others because he understood human nature well. And what is our human nature like? It is certainly flawed and fragile. Today's first reading from Exodus 20:1-17 delineates the Ten Commandments. Our need to have commandments springs from our weak human nature, which is prone to sin. Commandments clarify right from wrong. Commandments warn us to not do things that are harmful either to our relationship with God or to one another. The Ten Commandments have stood the test of time; their wisdom is so much to be treasured that today's psalm, Psalm 19, proclaims that it is the Lord who has words of eternal life, words more precious than gold and sweeter than honey from the comb.

In today's gospel from John 2:13-25, Jesus runs out the money changers and those selling livestock in the Temple area. We see a window into a rare example of Jesus' anger being manifested by the clearing out of those who have tainted the sacred space of God's holy Temple. Commandments nine and ten speak of coveting things that are not our own: our neighbor's wife or possessions. We see how Jesus is striking out against those who are coveting the money they can profit from selling animals for sacrifices or overcharging on the exchange of foreign currencies. This passage reminds us of that we should honor every church, every house of God, as holy ground, even more so now than at the time of the Temple since their tabernacles contain the real presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. We too must fight the temptation to focus too much on commerce or on the coveting of material possessions and instead focus on the Word of God that gives spirit and life. As we continue our Lenten journey may we take time to reflect on each of the 10 Commandments, honoring them as the words that give us everlasting life, and may we always reverence the presence of God in our holy houses of worship.

OVERFLOW PROTOCOLS

A recent blessing is that we are experiencing higher numbers of parishioners attending Mass. Hopefully this trend will continue as we enter Lent and as more persons become vaccinated and feel safe to return. Because of the six-foot distancing rule, we are only able to accommodate approximately 300 persons in our sanctuary. We ask for your cooperation if you enter the church and an usher or sacristan informs you that there are no spaces available. Last Sunday this took place at our 9:15 a.m. Mass. Those who came after there was no additional room were directed to the McDonald Family Center gym. There we have a screen where the Mass is livestreamed. Ushers come by to conduct the collection during the Offertory and an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist goes by to distribute communion as well. We have the capability to offer overflow at the MFC at the Saturday 5:30 p.m. and Sunday 9:15 a.m. Masses. If the 11 a.m. Mass is full, we will direct you to our 11:15 a.m. Mass in the SMAC or St. Matthew Athletic Center. It is a walk, but you will find the high ceilings and spaciousness of the double gym conducive to a safe atmosphere for worship. At this time, we do not anticipate overflow needs at the other Masses: 7:30 a.m., 1 p.m. Spanish and 6 p.m. We continue to monitor those Masses. If overflow becomes necessary in the future, we will seek to hire our videographer to also be able to provide overflow for those Masses in our MFC.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The Station of the Cross will be held on Fridays during Lent at the Devotional Park 4:30 p.m. and after the Friday 6:00 p.m. daily Mass at St. Matthew Church.

SOLICITATION OF FUNDS

We remind you that if you receive an e-mail, phone message or text message requesting money or i-tune cards for or from one of our priests, this is a scam. Please do not respond. Report this to our office. None of our priests or deacons or staff members would or should ever solicit funds for their personal use. Unfortunately, with digital security lapses, we cannot prevent hackers from attempting to do these malicious things. Never give money from this kind of request. Always verify through a phone call to our office.

WIDOW/WIDOWER SUPPORT GROUP

The support group for persons who have been widowed has been meeting in person with covid protocols in place [mandatory masks, social distancing]. With isolation with the shutdown, we are currently meeting weekly instead of only the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month. We meet in the parish hall, which is connected to the worship space, because that gives us room to spread out. The person to person contact is important during these times of isolation, which complicates our grieving. We have remained healthy. If you have questions, you may contact Bruce A. Orey at 210-478-5036 or Lupe Lizcano at 210-348-6199.

The 10 Commandments

- 2 Use God's name with respect
- 3 Go to church on Sunday
- 4 Respect your mother & father
- 5 Do not hurt or kill anyone
- 6 Respect marriage promises
- 7 Do not steal
- 8 Do not lie
- 9 Do not be jealous of other relationships
- 10 Do not be jealous of what others have

St. Matthew's Kids

Today's Gospel invites us to think about our worship of God. Just as we have important holy places where we gather to pray and to worship God, there was a special holy place for the Jewish people in Jerusalem when Jesus was alive. This place was the Temple. It was first built by King Solomon to house the Ark of the Covenant, which contained the tablets on which were written the Ten Commandments. That first temple was destroyed in 587 B.C., long before Jesus was born. But a second temple was built in its place when the Jewish people were able to return to Jerusalem. This is the Temple that Jesus knew, and it had recently been made bigger under King Herod. But Jesus does an unusual thing at the Temple in today's Gospel. What did Jesus do? Why do you think he did this?

As Christians, we experience God's presence in many ways. We believe that the place where we gather as a community to pray, our church, is holy. We also believe that Christ is present in a special way in the Eucharist, which is kept in the tabernacle in our church so that we can pray in Christ's presence. This week, as a family, visit the St. Matthew Adoration Chapel and spend some time with Jesus.

New Adult Bible Studies

2 Timothy 3:14-17: 'All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient and equipped for every good work.'

Two new adult Bible studies on the Old Testament Book of Second Samuel will begin in September of this year and will continue until the spring of 2021. Second Samuel relates God's establishment of the dynasty of King David instead of being governed by God alone, a momentous change in the history of Israel. Both studies will use the Ignatius Press workbook by Dr. Scott Hahn for only $10 for the entire year. Gail Dereszewski will be the presenter for both groups.

In this time of COVID-19, sessions will be online until at least the beginning of October. Online sessions will begin on Thursday September 17th at 7 PM. Once we can meet safely again in person:

1. The Tuesday morning Bible study will meet Tuesdays through April 27th of 2021 from 9:45 AM until noon, except between the Thanksgiving through the New Year's holidays, in Room 106 of the MacDonald Family Center.
2. The Thursday evening Bible study will meet from 7:00 - 8:45 PM in the school cafeteria and will meet most Thursdays until April 29th of 2021, except between the Thanksgiving through the New Year's holidays.

For more information or to register, please call Gail Dereszewski at the parish offices at 478-5004 or email her at gail@stmatts.org to register. Please leave your contact telephone number and email when you register. Your email will be used for connecting you to the online sessions.

TMiy Continues this Spring!

Christ didn't say, "I make new things." He said, "I make all things new." The profundity of the Scriptures sets the stage for a renewal of mind and heart – a new creation story, a new Adam, a new Eve, a new covenant and even a new kingdom! Encounter God the Father. Enlighten your mind with spiritual truths that will help transform the world. Become a new creation in Christ and allow mercy to consume your miseries. Meetings resume virtually over Zoom on Tuesday mornings beginning January 26. All men are welcome. In order to register, please contact Matt Hoffmeyer at 281-254-4653. ### PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine love, impart Your knowledge, understanding, and counsel to youth that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolutions, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts, and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service. Amen. (EWTN)

TOTAL ALLEGIANCE

In previous weeks we have seen how the theme of covenant—as a preparation for the baptismal covenant celebrated at Easter—occupies an important place in our cycle of Lenten readings. The notion of covenant as a relationship between two parties carries with it an expectation of mutual accountability and fidelity to the terms of the covenant. When God forged the covenant with the Jewish people on Mt. Sinai, it was a pledge of God's protection, and it would forever permit them familiar access as the Chosen People. For their part, the Jewish people were to observe the dictates of the law, summarized most succinctly here in the form of the Ten Commandments. To be in a covenantal relationship with the Lord God requires an exclusive relationship, just as discipleship with Jesus—ritualized in baptism—demands a total allegiance to him and none other.
