PASTOR'S MESSAGE

"The Lord said to Elijah:

"You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you. . . .

Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him. . . .

Then Elisha left and followed

Elijah as his attendant."

From I Kings 19:16b, 19-21

As I write my last Pastor's Message for the good people of St. Matthew's Parish, I couldn't have selected a more appropriate set of readings to say farewell. As I pass on the pastorship to a good friend, Father Eric Ritter, it seems like just a short while back when I was meeting with Msgr. Michael Yarbrough and he was handing me a stack of papers for me to review as he passed the torch of leadership to me. In today's First Reading from I Kings 19, Elijah is nearing his departure from this world and is passing his mantle onto Elisha. We recall that when asked what he wished for, Elisha did not seek gold or power or fame but a double portion of the great prophet's spirit. Indeed Elijah had selected well.

When Msgr. Mike and Fr. Eric and I were ordained to the diocesan priesthood we solemnly placed our hands within those of the bishop and promised obedience to him and his successor. In today's Gospel from Luke 9:51-62, Jesus tells the man who says, "I will follow you wherever you go", that unlike the foxes and birds who have dens and nests, the Son of Man has no permanent place to rest. So we were ordained to be itinerant, albeit not as itinerant as Jesus was, who moved frequently from village to village, but nonetheless on the move. There's a beauty to obedience, opening your life to a new chapter, a new part of our Archdiocese, a new set of neighborhoods, settings and people to start afresh yet with the old familiar pattern of what we do as priests: preach, anoint, listen, pray and travel on the journey of faith with God's people.

In looking back 12 years I have without a doubt been enriched by all of the encounters I have had with you, the parishioners and staff of St. Matthew's Parish and School. While it has been a joy to have renovated the church and made a mark on the physical plant of our parish, what I treasure the most is walking with you as a companion on the journey of faith: to minister with the dying and those who are grieving, to baptize your newborn child or grandchild as we welcome them into our world and Church, to anoint those in need of God's healing grace, to be so humbled as to hear you bear your soul in a confession: this is what I will remember and treasure. I will miss you all greatly, and I do love you!

So on to the parish of another evangelist, St. Mark, where a new chapter will be written. I will pray for you, and I humbly ask that you pray for me, as I hold tight to the beautiful memories of a place I was blessed to be a part of and will never forget!

Till we meet again, Fr. Dennis

Social Sunday and Farewell Fr. Dennis

Join us for Social Sunday in the Parish Hall on June 26th after Mass and enjoy a cookie, coffee, lemonade and visit with your fellow parishioners

Fr. Dennis' final Masses will be at 7:30 and 9:15 a.m. After these and the 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Masses, Fr. Dennis will be present at Social Sunday. You are welcome to stop by to visit with him and wish him a warm farewell.

TESTED BY FIRE Since gold and silver, which are only corruptible metals, are purified and tested by fire, it is but reasonable that our faith, which surpasses all the riches of the world, should be tried.
—St. Peter Claver

MCDONALD CENTER RENOVATION

We are pleased that the remodeling of our McDonald Center is underway. The main entrance, restrooms and gym are off limits due to construction. The meeting rooms are still accessible from the side entrances. Please note that if you are attending a gathering in one of the meeting rooms, the only restrooms that can be accessed are the ones in the church. Our initial hope was that the renovation of the main entrance, restrooms and gym into a banquet hall would be complete by this October. Like everyone else involved in construction at this time, there are supply chain disruptions and delays. Because of this we do not know for certain if the renovation will be ready by October or November, but we certainly plan for it to be ready by the end of the year. At this time the renovation of the classrooms will be reviewed at a later date and by the new pastor, since the priority is on completing this phase of our renovation. We thank you for your patience.

AT A LOSS When wealth is lost, nothing is lost; when health is lost, something is lost; when character is lost, all is lost.

—German proverb

St. Matthew's Kids

I Have Decided to follow Jesus

Copyright © 2022 Creative For Kids.

This is a difficult reading and an even more difficult challenge. Jesus calls us to follow him—without hesitation or exception. Sometimes we respond to God's call like the person who says, "I will . . . but first . . ." We put conditions on our discipleship. We may practice our faith but only when it is convenient. Total commitment is difficult. We can only hope to be successful because Jesus has gone before us to show us the way. We must walk in his footsteps and pray for his help.

What kind of person do you think leaves everything to follow Jesus? What do you think it means to leave everything behind? Have you sometimes put something else before God? Reflect on the reasons why. What are some reasons why we hesitate to commit fully to following Jesus? How can we overcome these hesitations? The path of discipleship is one that requires the disciple to make sacrifices to truly follow Jesus. At the end of each Mass, the presider or deacon tells us to go out into the world and live our lives according to the Gospel. Pray about what that means in your lives. What sacrifices can you make to respond properly to your baptismal call of discipleship?

DISCIPLESHIP'S COSTS

In today's first reading, God tells the prophet Elijah to prepare Elisha to succeed him. Succeeding Elijah will be no easy task; he has spent his life facing threats from the kings he has confronted about their infidelity to the God of Israel. The psalm illustrates the emotional and spiritual distress that the prophets' steadfast faithfulness to God brought them. Paul's description of the Christian's freedom from the law as opposed to "the desire of the flesh" puts this struggle at the very heart of Christian identity. The reading from Luke's Gospel recounts Jesus' decision to journey toward Jerusalem, where he knows he will meet his earthly fate. Following Jesus—like succeeding Elijah as prophet—will now become more difficult. Unlike his calls to the first disciples, Jesus encounters those who are not ready or are not strong enough to journey with him.

Prayer for Rain Novena in Honor of St. Isidore: Patron of Farmers

O God, in Whom we live and move and have our being, grant us rain, in due abundance, that, being sufficiently helped with temporal gifts, we may seek with more confidence those that are eternal. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK
 Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 O God, who through the grace of adoption chose us to be children of light, grant, we pray, that we may not be wrapped in the darkness of error but always be seen to stand in the bright light of truth.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
Reflection question:
Am I someone whom others see as standing in the bright light of truth?
