PASTOR'S CORNER The Gospel reading for Sunday continues Jesus' expansion of the Sermon on the Mount and completes the Six Antitheses. Matthew 5:38-42 are Jesus' teaching on retaliation. Jesus forbids the misuse of Mosaic civil law, which permitted 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth', which was actually a limitation of the violence of that time. Mosaic civil law was never an invitation to inflict punishment for personal injuries or extend personal vengeance beyond the injury suffered. The punishment was to fit the crime. Jesus forbids private retaliation and counsels forgiveness and forbearance in the face of injury and insult. Jesus calls for an ungrudging and patient generosity. Matthew 5:43-48 are Jesus' teaching on loving one's enemies. This is probably the most challenging of Jesus' teachings on authentic discipleship. Mosaic Law requires love of neighbor. However, 'neighbor' was restricted to fellow Jews. The commandment to hate one's enemy is a reference to ancient Israel's warfare regulations. Against this Old Testament background, Jesus expands the definition of neighbor and enemy. He considers the love of God and the love of neighbor as the two greatest commandments, and expands the definition of neighbor to include the Gentiles living in Palestine, and the Roman oppressors and their delegates, the tax collectors. The Father considers all of His human creation as His beloved children. His love and care for others is a model for Christian mercy. The Sermon on the Mount concludes with Jesus' call to be perfect, as the Father in heaven is perfect. Just as Israel was called to imitate God in being holy (Leviticus 19:2), so Jesus calls the Church to imitate God's perfect holiness. God is merciful to the good and evil alike, so His adopted children must extend mercy even to their enemies. This is a most high standard of holiness indeed, one that most of us will fail on this side of eternity. Next Sunday is the First Sunday of Lent. May these last four Sunday readings from the Sermon on the Mount help us prepare for our Lenten penitence. How do you measure up? What do you find challenging? What do you need to do to be perfect as Our Father in Heaven is perfect?

Amen! Fr. Eric

FAST AND ABSTINENCE REGULATIONS

Ash Wednesday is a day of universal fast and abstinence in the Church. According to the law of the Church, the requirement of fasting affects all those who have celebrated their 18th birthday but have not yet celebrated their 60th birthday. The rule of fasting is that only one full meal a day may be taken in addition to two small meals taken "to maintain sufficient strength". Together, however, these two smaller meals should not equal a full meal. Abstinence refers to refraining from eating meat. The common estimation of the community is used to determine what falls under the category of meat. That would normally include beef, poultry, lamb and pork. The rule of abstinence binds all Catholics 14 years or older. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are to be observed as both days of fast and abstinence. All Fridays during Lent should likewise be observed as days of abstinence. There is not particular legal sanction attached to failure in observance. As a Catholic Christian you will not lightly hold yourself excused, however, from the Lenten fast.

No Sacrament of Penance will be offered on Ash Wednesday

"Help one another with the generosity of the Lord, and despise no one. When you have the opportunity to do good, do not let it go by."

Saint Polycarp

This year Lent begins on 2/22/23, Ash Wednesday. Anyone can receive ashes on their foreheads. Have you received ashes before? How did you feel when the ashes were placed on your forehead? Who is wearing ashes in the picture? What kinds of jobs do they have?

St. Matthew's Kids

Prayer, fasting and almsgiving are at the heart of the 40 days of Lent. Throughout the season of Lent, which begins on Ash Wednesday, we are called to deepen our prayer life. For some of us, this means beginning a habit of daily prayer, setting aside time each day to share our hopes, joys, fears and frustrations with God. When we pray, we are better able to let God work through us instead of trying to "do it ourselves".

Families can also participate in fasting and abstinence – the practice of giving up something in order to turn away from sin and draw closer to God. This "giving up" helps us make room for God, strengthens our will, prepares us for mission and puts us in solidarity with the suffering of Christ and people all around the world. Almsgiving is as much a spiritual discipline as an act of charity, especially when our giving comes at a personal sacrifice. In small acts of giving, families can strive to imitate Christ, who gave his life for us so that we might have eternal life.

PRAYER FOR LENT

In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit

All-powerful God,
father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
by water and the Holy Spirit,
you freed us from sin
and gave us new life.

During this season of Lent,
send your Holy Spirit
once again to guide us into solitude and reflection.
Be with us through the desolation of the desert, fortify us against the evil one,
and renew us in the living waters of Jesus.

Give us a courageous and resolute spirit, a spirit
of sobriety and humility, that we may have eyes to see the darkness within us and the painful reality of our sin.

Wash us clean again, O Spirit,
And fill us with wonder and awe in your presence.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

ORACION DE CUARESMA

En nombre del Padre, y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo

Dios Todopoderoso, Padre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, que a travez del agua y el Espíritu Santo, nos liberó del pecado y nos dio nueva vida.

Durante este tiempo de Cuaresma, envia tu Espíritu Santo, una vez mas, para que nos guie en solitud y reflexión. Permanece con nosotros a travez de la desolación del desierto, fortalecenos en la presencia del maligno, y renueva nuestras vidas con el Agua Viva de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

Danos un espíritu valeroso y firme, sensato y humilde que nos permita reconocer y aceptar la obscuridad que reside en todos nosotros y la dolorosa realidad de nuestros pecados.

Espíritu Saño limpianos de todo pecado, para que podamos vivir asombrados y maravillados del milagroso regalo de tu presencia.

Pedimos todo esto a travez de nuestro Senor Jesucristo.
Amén

ANNULMENT PROCESS

If you were married and divorced and have questions about the annulment process, we are here to help! Please reach out to Diane Sowell at 210-478-5035 to get additional information and set up a time to discuss the healing effects of this process. We will provide you with the necessary information and support to work through the process, as well as explain the process and paperwork necessary to complete the application. It isn't as difficult as you may think and our help and support is available. Why not reach out today?

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

If you are planning to get married in the Catholic Church, we request that you contact us 6 months to a year prior to your planned wedding day to start your formation process. Please contact Diane Sowell, Marriage Coordinator at 210-478-5035.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Spiritual Direction is a ministry of deep listening. The Spiritual Director and seeker listen together and become attuned to the movement of the Holy Spirit in every aspect of life. If you have a committed prayer life, seek to deepen the presence of God in your life, and are able to honor a monthly appointment commitment, you might consider spiritual direction.

The following are formed spiritual directors for St. Matthew's parish.

Ana Bernal – 210-823-7742 (bilingual)
Bruce Birt – 210-325-6618 (Zoom and in-person; general and Ignatian spiritual direction)
Sr. Vera Butler, PBVM – 504-638-7745
Gail Dereszewski – 210-478-5004 (Zoom and in-person; general and Ignatian spiritual direction)
Jim Dreyer – 210-387-5221
Tina Guerra – 210-912-7526 (bilingual)
Frinee Sabella – 210-827-3112 (bilingual)
Sandra Sanchez – 913-515-6370 (Zoom and in-person; general and Ignatian spiritual direction)
Annette Smith – 210-823-5832 (leave a message)
Keith Smith – 210-912-8547 (Zoom and in-person)
Deacon Oscar Vela – 210-478-5013
Pepe Villagomez – 210-241-1990 (bilingual)
