But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." Mark 10:42-44

Stewardship is an expression of our practical faith. It is not just about how we spend our money, but about how we spend our lives. We are called to spend our lives in service to others.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Is 53:10-11; Ps 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22;
Heb 4:14-16; Mk 10:35-45 or 10:42-45

So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Hebrews 4:16

I wonder how many times I have thrown up my hands in exasperation and muttered some version of, "I'm stressed out about this, and I don't know what to do or which way to go!" Indeed, in today's world, if you aren't stressed and busy, it seems you must be doing something wrong. But God offers us an alternative. God offers us the courage and confidence to ask for and receive just enough mercy and grace to meet the challenges of our lives. "Busy and stressed" may be the mantra of today's world, but "grace and mercy" are much more powerful and enduring. God, give me the courage and confidence to approach You when I need You most.

Marriage Moment

Do something unexpected for your spouse today that shows you appreciate them. For example: place a love note in their briefcase or computer bag; take a selfie and send as a message; say, "I appreciate you because....."

Parenting Pointer

Children make mistakes. That's natural. Of course you forgive them. For example, they may promise to never drink and drive again. Believe them. But this doesn't mean you enable a teen by being blind to reality. Forgive but verify. (Parenting Your Adult Child)
