October 23, 2022

The readings for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time teach about the importance of humility and persistence in prayer. The first reading, taken from the Book of Sirach, takes up the subject of God and prayer. In this reading, the Jewish sage makes three important points on this subject: first, while completely impartial, God hears especially the lament of the oppressed; second, the one who is obedient and serves God is highly valued; third, the "prayer of the lowly" is heard and responded to by God.

The reading from Paul's Second Letter to Timothy begins by acknowledging that his public ministry to the Gentiles is near its end. The reading concludes with Paul recollecting moments of doubt and fear, but also highlighting the strength he drew from Christ to carry on his evangelization of the Gentiles.

In today's Gospel, Jesus compares the self-righteous, self-serving, and judgmental prayer of a Pharisee, an otherwise respected religious leader of the people, to the sincere and sorrowful prayer of a tax collector, a known and often despised collaborator with the Roman occupiers. Like the Jewish sage from the Book of Sirach, Jesus makes the critical connection that regardless of position or station in life, God hears the prayer of people impartially, rewarding those who are humble of heart.

Sunday, October 23rd -3:00pm - OLGC Parish Hall

When an injury ends his amateur boxing career, Stuart Long moves to Los Angeles to find money and fame. While scraping by as a supermarket clerk, Stu, a long time agnostic, tries to win over Carmen, a Sunday school teacher, by going to church, in an effort to impress her. However, a motorcycle accident leaves him wondering if he can use his second chance to help others, leading to the surprising realization that he's meant to be a Catholic priest. Contact:

This Sunday's Second Collection

World Mission Sunday

During the Mission Month of October, Pope Francis reminds us that, as Christians, we are called personally to mission – especially at this time – to bring Christ's love to those most forgotten around the world. Jesus is God the Father's Missionary; He asks us to respond to this call to mission, this invitation to "step out of ourselves to love God and neighbor." This year, in response to this invitation and the challenges created by the pandemic, I invite you to consider a sacrificial gift to the annual World Mission Sunday collection, on October 22nd and 23rd. Your generous support will enable the Society for the Propagation of the Faith to continue to spread the growing faith communities of our day.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,
Devotedly yours in Christ
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

IVC – Experience Making a Difference

The Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) is an exciting program that invites faith-motivated volunteers to serve with the poor and marginalized. Volunteers are age 50 and better, retired or semi-retired. Volunteers reflect and pray in the Ignatian tradition on their service, meet monthly with other IVC Volunteers.

Visit: www.ivcusa.org for more information and find New York on the interactive map.

If service (one or two days a week), prayer, and reflection interest you, contact Maureen Fullam for more information at 917-859-0928 or mfullam@ivcusa.org

Documentary Film - The Letter: Laudato Si

In this film, four voices that have gone unheard in global conversations about the environmental crisis have been invited to an unprecedented dialogue with the Pope. Hailing from Senegal, the Amazon, India, and Hawaii, they bring perspective and solutions from the poor, the indigenous, the youth, and wildlife into a conversation with Pope Francis himself. This documentary follows their journey to Rome and the extraordinary experiences that took place there, and is packed with powerfully moving personal stories alongside the latest information about the planetary crisis and the toll it's taking on nature and people.
