April 15, 2018 - 3rd Sunday of Easter

Through Confusion to Faith

As Luke sets up this appearance narrative, just when some of the group in Jerusalem were saying that the Lord had appeared to Peter, the Emmaus travelers explained their experience. Luke almost gives the impression that everyone was talking at once when Jesus suddenly materialized in their midst and greeted them with peace.

Understandably, their first response was anything but joy — in fact, Luke uses two distinct words to describe their reaction of fear and then adds that they thought they were seeing a ghost. This gives us a pretty clear idea of how much faith they had put in what they had just heard recounted from Peter and the two who had returned from Emmaus.

Seeing that his greeting of peace had not calmed their anxiety, Jesus asked his friends to search their hearts and to let their senses confirm that he was no phantasm, but the companion they had known and had seen suffer. Still trying to vanquish their incredulity, Jesus asked to eat with them just as he had done with the two he stayed with at Emmaus. Then, admitting that his presence among them was different from what it was before his death, he tried to help bridge the gap by returning to his role as teacher. In effect he said, “I am telling you again what I tried to get you to understand so many times before.” He then gave them the three essential keys to understanding his mission and preaching: God’s Messiah was not what they expected, but the one who suffered and rose from the dead; conversion and forgiveness would be preached in his name; his disciples had the responsibility to spread that message from its birthplace in the heart of Israel to the entire world.

The message of the Resurrection, the message of the salvation and forgiveness offered by a crucified and risen Savior, is not easy to take in or live out. All four evangelists portray the difficulty of grasping the message. The paschal mystery overturns all ordinary expectations and controverts normal human ambitions. The Gospel privileges sinners who gratefully accept forgiveness over anyone who tries to earn their own way. If we have little problem believing the message of Easter, perhaps we have not even begun to understand it.

St. Vincent de Paul News

The Portland St. Vincent de Paul office was recently informed that a single mother, a victim of domestic abuse with three young children, had been living in her car. Our chapter here at St. Cyril's, along with 5 other St. Vincent groups from various parishes, was able to contribute funds to aid this family in need.

A coordinated effort arranged for a hotel stay; then a low-income apartment was located with first and last months rent paid. Being stabilized, the woman was able to get a job, and now a new, more secure life is possible.

This story is St. Vincent de Paul at work, helping those going through a bad time.

Thank you so much for your support of our mission!

MAY SHE REST IN PEACE

Parents of Children Preparing for First Communion

This is a reminder to remember to attend the First Communion Retreat next weekend with your child on Saturday, April 21 from 9:00 AM to 12:00 noon in the Parish Hall. We will review all that the children have learned about the parts of the Mass and going to Communion. We will make some crafts as well as create banners for display at our First Communion Masses the weekend of May 5 & 6. This is a wonderful opportunity to witness how much your children have grown in their faith life this year.

Parishioners are encouraged to pray for our students and their families over the next few weeks. They are :

Prayer Request for our Confirmation Candidates

Our high school Confirmation students have been preparing this year for Confirmation. They are Alexis Schuettke and Connor Schuettke. Our candidates will be getting confirmed on May 20 at the 5:00 pm Mass at St. Francis Catholic Church in Sherwood. Archbishop Emeritus John Vlazny will be the main celebrant.

Our church community can help lift up in prayer our First Communion students and our Confirmation candidates for this final month of preparation. As you enter or leave the church please take a colored paper that has a student's name on it from the baskets at the church doors. We thank you in advance for taking the time to include them in your prayers.
