June 24, 2018 - Nativity of St. John the Baptist

Patron of the In-Between Times

John is a most unusual saint. A fiery preacher who was unafraid to call soldiers and tax collectors to reform, his ministry came to an end because he spoke the truth about King Herod, the conniving, cowardly womanizer who exercised far more power than strength or conscience.

In a time of mystifying change, John showed the humility and faithfulness to be the precursor who never knew precisely who was to come after him. He began his mission in an in-between time while Jesus was living in obscurity. He baptized Jesus — hesitantly according to Matthew. John the Evangelist even tells us that the Baptizer saw God's Spirit descend on Jesus and called him the Lamb of God. Nevertheless, John never became Jesus' disciple. For whatever reason, the Spirit did not bestow that gift of faith on him.

John is one of a few figures from the Christian Scriptures whom we call saints even though they were not followers of Jesus. John heralded wonder and mystery. He called his people to prepare their lives and hearts for what was to come, but he couldn't proclaim a mystery that was yet to be revealed. Living a vocation that seemingly required more faith than Jesus ever asked of his disciples, John's most powerful preaching was and still is the example of his life. Authentic to the core, John remained passionately dedicated to his mission even though what was to come was beyond his imagination. Like the faithful prophet described in Isaiah's Servant Song, though he may have thought he had toiled in vain, John placed his trust in the God who called him rather than in his own vision or understanding. John was the ideal precursor, faithful enough to withstand the tension of the in-between time which bridged past and future.

John may be just the saint we need for our times. While we know the Christ he could only hope for, we too live an in-between time. Many aspects of the modern world to which we have been accustomed are changing or ending. The most we know about the future is that we cannot imagine it. John the Baptizer was formed by his father, the priest who had to keep silence, and by his mother, the woman who prophesied. Who better than John to teach us how to cultivate hope and help others trust in God's unpredictable, unlimited faithfulness?

Mary M. McGlone, CSJ/Celebration

EARLY BULLETIN DEADLINE

Due to the July 4th holiday, articles for the July 8th bulletin must be received by Thursday, June 28th at noon.

MARRIAGE MATTERS

Each of us has a 'seed' of love in us at our birth. This is fostered as we grow to value others through our relationships. Learning to love ourselves and each other more deeply helps our seeds of love to swell. Eventually our unified love becomes a 'shelter' for our children, our families and all those whose lives we touch.

-Teams of Our Lady

TIME TO PRAY

A priest asked a little boy if he said his prayers every night. "Yes, Father" the boy replied.

"And, do you say them in the morning, too?" the priest asked. "No, Father" the boy replied,

"I'm not scared in the daytime."

*Be a
Witness of Charity*
*Support the Peter's Pence
Collection*

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

Next week, we will take the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world.

The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters.

Please be generous. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence

DEAD SEA SCROLLS

The Dead Sea Scrolls are being exhibited at the Denver Museum of Nature and Science, 2001 Colorado Blvd. from now until September 3.

This is one of the best exhibits I have seen in years. It has over 600 artifacts plus The Scrolls. I was at the museum over 3 hours and did not see it all.

- ♦ When you are thankful, God is with you.

Grandparents and parents, won't you please consider sending your children to such a worthwhile event? Please see Page 6 for registration information.
