The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." - Luke 5:5

That day on the boat was decisive. Peter and company had heard and seen Jesus. They had broken bread with him and seen his healing power. But the experience on the boat threw it all into a new perspective.

Of course, the extraordinary catch was mind-boggling. But more than that was Jesus' refusal to agree that they were unworthy. He was more than they had ever imagined, and yet he wanted them to join him. He didn't deny their weakness but assured them that they had no idea what they could accomplish if they let him lead the way. It was his love that made the offer irresistible.

Luke tells us this story about Peter and his buddies so that we can find ourselves in it. As we read the Gospel, we will note that the extraordinary catch was just that. Their days were not filled with unmitigated success. But that one experience had caught them up in Jesus' net. They saw enough to know that they couldn't imagine what was possible — and that was the good news Jesus preached.

Perhaps the question of the day is whether we are willing to allow Jesus to commandeer our boats. Peter would warn us that allowing Jesus onto our turf will not turn out as we might expect. We will become painfully aware of our inadequacy and sinfulness. And in the midst of that, we may be captivated and discover how our small faith and tiny hopes can grow into extraordinary and miraculously realistic expectations.

Today's readings combine to invite us to recall the reasons for our faith. Like Isaiah, we need to take time to remember and cherish our moments of marveling at God's grandeur and love. Like Peter, we need to renew our awe at the power and love that has led us to fall on our knees and recognize our littleness and our desire to become all God intends us to be. We also need to be prepared for the fact that opening ourselves to a renewed encounter with Christ will change us. He will again come into our homes and invade our workspace. And all of that is simply a prelude to transforming our lives and enticing us into his mission.

A big THANK YOU to all who attended our Pancake/Omelet breakfast on January 27th. We are so grateful for your support of this event and for all your donations throughout the year. Your continued generosity allows us to continue to assist our brothers and sisters.

Lenten Soup Suppers — Stations of the Cross will be held in the church on Fridays during Lent, followed by a simple soup supper in the Parish Hall. At the heart of this effort are the Lenten themes of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving and so, we emphasize simple and encourage fellowship!

Volunteers are needed for: March 8th, 15th, 22nd, 29th, April 5th and 12th. If adequate coverage is not available, there will not be a supper after the Stations of the Cross.

We encourage individuals, teams, friends, or organizations to band together and provide 4-5 soups and bread or crackers. Our attendance is about 35 parishioners.

Signup sheets will be in the hall during our weekend socials or you can contact: Eileen Clarkson @ 214-923-0745 or emclarkson1@gmail.com

Women's Faith Sharing Bible Study

Gospel of John

The women of St. Cyril Parish are invited to register for our Lenten Bible Study with a focus on "The Turning Point" by Dr. Allen Hunt. We will be gathering in room 116 on Thursdays from Feb. 28th through Holy Thursday on April 18th from 10:30 AM until 12:00 PM. Dr. Hunt is an author and speaker for Dynamic Catholic reigniting Catholicism.

Come join our faith sharing group and take a walk through the Gospel of John with us as we investigate eight encounters with Jesus that will change your life. Our leader is Mary Ellen O'Larey who will facilitate our discussion guided by Dr. Hunt's book.

Speaker: Nancy Haught Topic: "Sacred Strangers"

Nancy Haught was the religion writer at The Oregonian for many years. Her book, Sacred Strangers was published in October, 2017 and she has since been called upon to speak to various church communities on the topic.

Nancy writes, "I believe the Bible shows us in stories how it's often the strangers who lead holy lives and that, if we pay attention, we can learn from them." Last year Sacred Strangers won an award from the Catholic Publishers Association for first place in the Scripture category.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND YOUTH MINISTRY

The Youth Groups of St. Cyril Church want to thank all the parishioners who gave so generously to our food drive to support St. Vincent de Paul. We were able to collect 65 cans and items of food and $1,271.73 in donations to help those who are less fortunate.

Thank you so much for sharing with those in need!

Religious Education Update

In January, we had 8 students and their parents join us for a Saturday morning retreat for First Reconciliation. They spent the morning reviewing materials, doing art projects, praying and making an examination of conscience. Then there was a prayer service in the church followed by individual confessions. As they left they received a crocheted cross made by Virginia Thompson, a parishioner.

Our High School Youth Group is planning to attend the “Rise Up” High School Rally at Canby Grove Retreat Center on March 1st and 2nd. Teens from the whole Archdiocese will attend and meet in small groups to discuss their faith and to celebrate being Catholic. They will see guest speaker Oscar Rivera and hear his personal testimony and approach to the Gospel. He has a Master of Arts in Theology from Saint Leo University and is a graduate of Franciscan University.

He takes his knowledge of the faith and inspires the youth, and young adults of today's culture through his music, talks, retreats, and personal testimony. He brings a message of hope in times of despair, love during times of hate, and faithfully follow God, no matter the obstacles. His life has been devoted to the New Evangelization of the Gospel and his upbeat contemporary approach to the good news has made the message easy to understand. He makes it relatable to the youth and their lives today.

The youth group will have a chance to attend Mass with Archbishop Alexander K. Sample on Saturday evening at the Canby Grove main lodge.
