The Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." - Luke 6:36

This reading is particularly apt for February 24, the beginning of the last week of Black History Month. One of the greatest commentaries we have on Jesus' teaching in this Gospel can be found in the address Martin Luther King, Jr. gave when he accepted the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964.

Calling upon the whole human family in the way Jesus called on his disciples, King said, "[We] must evolve for all human conflict a method which rejects revenge, aggression and retaliation. The foundation of such a method is love." Like Jesus, King preached from experience. Having been arrested nine times, stabbed and stoned, he continued to preach nonviolence. In the face of such persecution, he proclaimed, "I have the audacity to believe that peoples everywhere can have three meals a day for their bodies, education and culture for their minds, and dignity, equality and freedom for their spirits."

Jesus' concrete descriptions of ways to love the enemy explain the attitude and activities of the blessed ones who weep because they share God's own concern for the world. They not only weep, but they are willing to stand with the poor and the hungry to the point of being persecuted on account of the Son of Man. They continue to share Martin Luther King's faith that "what self-centered [people] have torn down, [people who are] other centered can build up. ... and nonviolent redemptive good will proclaim the rule of the land."

For over two millennia, the Lord has addressed his disciples in the words of today's Gospel, "To you who hear I say, love your enemies." We must have the audacity to believe it is possible. Only this love can redeem us and our world.

Next weekend, March 2 & 3, is Bountiful Baskets weekend. Our food pantry is low on the following items:

Cake mix, Brownie mix, Jam, Hamburger Helper, Tuna Helper, & Shampoo
Thank you for your support of our mission.

Lenten Soup Suppers – Stations of the Cross will be held in the Church on Fridays during Lent, followed by a simple soup supper in the Parish Hall. At the heart of this effort are the Lenten themes of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving and so, we emphasize simple and encourage fellowship!

Volunteers are needed for: March 8th, 15th, 22nd, 29th, April 5th and 12th. If adequate coverage is not available, there will not be a supper after the Stations of the Cross.

We encourage individuals, teams, friends, or organizations to band together and provide 4-5 soups and bread or crackers. Our attendance is about 35 parishioners.

Signup sheets will be in the hall during our weekend socials or you can contact: Eileen Clarkson @ 214-923-0745 or emclarkson1@gmail.com

Speaker: Nancy Haught Topic: "Sacred Strangers"

Nancy Haught was the religion writer at The Oregonian for many years. Her book, Sacred Strangers was published in October, 2017 and she has since been called upon to speak to various church communities on the topic. Nancy writes, "I believe the Bible shows us in stories how it's often the strangers who lead holy lives and that, if we pay attention, we can learn from them." Last year Sacred Strangers won an award from the Catholic Publishers Association for first place in the Scripture category.

PRAYFUL MOVEMENT with T'ai Chi Chih®

Enhance your Lenten journey by joining parishioner Lynn Porzig as she shares easy to do Tai Chi Chih®. These soft, flowing movements unify body, mind and spirit and promote a general sense of well being, an ideal state of mind for Lent.

All are welcome and there is no fee. Look for the flyers posted on the bulletins boards in the church and hall. Thursdays, March 7– April 11, 2019 in the Fireside Room from 12:15 to 12:45 pm.

ALL ARE WELCOMEDEMAIL PHISHING SCAM NOTIFICATION

Please be aware parishioners have been receiving e-mails asking for assistance from Archbishop Sample, Father Brian and other Parish staff. The request is usually asking for large gift cards.

Please remember Archbishop Sample, Father Brian, or any member of the staff, will not contact you in this way for monetary assistance.

Do not reply to these e-mails.

Be aware so you do not become a victim.

If you have a financial loss due to this email scam, please contact Clackamas County Sheriff's office at 503-655-8211.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND YOUTH MINISTRY

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in Battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

ROSARY FAIR ON SUNDAY MARCH 3RD

Children ages 4 to 11 are invited to attend our Rosary Fair in room 116 of the hall during our RE Class time 9:15 to 10:15 a.m. We will learn about praying the Rosary prayers along with the beads of a Rosary. We will explore some of the mysteries in the lives of Mary and Jesus. There will be some pictures to color of these mysteries.

Our middle school youth group is welcome to attend and help out the younger kids as we pray the Rosary together with a video of images of Mary and music in the background. This will begin at 9:30 a.m. and last until 10:00 a.m.

We will close with prayers of intercession from the children. We are hopeful that this practice may continue at home with families during the season of Lent which begins on Ash Wednesday on March 6th this year.

Religious Education Update

In January, we had 8 students and their parents join us for a Saturday morning retreat for First Reconciliation. They spent the morning reviewing materials, doing art projects, praying and making an examination of conscience. Then there was a prayer service in the church followed by individual confessions. As they left they received a crocheted cross made by Virginia Thompson, a parishioner.

Rectory Update

With the latest gifts received for our Rectory Fund, we have surpassed our goal of $250,000.00. At this time we have $251,334.13 on hand and are still expecting $4,549.89 from outstanding pledges to officially concluded our fundraising efforts. New gifts and pledges are always welcome to help with upkeep and maintenance. Thank you to all who continue to participate in this grand journey!

Archbishop's Catholic Appeal 2019

This weekend is Commitment Weekend for the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal. If you received a personalized commitment card in the mail please mail to office as we join together to support our Catholic Church in western Oregon. If you did not receive a commitment card in the mail, pledge envelopes will be available during Mass.

The Archbishop's Catholic Appeal provides substantial financial support to essential ministries that support parishes in our Catholic Church in western Oregon. These programs provide education and faith formation at all levels and provide a Catholic presence for tens of thousands of people.

When we stop to count our abundant blessings, we are aware of how truly blessed we are. The Archbishop's Catholic Appeal is an invitation to share your blessings and support for the Gospel mission here in western Oregon.

Your pledge is also a sign of your gratitude for God's generous abundance. While we can never out-do God in generosity, we are called to join in the mission of the Gospel as we put forth the gifts of life, goodness, and grace through the sharing of our own blessings from God.
