Thirteenth Sunday Reflection

My work as a biblical scholar and teacher is more than a career; it is a vocation. Elijah and Elisha are my friends, and yes, they have shared their cloak with me — a woman — often unrecognized by the biblical text but not ignored in the text of life. In 1975, I kissed my father and mother goodbye like Elisha, and I never looked back. In my life, the story from 1 Kings about Elijah and Elisha heard in today's first reading has found a home.

Paul's letter to the Christians at Galatia invites me to think about freedom, law, love, flesh and Spirit. In the course of mission, I have learned that many challenges come our way. These challenges often try to keep us from living the free lives we are called to live. I walk in the company of friends and strangers who repeatedly remind me to "resist" all forms that the "yoke of slavery" takes. Central to my charism as a Dominican, and central to my congregation's directives, is to work for justice, to live and act justly while living a life of love. My commitment to this vision remains steadfast.

Furthermore, the notion that the Spirit and flesh are opposed to each other reflects a certain philosophical thought and culture of a past time. As a professor of biblical studies and theology, I have the task to help educate people about a healthy understanding of self. Flesh and Spirit work together, allowing people to have an embodied existence and spirituality that celebrates the wholeness and holiness of life in this 21st-century world.

Finally, I have discovered in the course of my journey that commitment to mission has its costs. In my own life, challenging the status quo has never been easy. Not being welcomed because of your commitment to mission, while coming to terms with the fact that you don't really fit in with the ways of the world, is never a heartwarming experience.

To choose to walk with the disenfranchised, with the erased ones, with those who are discriminated against, and with those whose hearts are, for whatever reason, not able to accept the gift of love, is to live a life "in exile" with so many other people who have nowhere to rest their heads. But, as the Gospel of Luke reminds me and all of us, the journey continues.

Taken from Celebration: Carol J. Dempsey is a Dominican Sister of Caldwell, New Jersey, and professor of biblical studies at the University of Portland, Oregon.

*Rest in PeaceJohn SingerFather of Deanna NiblerBob ChristHusband of Jeanne ChristMission Appeal: July 20-21, 2019

Father Mariappa Anthappa (Toni), a priest of 33 years in ministry in India will be making the Mission Appeal on behalf of Dalit Christian Children from the Catholic Bishops Conference of India to support their education. Father Toni will be talking during all masses about the discrimination and injustice that the Indian Christians have been facing due to their faith in Jesus. He will be seeking your generous support to educate the Christian children who otherwise would end up with school drop-outs, child-labor and child- trafficking. You can make huge difference in the lives of these children to have a good childhood and a decent future. The poor and the marginalized always live in hope – Hope of ever becoming better when they could rise up as equal to other fellow human beings.

This hope is realized through people like you.

The office will be closed July 4th and 5th for Independence Day.

Nun Run*August 15, 2019 - August 20, 2019*Road Trip!

Saint Vincent de Paul

Since the first of the year we have assisted over 50 families with food, utilities and/or rent. Many of these families include children. We are able to meet these needs because of our parishioners who donate food to Bountiful Baskets and who give monetary assistance. We are so grateful for your support.

Thank you.

We are in the process of conducting an audit of our Parish contribution envelopes. The envelopes are an expense to the Parish and we would like to reduce the expense if you are not using your envelopes. To correct this, we will be going through our records and removing the envelope request for those who are not using the envelopes any longer or are making online donations. Please be sure to let the Parish Office know if you would like to continue to receive envelopes if you have not been using them recently.

Also be aware using your bank's BillPay is the least expense to the Parish. The bank does not charge for the service nor is there a transaction fee to the Parish. If you would like help setting up BillPay with your bank, please contact the Parish Office.

Lastly, the Parish Office needs to know if you have a new address, phone number or email address. Please drop us a note, email or phone call to update any changes to your contact information.

Donations Received	$
Pledges Still To Be Received	$

A BIG "Thank You" to the Knights of Columbus for their matching donation of $1,000.00 to the Repairs and Maintenance Fund.

During the month of May we received $1,315.00 from parishioner donations and an additional matching donation of $1,000.00 from the Knights was received 6/2/2019. (The additional $1,000.00 is not reflected in the total for the month of May in the article to the left.)

These funds will be used for repairs or maintenance on any of the buildings on campus. As our parish buildings begin to age there are more repairs which are necessary to maintain the facilities in good operating condition.

Please keep in mind, the Blue Envelopes are used strictly for repairs and maintenance, which is a vital part of our parish upkeep.

Thank you again to those that helped reach our $1,000.00 goal and to the Knights for matching it!

Knights of Columbus June Rosary for Persecuted Christians

Mark your calendars for a special KOC event. Our June end-of-the-month Rosary is this weekend Saturday, June 29th and Sunday, June 30th. This month we will offer the Rosary for the Persecuted Christians throughout the world. We will have a special Marian Icon on display during the Rosary. Even if you can't stay for the Rosary, please consider staying for the special Prayer for Persecuted Christians that will precede the Rosary. We will have special prayer cards for your use.

The Rosary will immediately follow the Saturday 5pm Mass and the Sunday 8am and 10:30am Masses and be immediately before the Sunday Spanish Mass. All are welcome to join us and, as usual, we will have complimentary copies of "How to pray the Rosary" and Rosaries available for your use. We hope you can join us. If any parishioner is interested in leading a decade of the Rosary, please let one of the knights know before we begin.

Beginning in July, BOTTLE DROP WEEKEND will be the second weekend of the month instead of the last. Blue bags will be available at both entrances every weekend. Also, you can now drop your refundable containers at the Wilsonville Fred Meyer at your convenience. Please remember to use the blue bags so your Knights of Columbus receive credit. Your support enables us to continue to do good things in our parish and the larger community.
