Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 21:5-19

At the end of the church year, our liturgies call us to consider our mortality and the fragility of everything we create and might be tempted to rely on. That's an immensely countercultural task. Contemporary Western society tries to hide all signs of weakness. The purveyors of cosmetics and pharmaceuticals all but promise to prevent the effects of aging. Our consumerism is a barely disguised flight from reminders of death's invincible power.

Jesus told the disciples not to worry because he would be with them. We can't stop the change and we shouldn't allow false security blankets to deceive us into ignoring the crises of our times. The Gospel tells us that we can accept today's crises — from the personal to the cosmic — as God-given occasions of grace and opportunities to give witness. Christ promises to be with us, if we will only rely — or rely only — on him.

Mary M. McGlone / National Catholic Reporter

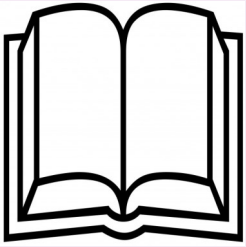

On behalf of His Excellency, the Most Reverend Timothy P. Broglio, Archbishop for the Military Services, USA, thanks to those who contributed to the Triennial National Collection for the AMS last week. Your generosity will make it possible for Catholic men and women and their families, currently serving in the U. S. Military, to receive the sacraments and pastoral care no matter their location around the globe. Your support also provides this care to those who are wounded, or as veterans, being cared for in one of the 153 Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers.

MAY SHE REST IN PEACE
Jeanne Christ

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

There is a Book of Remembrance in the church for you to write the names of your deceased loved ones. Your loved ones will be remembered at all the Masses during the month of November.

November 23/24 is the time to return the Baby Bottle from the Boomerang Fall Fundraiser

Linda Simon from the Canby Pregnancy Care Center (PCC) relayed a story from the Grandmother of a 6 year old girl. Grandma had a PCC filled baby bottle sitting on a table. The little girl came in, picked it up and exclaimed: "Grammy, are you rich!!!!???" Well, Grandma explained what the baby bottle was for and all the help that bottle filled with change would give to mommies and daddies and their children who need hope and help. The little girl became part of the story; she was "all in" as they say. What joy she and her Grandmother gave to me as I realized what a rich place we live and work in. To be able to offer hope, help, counselling, education; the list goes on. The blessings pour forth daily!

Baskets will be provided at both entrances of the church.

Gobble! Gobble! November 28th 12-2:30PM

Thanksgiving dinner at St. Cyril's will be here before you can shake some feathers! We will be advertising for volunteers for all types of duties: chefs, carvers, food prep on Wednesday and Thursday, setup and cleanup, dining room help, dishwashers, and servers. If you have an hour or two to spare, we trust you will feel fulfilled.

Watch for sign up sheets or call us even before then.

We provide the full meal deal and do it in style, as you've come to expect from our community. If you volunteer and want to stay for dinner, that's even better. We hope more people will be able to partake of this event. If you know of someone who would enjoy this meal, invite them or deliver a meal to them!
