Labor Day offers an opportunity to reflect on how we view work in light of our Catholic social teaching.

One of the most important principles of Catholic social teaching is the dignity of work and the rights of workers. Four encyclicals address this foundational social teaching: Rerum Novarum (1891) by Leo XIII, Quadragesimo Anno (1931) by Pius XI, Laborem Exercens (1981), and Centesimus Annus (1991) by John Paul II. They address both the theology and dignity of work. In Genesis, God takes the initiative in creating the world, calling forth human beings to be faithful stewards of creation. We are thus formed to share in God's continuing creative activity by partnering with God in finishing the world and helping bring it to completion and fulfillment. From this perspective, work can be spiritually understood in terms of sharing in God's ongoing activity to build, create, and transform the world. Human beings are co-creators with God. This vocation demands self-discipline.

Besides an exercise in self-discipline, work is also the means by which we develop and fulfill ourselves. In work, we shape the world and our environment. Through work, we also shape ourselves. Pope John Paul II summarized this point in Laborem Exercens #6, "the value of work is not primarily the kind of work being done, but the fact that the one who is doing it is a person." LPi

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & YOUTH MINISTRY

Reconciliation and First Communion

Children in second grade or older who are baptized in the Catholic Church are eligible to participate in our class for First Communion. One year of regular attendance in RE class must have been complete in order to be in this class. Also we will need a copy of your child's Baptism Certificate unless he/she was baptized here at St. Cyril. If you have questions call the office Wed. to Fri. and speak with Mary Ellen.

Teens Interested in Confirmation

We have a two year time commitment for Confirmation. The first year is in high school youth group and the second is in Confirmation Preparation classes. Last year, we had 7 youth get confirmed. We do not have enough teens for a class this year so we plan to do it next school year. If you are a new freshman in high school this is the time to sign up and be a part of high school youth group so that the next year you can be in our Confirmation program. We still need an adult volunteer to help lead this gathering after the 10:30 Mass each Sunday. All volunteers are background checked and trained in Creating a Safe Environment here at church.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR THIS SCHOOL YEAR!

We need more help for our program. Come share your faith with our kids. Please consider giving your time and talent to our children and youth on Sundays. It can be very rewarding to share your faith. It is not a big time commitment but classes meet for an hour three Sundays a month. Our programs have easy to follow teacher guides. Mostly we are looking for adults who want to share their faith with kids enthusiastically and who can make the experience fun for kids.

Call the office to sign up as a volunteer leader or speak with Mary Ellen after the masses.

May She Rest in Peace
