LIVE THE LITURGY

God doesn't seek the perfect vessels. He likes the broken ones. There is something to be said about living honestly and sincerely, and wrestling with sin, imperfection, and weakness rather than skipping through the peripheries of life with pretention, arrogance, and mendacity. If we believe ourselves to be our own "god" and serve only ourselves, we close the door to ever being used by the real and only True God. But, if we at least acknowledge that there is One greater than ourselves, then even in our deepest poverty and lowliness, God can enter.

Lessons are best learned from those who suffer. Only someone who has been lonely and lost can attest to the beauty of both Divine and human friendship. Only those who have really lost their way know what happens when they are found. Only those who are afraid know what it is to be calmed by God. The Gospel is messy because life is messy. There are no black and white solutions to problems and challenges that are hazy and gray. When our hesitancy to encounter God gets replaced by friendship with God, we become more aware of our dignity and the fact that we are loved just as we are. We cannot be afraid to share our struggles, reservations, fears, and sinfulness with others. Our genuineness and sincerity will speak of the God who blesses us in our weakness.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
& YOUTH MINISTRY*Jesus and the Apostles

One way to help our children relate better to the Gospels is to read the readings together at home prior to Mass and to consider watching them depicted on film. There are many productions to choose from such as "The Gospel of Luke" directed by David Batty available on various streaming services. It is a word for word unedited movie adaptation of the Gospel of Luke. We showed a similar one to middle school last year on the Gospel of Matthew. The performances are very realistic and the movie lets kids see the Gospel as they are listening to the narration.

You can also watch today's Gospel from Luke 5 on Season One of "The Chosen," available on the free app: <https://thechosen.tv/app> or at the Youtube link below. "The Chosen" is now available around the world in many languages. This version is also very realistic and the characters are quite engaging. It is not word for word the Gospel of Luke but the message still comes across to the audience. This crowd funded show is entering it's third season this Easter. Dallas Jenkins has created the show and hired a cast and crew who work very hard to bring the Bible alive in each episode.

If you would like to come and just visit with us and enjoy some camaraderie you are very welcome. Prayer shawls are knitted or crocheted, prayed over and blessed.
