LIVE THE LITURGY

St. Josemaria Escriva tells us, "To live according to the Holy Spirit means to live by faith and hope and charity. To allow God to take possession of our lives and to change our hearts, to make us resemble him more and more." Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit given freely by God to us. The Holy Spirit is the very breath of God and the true source of our power and strength. When we accept that God is the beginning and the end of all things, we open ourselves to receiving this powerful presence. The Holy Spirit alone is the one who teaches us how to pray, who stirs us to lift our eyes to Heaven in search of our creator and opens them to recognize the wonderful gifts of faith, hope, and love that God gives us. The Holy Spirit is the one who teaches us how to understand ourselves, God, others, and the world. When we allow God's own breath to take possession of us, we realize that we are meant to become like God and know Him as He really is. This ultimate helper lifts our eyes from what is below to what is above and empowers us to live life with joy and keener vision!

Dear God,

When we get to heaven, can we sit on your couch? Or is it still the same old story?

Pope's Intentions for June

Families

We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives.
