Your Inner Sanctuary

There is a false form of honesty that suggests that nothing should remain hidden and that everything should be said, expressed, and communicated. This honesty can be very harmful, and if it does not harm, it at least makes the relationship flat, superficial, empty, and often very boring. When we try to shake off our loneliness by creating a milieu without limiting boundaries, we may become entangled in a stagnating closeness. It is our vocation to prevent the harmful exposure of our inner sanctuary, not only for our own protection but also as a service to our fellow human beings with whom we want to enter in a creative communion. Just as words lose their power when they are not born out of silence, so openness loses its meaning when there is no ability to be closed.

St. Cyril's St. Vincent de Paul volunteers thank the parishioners for their contributions in the past year to provide food and financial assistance to those in need in Wilsonville. In our fiscal year, we helped 69 families, which included 159 people, with food, rent and utilities. The value of this help was $22,120, plus $6,120 in gift cards at Christmas to 26 families, which included 97 people. This assistance could not have happened without your steady contributions. We are so grateful for your help in our mission to serve the poor.

Next week we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Nearly 40% of diocese in the United States and its territories are considered mission territories because they are unable to fund essential pastoral activities needed in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please visit www.usccb.org/homemissions.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Knights of Columbus are pleased to continue their annual Lenten 40 Cans for 40 Days donation and food drive in support of the needy. The program will support Saint Vincent de Paul and other food charities. Cash and check collection jars are available in each Church entry. If you prefer to donate non-perishable food, there are food collection boxes inside each Church door. You can also place your cash or check donation jars in the food collection boxes.

Thanks for your support of the needy.

The Knights will also pray the Rosary at the weekend Masses during Lent. All are welcome.
