WELCOME FATHER TED

FATHER TED PRENTICE

AN INTRODUCTION ...

Hello! I am Father Ted Prentice and I have been asked by Archbishop Sample to serve as your Pastor of Saint Cyril beginning on July 1, 2023.

I am a native of Portland and grew up in North Portland with five older sisters and two younger brothers. I graduated from University of Portland in 1985 as a Mechanical Engineer. Following graduation, I worked for twelve years as a Mechanical Engineer, primarily with companies in Southern California. In 1997, I entered Mount Angel Seminary to study and be formed to serve as a priest of the Archdiocese of Portland. Following my priestly ordination in 2004, I have been blessed to serve in a number of varied parish assignments throughout the Archdiocese of Portland. These have included: Saint Mary (Eugene), Saint Mary, Star of the Sea (Astoria), Saint Anthony (Tigard), Saint James (Molalla), and most recently Saint Joseph the Worker (Portland). I am grateful for this opportunity to begin serving as your Pastor here at Saint Cyril.

In the coming years, the Catholic Church and parishes throughout the United States are being invited to reflect in a Eucharistic Renewal on our call to grow in our appreciation of the wondrous gift that Jesus shares with us in feeding and uniting us to Himself in His Body and Blood, our gift of communion, unity, and transformation. It is a blessing to be invited to continue the ministry of priestly Eucharistic service that Father Brian has shared with you over these past years. The blessing of continuing and strengthening our relation as individuals and a community of faith in love and service to the Lord, who nourishes us with His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, sustains and gives me joy as a Priest and as your "new" Pastor. God Bless You!

In Christ,

Father Ted Prentice
Pastor
