FEBRUARY 1, 2026 - FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*“BLESSED ARE THE POOR IN SPIRIT;
THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN IS THEIRS.” – PSALM 146*

After Jesus was baptized by John and tempted in the wilderness, he begins his public ministry in Galilee. In the early days of the public ministry, Jesus goes up a mountain near the Sea of Galilee and shares the Sermon on the Mount. The first words of this Sermon on the Mount contain the Beatitudes. These eight reflections upon blessings shared by Jesus reflect “kingdom values” and inaugurate the call to fidelity offered to all Christians. The Beatitudes remind us that the perspective of God is not a perspective shared by the world. Only from the perspective of faith do these affirmations of the Beatitudes make sense and gain their powerful meaning. It is the grace of God that allows us to see the truth in each of the Beatitudes. Through the grace of God and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit can we see the truth of: “Blessed are the poor in spirit; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” Ultimately, the inspiring words of the Beatitudes find their meaning and power in the sacrificial love of Jesus. By the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus do we come to realize that the Beatitudes are not simply inspiring words but powerful and visionary exhortations to respond to the mercy of God that transforms sorrow into joy and persecution into victory and eternal joy. Together with all the saints and holy ones may we treasure and rejoice in the blessings of the Beatitudes and graces shared by Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.

May God – Father, Son, Holy Spirit – abundantly bless you and your families in this coming week!

In Christ,
Fr. Ted Prentice
Pastor
