AUGUST 9, 2026 - NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"LORD, LET US SEE YOUR KINDNESS, AND GRANT US YOUR SALVATION."

PSALM 85

Today, in the Gospel of Matthew, we hear an account of the miracle of Jesus walking on the Sea of Galilee. After feeding the multitude, Jesus insisted that the disciples cross the sea while he went to the mountain to pray. In the night, while the boat was being tossed about by the wind and the waves, Jesus, walking on the water, approaches the frightened disciples, who think that Jesus is a ghost. Peter, to confirm that it is truly the Lord, asks Jesus to call him to also walk on the sea. Peter starts to walk across the water, but feeling the wind and becoming frightened, Peter begins to sink and calls out for rescue. Jesus saves Peter and returns him to the safety of the boat and the security of unity with the other disciples.

This moment when Jesus saves Peter is offered by Matthew to strengthen our own faith. Jesus saves and invites us to have faith in the moments of our lives when the challenges we are encountering are the greatest. Jesus is the merciful Savior who rescues and restores us through his kindness and gentle love. Jesus, the Son of God and Savior of the World, is always with each of us.

May God – Father, Son, Holy Spirit – abundantly bless you and your families in this coming week!

In Christ,
Fr. Ted Prentice, Pastor

SAINT CYRIL MUSIC MINISTRY

KYRIE ELEISON: THE CHURCH'S ANCIENT CRY FOR MERCY

At the beginning of Mass, we sing words that Christians have prayed for centuries:

Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison, Kyrie eleison.

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

The Kyrie is remarkable because even as the Roman liturgy developed in Latin, these ancient Greek words remained within the Mass. The roots of these words reach deeply into the prayer of the early Church and into Scripture itself.

Throughout the Gospels, people approach Jesus with the same cry for mercy. The blind call to him, "Lord, have mercy on us." (Matthew 20:30) and the Canaanite woman cries, "Have mercy on me, Lord" (Matthew 15:22). These are not simply expressions of sorrow. They are expression of faith and trust – the prayer of people who recognize who Christ is and turn to him because they know that he can heal, restore, and save. For this reason, the Kyrie is placed after we acknowledge our sins and experience the hope of the promise of forgiveness and mercy. Our singing of the Kyrie is our opportunity, to cry out in gratitude with all who have experienced the mercy and, forgiveness of Our Savior, Jesus Christ.
