authentic. It entails replacing the heart of stone with a heart of flesh (Ezekiel 36:26). This, in turn, opens our hearts inward to receive the love of Christ and outward in order to love those whom Christ loves.

Monday: Hearts of Flesh: The Sacred Heart of Jesus and what it means to have an enfleshed heart

Tuesday: The Contemplative Heart: Moving to the center of the heart in prayer

Wednesday: A Heart for Others: The Immaculate Heart of Mary as the Model of a Disciple

Did you know the Clearwater Free Clinic at 1218 Court St. provides medical care to uninsured working or recently laid off people in Clearwater? People on Medicare, Medicaid or other forms of insurance are not eligible. Pain management and narcotic prescriptions are not part of the medical care provided. Google Clearwater Free Clinic for complete information including eligibility requirements.

Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction

Every Wednesday, in the Oratory, parishioners have the opportunity to pray before the exposed Blessed Sacrament. Exposition begins immediately after the 8 a.m. Mass and concludes with Benediction at 6:45 p.m. A Holy Hour for vocations that includes prayers, the rosary and a litany is prayed aloud in English from 6-6:45 p.m. and again in Spanish from 7-8 p.m.

FROM THE DESK OF THE SHEPHERD

Bishop Parkes has prepared a series of Gospel Reflections which we will use throughout Lent

Roadmap for Courageously Living the Gospel

The mutually shared vision of the Diocese of St Petersburg is Courageously Living the Gospel. Each one of us is called to proclaim the Good News, to invite others to a deeper relationship with God, and to encounter our Lord in all we do. These might be easy words to say, but might be more challenging to actually do. Society might have us judge and pigeon-hole groups of people or individuals, causing us to dismiss them because they're different from us or they don't share the same values, beliefs, politics or general outlook on life that we do. As Christians, we are called to follow a different path.

Such was the case in this weekend's Gospel about the Samaritan woman at the well. Jesus shows us that despite the woman being of a different nationality and belief, that they can have a dialog – a dialog which will change her life. In fact, she has a transformational experience which leads to others in town being transformed by her witness. The woman encounters our Lord in this meeting. Our Lord shows kindness and mercy; He meets her where she's at and engages her in a simple conversation. He then proclaims to her that He is the one who can give her living water – a water which will satisfy her to eternal life. She then runs to town to proclaim to others what she witnessed and invites them to come and see.

My dear friends, this is the roadmap for our vision. After having a personal encounter with Christ each Sunday at the Mass and in the Eucharist, you have an opportunity to invite others to come to know the love and mercy of God. Remember this entire encounter happened at the water well. Imagine what can happen at the coffee station or water cooler at your place of work. Pray for the courage this week to proclaim, invite, and encounter the Lord in all your life situations, and to share the Good News with others.

--Bishop Gregory Parkes, Diocese of St. Petersburg

SAINT JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Feast Day: March 19

Joseph, someone once joked, was indeed the perfect husband: the only major character in Jesus' story who never utters a word! But the Gospel recounts and the liturgy celebrates his silent witness of faith-filled deeds: "With a husband's love he cherished Mary, the Virgin Mother of God; with fatherly care he watched over Jesus" (Preface of Saint Joseph, Sacramentary). Catholic devotion, therefore, hails him as patron-protector of the universal Church. Some cultures set a festive "Saint Joseph's Table," welcoming the poor and strangers to feast with family and friends. Tradition keeps today as the anniversary of his death, which we presume was peaceful, with Jesus and Mary present. Thus, Catholics invoke Joseph as Patron of a Happy Death. Descended from David's house, which God finished "building" through Joseph's provision of a home for Mary and Jesus, he was, fittingly, a carpenter by trade; thus, patron of workers. Spring, nature's rebirth, begins between his feast and Annunciation (March 25), appropriately, since Joseph's silent obedience and Mary's "Let it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38) usher in humanity's spiritual rebirth.

THIRST

Each time today's Gospel story is read, I can't help but think of the many television commercials I've seen depicting perspiring athletes lifting a beverage to their lips while the scorching sun beats down on them. Our culture has definite ideas about how to quench thirst. Today, those ideas are turned upside down. The Samaritan woman operates, initially, on the TV commercial level. She asks Jesus for the flowing water so that she will not have to keep coming to the well. Jesus then talks about what real thirst is, and how He, and He alone, can quench that thirst. Lent calls us to find those places deep within ourselves where we thirst. In our thirst, as did the Israelites, we cry out to God asking for springs of living water. Deep down we know that only the Lord can satisfy these thirsts.
