Pentecost

SUNDAY

MAY 31, 2020

Jesus breathed on them and said to them,
“Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

John 20:22-23

THE SPIRIT MOVES US

Today we celebrate Pentecost, the day when the Holy Spirit was given by Jesus and received by the disciples. The readings from Acts and the Gospel of John offer accounts of that day while First Corinthians offers an analysis of the many gifts that resulted from the infusion of the Holy Spirit. The psalm and the sequence read today are filled with praise for the work of the Spirit. Today represents a culmination of all the difficult days that have gone before, the triumph of Holy Thursday, the death and despair of the Cross, the astonishing Resurrection, and the appearances of a familiar but transformed Jesus to his disciples. It represents the pivotal transition for the disciples from people of uncertainty and fear to people of commitment and action. The Spirit moves the disciples and moves us as well.

SAFETY IN NUMBERS

The apostles and all the believers in Jesus have been through a tumultuous time. They have experienced the heights of Holy Thursday and the depths of Good Friday, the uncertainties of Easter Sunday, and the multiple appearances of Jesus after his death and resurrection. They have not recognized Jesus, and when they have, they have demanded reassurance from him. Throughout most of this time they have stayed together. Acts describes them all in one place, together, when wind fills the house and tongues of fire rest on each of them. They then find themselves able to communicate with and be understood by those who had not understood them. Everyone recognizes this as a mighty act of God. John reminds us and the disciples that receiving the Spirit brings with it peace and the need for action. They receive the Spirit so they can be sent into the world to forgive sins.

ACTION IN THE SPIRIT

When our world has been turned upside down, when we are faced with uncertainties about what is real, when we are unsure about what lies ahead for us, when we don't know what we should do next, we do not want to be alone. Neither did the apostles and all those who loved Jesus. They wanted to be together when they needed to make sense of what was happening to them and what was going to be asked of them. There is safety in numbers but neither the apostles nor we can remain huddled together. The Spirit requires that we act. All the manifestations of the Spirit are given in order to benefit us and our world. The many different gifts given by the Spirit demand that we do many kinds of work, many forms of service. But we do not work alone. The Spirit is always with us.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ:

In chapter 12 of St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians, we get a lesson in ecclesiology. He wants to stress the importance of the unity of the Church. The Church is Christ's body and the marker of a healthy body is that every part performs its own function for the good of the whole. But unity does not mean uniformity; therefore, within the Church there are many different gifts and functions. Most important is the recognition that every one of them is a gift of the Holy Spirit and given not for the glory of the individual member but for the good of the whole.

St. Paul begins by saying that all gifts come from the Holy Spirit and it is his belief that they ought to be used in God's service. But we cannot define the idea of gifts too narrowly. Gifts are not limited to things like speaking, preaching, praying, teaching and writing - as important as these gifts are. The gifts of the person who works with their hands are equally as important. The mason, the carpenter, the electrician and the plumber all have their special gifts which are from God and can be used for Him. As pastor, I see people on a daily basis who simply have a deep desire to be of service to God's Church and to their fellow human beings.

Whether it is the talents of the St. Michael's Council of Catholic Women having their rummage sale or fashion show to support the parish, or a group of parishioners preparing a meal for the homeless at Pinellas Hope, or a sacristan taking special care of the sacred vessels used at Mass, these are but a few examples of the gifts with which we glorify God.

On this Pentecost, which is often referred to as the birthday of the Church, I suppose we could say that ecclesiology is all about how we as a people put our various gifts together to glorify the God who gave us these gifts, through worship and in service to our brothers and sisters.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Gregg

REMEMBER TO LOCK YOUR CAR

PRAYER FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

O God of all the nations, the One God who is and was and always will be, in Your providence You willed that Your Church be united to the suffering of Your Son. Look with mercy on Your servants who are persecuted for their faith in You. Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ. Bring Your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples. May Your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict Your will, that we may live in harmony. Give us the grace to be united in truth and freedom, and to always seek Your will in our lives.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us.

Perinatal
 Comfort Care

Perinatal Comfort Care of Tampa provides comfort and support to families who receive a poor prenatal diagnosis, is now a ministry of Catholic Charities. When a life-limiting prenatal diagnosis is made, parents are devastated and often receive a recommendation to terminate their pregnancy. Given little information or support in making their decision, many choose to abort their baby. In reality, there is no continuum of care for families who choose to continue their pregnancy. As a pro-life ministry, Perinatal Comfort Care is dedicated to walking a journey of a lifetime with these families. This ministry was created as a bridge to help support families who choose to carry despite the diagnosis and to honor and give dignity to their unborn baby.
