Twenty-Seventh
SUNDAY
in Ordinary Time

Once again,
O Lord of hosts,
look down from heaven, and see;
take care of this vine,
and protect what your right hand has planted.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

To engage our Parish in continuing the loving and reconciling ministry of Jesus Christ through Worship, Witness and Works.

THERE WAS A LANDOWNER WHO PLANTED A VINEYARD,
PUT A HEDGE AROUND IT, DUG A WINE PRESS IN IT, AND BUILT A TOWER.
THEN HE LEASED IT TO TENANTS AND WENT ON A JOURNEY.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 4, 2020

VINEYARDS

Vineyards were an essential part of the economy of Israel during the times of Isaiah and Jesus. Vineyard owners had the difficult challenge of producing a rich harvest. Our readings from Isaiah and Matthew describe God and God's creation in terms of the business of vineyards. The two stories are closely linked, as Jesus borrowed and adapted his parable from Isaiah. Using this rich imagery, we can see the vineyard as all the places of God's creation and ongoing work. The vineyard is our heart, mind, and body. The vineyard is our family, neighborhood, and parish. The vineyard is the larger Church and society, humanity and the earth itself. We are stewards in each of these vineyards, blessed to enjoy them, and held accountable for their continuing fruitfulness. We are called to join God in cultivating these vineyards, so that they may produce an abundant harvest.

HIGHLY PASSIONATE

The tales of the vineyard in Isaiah and in Matthew point to the larger story of God and God's people. We see that God is intensely passionate about us. God is deeply committed, like the landowner who diligently prepares the vineyard. God has high expectations that the vineyard produce the fruit of a just and compassionate society. God is highly disappointed and angry that the vineyard has produced bad fruit (Isaiah), or has been treated as a prize to be seized (Matthew).

There are more chapters in the larger story that also need to be told. Later in Isaiah and in Matthew, we see that God is also deeply compassionate and forgiving. Isaiah speaks of God's tender care, as a mother loves her child (Isaiah 49). In Matthew, Jesus demonstrates God's forgiveness most dramatically on the cross. God is indeed most patient and resilient. God never gives up on us. God continues to pursue us, offering us love and grace, now and always.

THE CORNERSTONE

The powerful conclusions of the two vineyard tales are meant to linger in our memories. God indeed expects much of us, to live justly and mercifully. However, we know that God is not prickly and impatient, as we might be led to imagine if we read these stories out of context. The stories do invite us to ponder again who God really is. Especially during times of difficulty or of failure in our lives, we might wonder how we might best understand the mystery of God.

The witness of the New Testament is clear. If you want to know what God is like, look at Jesus. Look at his patience and mercy. Look at his compassion for the suffering, his passion for justice. Look also at the joy and healing experienced by those in his presence. As today's Gospel passage indicates, Jesus is the cornerstone, the starting point of coming to know our God.

TODAY'S READINGS

Isaiah 5:1–7
Psalm 80:9, 12–16, 19–20
Philippians 4:6–9
Matthew 21:33–43

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

In the course of my years as a priest, I have been exposed to many families and have come to appreciate more and more the great responsibility people take on in raising children. Thoughtful parents take great care to make sure their children get a balanced diet so that they will grow physically healthy and strong. They also engage the young in a variety of positive activities that help them to grow and thrive in other ways. This may be sports, music, community or Church service, or any number of things. It is an intelligent strategy that can be summed up by saying that the more children are engaged in positive things, the less room there is for the negative.

The fact is that the human mind will always set itself on something, and it is more likely to set itself on the positive if it is more often exposed to it. If we think about something often enough, our thoughts become quite literally in a groove that becomes automatic. To a degree, the saying that was coined about computers also applies to our minds: "Garbage in, garbage out." When we are stuck in a wrong way of thinking, it takes recognition of that and a deliberate decision to change to a right way of thinking.

St. Paul was trying to make the Philippian converts aware of this truth and to turn their minds to things that would be beneficial to them and to the common good:

"Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things."

With all this in mind, as adults we are the gatekeepers of what our minds are exposed to. We can choose to acquire a taste for what is good and helpful and leads to goodness. Or we can choose a diet of what is base and enslaves our minds in ways that do not give life to us, our relationships, or our families.

With a great variety of choices on cable and streaming services, most people watch a handful of channels most of the time. Do we ever take the time to evaluate what kind of a viewing diet we put ourselves on? Is it helpful to us? Do we tend to feel more hopeful or satisfied because of it? Does it make our outlook on our relationships better or worse? Inasmuch as we choose what our bodies are exposed to, we also can decide what our minds are fed.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Gregg

ENTRANCE HYMN

How Firm a Foundation

FOUNDATION

1. How firm a foundation, you saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent Word!
What more can he say than to you he has said,
To you who for refuge to Jesus have fled?
2. "Fear not, I am with you, O be not dismayed,
For I am your God, and will still give you aid;
I'll strengthen you, help you, and cause you to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand."
3. "When through the deep waters I call you to go,
The rivers of woe shall not you overflow;
For I will be with you, your troubles to bless,
And sanctify to you, your deepest distress."
4. "The soul that on Jesus still leans for repose,
I will not, I will not desert to its foes;
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never, no never, no never forsake!"

Text: 11 11 11 11; "K" in Rippon's A Selection of Hymns, 1787.
Music: Funk's A Compilation of Genuine Church Music, Winchester, VA, 1832.

PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS

These Alone Are Enough

Dan Schutte

1. Take my heart, O Lord, take my hopes and dreams.
Take my mind with all its plans and schemes.
Give me nothing more than your love and grace.
These alone, O God, are enough for me.
2. Take my thoughts, O Lord, and my memory.
Take my tears, my joys, my liberty.
Give me nothing more than your love and grace.
These alone, O God, are enough for me.
3. I surrender, Lord, all I have and hold.
I return to you your gifts untold.
Give me nothing more than your love and grace.
These alone, O God, are enough for me.
4. When the darkness falls on my final days,
take the very breath that sang your praise.
Give me nothing more than your love and grace.
These alone, O God, are enough for me.

COMMUNION SONG

Vine and Branches

Trevor Thomson

Refrain: *I am the vine and you the branches.
Remain in me as I remain in you;
you will bear great fruit in me.*

1. A new commandment I give you:
even as I have loved you, now love one another.
2. No greater love is there than this:
than to lay down your life, your life for your friends.
3. I am the living bread from heaven;
if you eat this bread, you will live forever.
4. All those who eat my flesh and drink my blood remain in me and I remain in them.
5. The words that I have spoken are spirit and life, they are spirit and life.
6. And now as I have washed your feet,
so you must do just as I have done.

FINAL HYMN

God of Our Fathers

NATIONAL HYMN

1. God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs before thy throne arise.
2. Thy love divine hath led us in the past,
In this free land by thee our lot is cast;
Be thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay,
Thy word our law, thy paths our chosen way.
3. From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
Be thy strong arm our ever sure defense;
Thy true religion in our hearts increase,
Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.
4. Refresh thy people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
And glory, laud, and praise be ever thine.

Text: 10 10 10 10; Daniel Crane Roberts, 1841-1907.
Music: George William Warren, 1828-1902.
