The Diocese of Lansing Catholic Women's Conference is preparing for its seventh conference on Saturday, Oct. 12, 2019. Each year, approximately 1,000 women from our diocese and across the state of Michigan come together at this conference to be inspired and renewed in their faith as they enjoy praise and worship music, listen to motivating speakers, celebrate holy Mass with our bishop, shop with our vendors and experience the fellowship of sisterhood in Christ Jesus. We have heard many stories over the years from women whose lives have been impacted by attending the conference, who then go forth with the Love and Mercy of God to their families and communities.

It is our prayer that you will join us in encouraging the women of our diocese to "Hope"!

Judy Landrieu Klein

Dr. Klein is a published author whose first book Miracle Man, was an Amazon Kindle Bestseller in Catholicism. Her newest book, Mary's Way: The Power of Entrusting Your Child to God, is a CatholicMom.com imprint book. Both of Klein's books have received the nihil obstat from the Catholic Church, and both were published in Poland, where they are best sellers.

Sheri Wohlfert

Sheri is a Catholic wife, mom, speaker and teacher. She uses her great sense of humor and her deep faith to help others discover the joy of being a child of God. The mission of her ministry is to encourage others to take a good look at the simple ways we can all find God doing joyful, blessed, amazing things smack dab in the middle of the laundry, ball games, farm chores and the hundred other things we manage to cram into a day.

Fr. Mark Rutherford

Fr. Mark grew up in a Catholic home with three brothers. He first heard and discerned a call to the priesthood at age 13 while participating in a Franciscan University of Steubenville Youth Conference in 1997. He was accepted as a seminarian of the Diocese of Lansing in the summer of 2005, and attended Sacred Heart Major Seminary from 2005-2009, earning the M. Div. and S.T.B. He was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Earl Boyea on June 13th, 2009.

Erin Lobby Carlson

The director of communications for the Catholic Diocese of Saginaw and editor of FAITH Saginaw magazine, Erin has been our master of ceremonies through the years. Her joy and enthusiasm warms our hearts and we are happy to have her lead us through the day.

Melanie Rea

Singer-songwriter from the Diocese of Lansing joins us again this year with her fellow musicians to lead us in praise and worship throughout the day. We are so thankful for her "yes" to God to utilize the gifts He has given her to serve His people through music.

Bishop Earl A. Boyea

Bishop Earl Boyea was named the fifth Bishop of Lansing on Feb. 27, 2008 and formally installed on April 29. He attended Sacred Heart Seminary High School after attending Our Lady of Lakes Catholic grade school in Waterford, Mich. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 20, 1978. Bishop Boyea has a love for history and holds a master's degree in American History and a PhD in Church History. He is the eldest of ten children and enjoys being outdoors, gardening, cross-country skiing and bicycling. He most enjoys the rare occasions when he beats his mom at the card game, "Hand and Foot."
