This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons.

The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future.

Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.

W tym tygodniu powracamy do zwykłego okresu roku liturgicznego. Dzisiejsza i następna niedziela są jednak wyznaczone jako uroczystości, szczególne dni, które zwracają naszą uwagę na centralne tajemnice naszej wiary. Dziś, w pierwszą niedzielę po Zesłaniu Ducha Świętego, obchodzimy uroczystość Trójcy Przenajświętszej. To święto zachęca nas do zastanowienia się nad tym, w co wierzymy o Bogu, który objawił się nam w Trójcy Świętej - jeden Bóg w trzech osobach.

Wersety dzisiejszej Ewangelii pochodzą z końca długiego przemówienia Jezusa podczas Ostatniej Wieczerzy. W początkowej części tej rozmowy, jak widzieliśmy w zeszłym tygodniu w dniu Pięćdziesiątnicy, Jezus zapewnia uczniów. Mimo że musi ich opuścić, mówi im, że będą mieli przyszłość dzięki pomocy, którą ześle im w Duchu Świętym. W tej części skupia się bardziej na przyszłości, która będzie obejmować zwycięstwo Jezusa nad światem, w którym oni będą uczestniczyć. Uczniowie Jezusa nie mogą znać przyszłości. Mogą jedynie wiedzieć, że bez względu na to, jaki kształt przybierze przyszłość, nie będą musieli stawiać jej czoła sami. Mają Ducha Prawdy, który będzie kontynuował nauczanie Jezusa w przyszłości.

Czytanie tego fragmentu w Niedzielę Trójcy Świętej wzmacnia nasze zrozumienie jedności dzielonej przez członków Trójcy. Choć idea jednego Boga w trzech osobach pozostaje tajemnicą, mamy pewność, że tak jak Jezus i Ojciec dzielą wszystko, tak też Jezus i Duch dzielą wszystko.

This Week's Gospel: John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Jams/Preserves

Grief Support Group

Saints Thomas Becket and Alphonsus Liguori Parish has created a Grief Support Group, facilitated by someone who has walked through and survived a similar journey.

When you don't know where to turn or what to do, we are here for you to help you navigate through the various stages of grief while providing you with compassion and encouragement. Our faith and spirituality can be our most powerful tools in helping us cope while walking through this difficult road.

There is no timeline, no right way to grieve. Some days will be heavy and some feel lighter. Some moments will bring unexpected waves of sadness. While others will fill you with gratitude for the love you are blessed to hold in your heart.

We are here to support you, and as you move past the initial shock and intense grief, you can likely expect different challenges for healing and growth for you plus your family. Come join us.

We meet the second and fourth Tuesdays at 6:30pm at Saint Thomas Becket. Our gathering, facilitated by myself, Joni Fine, currently the assistant facilitator for "To Be Joyful Again" at Holy Family Parish in Inverness with Doreen Kelly, STBAL, our Director of Parish Ministry and Evangelization.

Blessings to all,
Joni Fine

A Prayer For Fathers and Father Figures

Gracious God,
 Bless fathers and all father figures with such love and faithfulness that children flourish
 and grow in uprightness and joy.
 Bless those who long to be fathers, and those for whom this day is difficult.

Amen

Community Events and Support Groups:

Moving Forward In Hope

Join us for an evening of Prayer, Connection & Hope
Sponsored by the Archdiocese Commission on Mental Illness

Moving Forward in Hope is a monthly series of prayer, connection, and hope.

Our goal is to create a safe place for those living with or those caring for someone with mental health concerns to come together to pray and share with one another.

Connection is paramount to mental health and well-being. These virtual meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month.

Moving Forward In Hope
Tuesday, June 24th, 2025
7-8pm via Zoom

Please reach out to
