NEW CATHOLIC ANTONI OKINCZYC (L) AND SPONSOR AIDAN AFONSO (R)

Antoni lives in Vernon Hills with his parents Tony and Cindy and his two sisters, Ana and Zosia. Antoni's mom was also a part of the RCIA journey this year and they joined the Catholic Church together at the Easter Vigil! Antoni will be a senior at Vernon Hills High School this fall. His sister Ana is two years older and attends the University of Illinois. Zosia is two years younger and will be a sophomore at Vernon Hills High School. Antoni's extended family lives out of state and he unfortunately does not see them often. The Okinczyc family also has a cat named Plumpo!

Antoni spends most of his time during the school year studying and participating in sports. He is involved with the cross country and track teams as well as the swim team. However, during the summer months Antoni enjoys the beach and likes to just hang out with his family and friends.

Regarding the RCIA journey, Antoni said, "I have learned a lot about identifying the virtues and understanding how my faith is integral to everything I do from what I study at school to the movies I watch. I am glad I finished the catechism and feel a sense of belonging." Antoni mentions that it is good to know that even when he goes away to school after next year and wherever he goes after college that the Catholic Church is universal and he will have a place it no matter where he is!!

Aidan and his family also live in Vernon Hills in the Grosse Pointe Village subdivision. Aidan says that "my family is extremely important to me!" Aidan's parents are Delano and Charlotte and he also has a 19 year old sister, Ariana, and 11 year old brother Andrian. Delano is a software engineer at Abbott Labs. The Afonso family are regulars at the 9:30 a.m. Mass at SMV where Aidan's mom, Charlotte, sings in the choir. Aidan will be a senior at Mundelein High School and he also works on Governor Bruce Rauner's campaign. Ariana is entering her sophomore year at the University of Illinois in Champaign and Andrian will be in the 6th grade at Hawthorn South Elementary School.

Aidan mentions that he "enjoys running tremendously" and most of his time outside of school is spent doing that. But he also participates in the SMV Youth Group events and also plays some guitar.

As for his involvement with the RCIA this year, Aidan said that "the opportunity to accompany Antoni before and during the Easter Vigil as he made his journey to becoming Catholic was in one word: powerful. Seeing a life-altering decision like this and being able to witness it first-hand is something that I think I will take with me for many years to come. I very much enjoyed this opportunity and it was definitely an enlightening experience." Aidan enjoyed his discussions on Catholicism with Antoni, Jim Welch and Maureen Evers as they talked about some confusing aspects of our faith. He summed it up by saying, "In the end, the Easter Vigil was a beautiful experience to be a part of and a great step for Antoni in his new Catholic life. I wish him the best in all God has to give him."

On behalf of the people of St. Mary of Vernon, I take this opportunity to welcome Miranda Farmer, our new Director of Music Ministry!

- Fr. Joe

Hello, St. Mary of Vernon!

My name is Miranda Farmer, and I am thrilled to be serving this community as the new Director of Music Ministry! Even if we haven't met in person, you have likely heard my voice, seen me playing the drums, or watched me rock out on the "jam-bourine" at holiday masses through the years. I was born, baptized, and raised right here at SMV, so I am honored to have this opportunity to show you all that you have trained me very well!

I have been a parishioner here for all 25 years of my life. I grew up in Mundelein and remained in the Chicago area while attending Roosevelt University for my BA in Music Education. For the last three years, I was teaching PreK through 8th grade general music at Old St. Mary's School in the south loop. Teaching remains an essential part of me and my musicianship. I am trained (soon to be certified) in Orff-Schulwerk, which is a music pedagogy that helps students of all musical abilities participate fully in music. During my time at Old St. Mary's, I discovered that worship through music is truly my passion. I loved teaching those students about the liturgy through the music we made together. I am delighted to be bringing more liturgical music into the lives of young people here at SMV. It was not so long ago that I was a young musician in Summer Prep just like them!

Thank you, St. Mary of Vernon, for your support in my Catholic education. Thank you for welcoming me back as a young professional, for I am undoubtedly ready to serve the church through music. We are truly blessed here with a community of outstanding musicians of all ages and dedicated parishioners. I am deeply humbled and grateful to be here for you, St. Mary of Vernon!

Love and blessings,
Miranda Farmer

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4TH, IS INDEPENDENCE DAY!

Mass on Wednesday will be at 9 a.m. rather than the usual 7 a.m.

Have a great holiday!

Congratulations & Thank You to our Susan Gray! A Blessing for SMV Parish

Ever since coming here to SMV 20 years ago, I have been amazed at the work and ministry of our Business Manager, Susan Gray. Way back 35 years ago, her husband volunteered her to be Fr. John's secretary. Over the years her roles continued to expand, with expanding responsibilities and necessary expertise – graduating to full administrative responsibilities now as our business manager.

Susan has been right there in every undertaking and all our most expansive building projects would not have been completed so well without her oversight and detail. She is an amazing, faith-filled woman who has been and who is always there for us.

You might recall that Susan was the first person we nominated for the Archdiocesan Christifideles (faithful of Christ) Award when it began back in 2003 – 15 years ago. She continues to live out that selfless giving and commitment to parish life - its mission and ministries.

Thank you, Susan, on behalf of all your parish family of St. Mary of Vernon.

Fr. Joe

35th Anniversary Thank You

Wow, time flies! Here we are getting ready to celebrate the 40th Anniversary of our parish and I can remember attending the first Mass at Hawthorn School as a family with my husband, my oldest son who was 4 and my daughter who was just 4 months old. Fr. John welcomed us all to "build Church" together and we certainly did. Just look around our beautiful grounds and buildings—we did all of this together.

This week I mark the anniversary of my 35th year working at St. Mary of Vernon. I wish to thank Fr. John and Fr. Joe, my co-workers, my ministry team members and the parishioners for building Church together. We have an amazing parish filled with amazing, generous people. I am always grateful and honored that I have been given the opportunity to serve the people of St. Mary of Vernon for all these years.

Soon, I too will be looking to retire, but there is way too much left to do. As part of the Parish Transition Team I plan to be here until we welcome our new pastor so I will still be around for some time—building Church together.

Thank you -

Susan Gray, Parish Business Manager

SUPPORT ACTIVE DUTY MILITARY THIS JULY 4TH

Please stop at the table in the narthex June 30/July 1 to write a short note of appreciation to the SMV family serving in the Military. The ORO committee will forward your messages to these dedicated service men and women for the Fourth of July.

Let's show them we appreciate their service to protect our independence. Your notes will show them we are thinking about them as we celebrate Independence Day. Blank cards, stickers and markers will be provided for your messages. If you would like to take more time with your thoughts, write your note at home. Here are some ideas for getting started.

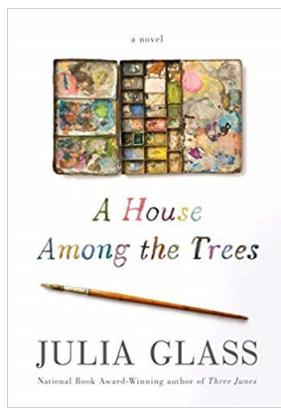

- How are you celebrating your Fourth of July?
Share your traditions.
- What does freedom we enjoy in the US mean to you? Express your gratitude for protecting those freedoms.
- What makes a serviceman/woman a hero in your eyes?
- Are you or a family member a veteran? Share a little of your story.
- Express your thanks for their service.
“God bless you” “Stay safe” “Thanks for your service”
“I am praying for you”

Just deposit the completed cards in the ORO mailbox and the committee will take care of the rest.

SMV BOOK CLUB

We are meeting July 20 at 11 am to discuss A House Among the Trees by Julia Glass. Please note that we will meet at Jason's Deli in Vernon Hills for lunch and discussion.

"What if it was your sole responsibility to honor the legacy of a literary powerhouse after his death? Tomasina Daulair, known mostly as Tommy, is finding out the perils and pitfalls of this sacred charge when her boss, famed children's book author and artist Mort Lear, dies after an accident at his Connecticut home. Forty years earlier, Tommy was playing with her younger brother on a New York City playground when she first met the then-unknown artist, who was sketching her brother as research for his next book, the book that would establish him as a literary giant of modern children's literature.

Years later, a chance meeting would reunite the two, and Tommy began to work for Morty as his assistant, eventually moving out of the city and into his idyllic country home. But his sudden death after a fall isn't the only shock that awaits her: "Tommy never doubted that Morty would be generous to her, but she had no idea he would leave her the house and the surrounding property outright; even less than no idea that he would name her his literary executor, assigning her a series of detailed responsibilities as variously remote from her experience as foraging for mushrooms or Olympic diving."

National Book Award-winning author Julia Glass has said in interviews that three things inspired her to write A HOUSE AMONG THE TREES: 1) an article she read with the late Maurice Sendak, author of WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE, who had some unexpected codicils in his will, 2) watching an in-depth interview with several leading male actors, and 3) talking to her son about why he loves acting. In this departure from her earlier works, Glass gets to deftly examine the nature of art, celebrity, legacy and friendship --- in all their glory and dangers..." 2018 Parish Golf

Outing Summary

The weather for the golf outing was perfect and it provided for great conditions for the 56 golfers who participated in this year's event. The Men's Club would like to thank all those that participated and contributed. We also wish to thank the staff at White Deer Run who did an excellent job of facilitating our event. We would like to especially thank Bob Malpede and his crew and Sandy for making it an enjoyable day at the golf course.

This year, as in the past couple of years, the Men's Club and the Alpha Omega Teen Ministry worked together to raise funds to help defray some of the cost of the 2018 Mission Trip. At two of the par threes, golfers were able to purchase additional shots for an opportunity to win a cash prize for hitting the shot that wound up "closest-to-the-pin". This year's winners were Terry Horan Jr. and Eric Swanson. Congratulations to both as these two par threes are some of the toughest in the area!

The Youth Ministry also provided mints for their "mulligan sales" and "licorice ropes" which were used for some on the course game enhancements. The Men's Club wishes to thank Jim Welch, the teens and their parents for their help and support. The enhancements that you provide go a long way in helping us to have a successful event!

Other winners in the outing include: Tony Lee, Chris Coates, Bob Trauger and Wally Butman for low gross and Patrick Steininger and his team for low net. Colleen Horan had the longest drive of the women golfers while Chris Coates had the longest drive for the men. The event closest-to-the-pin was won by Patrick Steininger. Congrats!

After their rounds, the golfers made their way to Hitz Pizza and Sports Bar to enjoy a buffet of pizza, pasta, chicken, beef, salads and drinks of their choice. They were joined by spouses and friends for a relaxing and enjoyable time. We wish to thank Tina and her crew for their excellent service and a buffet that exceeded our expectations!

Lastly, we especially want to thank Dave Franklin, Bill White, John Flynn, Larry Klauser and Dave Goacher for their help in planning and execution of the event. Gentlemen, without your help and guidance, the event could not have taken place!

See you next year!

THE UNEMPLOYMENT LINE

No doubt there are times when the job search can be frustrating, discouraging, even painful. In these situations, a fair question to ask oneself is “How is my prayer life contributing to my search?” If the answer is that prayer has not been a regular part of your job search plan, right now is a good time to start. Need some help? Perhaps this prayer to St. Jude can offer some motivation and inspiration...

Lord Jesus, my desire to work is itself your gift. You gave me talents so I could shine Your light to others in the world. Send Your Spirit to guide me to work that will provide security and joy, and most of all the ability to serve You in love.

St. Jude, I do not know where I am going—and so I call upon you in my need. Bless my spirit with the determination to press on. Give my heart patience and fortitude. Help me, dear friend, to know that God’s plan for me is forged out of love. Amen.

The purpose of our Wellspring Employment Resource Community (WERC) ministry is to provide a safe and effective forum for sharing work search tools and techniques which can enable unemployed, underemployed, and job-searching parishioners in their efforts to find meaningful and rewarding work. All are welcome – from recent graduates looking for that first job to the individual looking to make a change in their career or current role to the seasoned job hunter. Questions? Contact the WERC team at SMVWERC@gmail.com. Any Parishioner is welcome to join the WERC LinkedIn Group to share/post job information – on LinkedIn, search for the WERC (Wellspring Employment Resource Community) Group and complete a “Request to Join.”

Upcoming “WERC” Events

Next Meeting: Monday, July 23rd at 7:30 PM –WERC Support Group

REQUESTS FOR PRAYER

Our parish welcomes the opportunity to include the loved ones of parishioners in prayer. We do respect people's privacy, however; and restrict the list in the bulletin to names that have been given to us by the ailing persons themselves, or by a spouse or immediate family member. The prayers included in the Sunday liturgy petitions are for parishioners facing imminent serious surgery or death (also requested by themselves, or immediate family).

We also have a Prayer Ministry, people dedicated to praying for specific intentions. To have your intention put on the prayer list, please fill out a form by the box under the Mother Theresa picture in the narthex. These intentions are sent out weekly to our "prayer warriors", and first-names only are included.
