St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the divine power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER 13, 2022

THE WORK OF DISCIPLESHIP

It is easy to go through life non-reflectively, living the routines of our days and weeks without giving much thought to the larger questions of meaning, purpose, and calling. We may know we need to change but put it off, thinking we'll love, serve, and care more in the future. We may face trial personally and be weary of trying to live as we know we should. We witness discord, violence, and division and it may feel that it is the end of the world. Today's readings urge us to put laziness, fear, or distraction aside and get about the work of discipleship with the assurance that the Lord will provide what we need as we do so.

THE SUN OF JUSTICE WILL ARISE

It may seem as though Jesus is talking directly to us in today's Gospel. While it is always true that the Gospel speaks across time and space, today's message feels particularly appropriate as we near the end of another year that has been filled with pandemic, political division, international tension, and economic concerns. Christ reigns over all these things, and as Christians, we hold firm in the belief that we will as well. We must take the long view—the truly long view of eternity—as we meet the challenges of our time. The sun of justice will arise. All will be well.

NOT A HAIR ON YOUR HEAD WILL BE DESTROYED. PERSEVERE.

The message of the Gospel is not abstract, nor are we distant hearers of its message. We face choices every day about how we will live, what we will or won't do, how seriously we will take Christ's call to live the truth of the gospel. At times, the choices we face seem inconsequential: will we sit on the sofa night after night, or choose to spend time with family or serve in our parish? Will we get up for Mass on Sunday morning ready to praise God and be part of our faith community, or drag ourselves there, grumbling every step of the way (or not go at all)? Choices such as these are of consequence of course, not only because each decision matters, but the patterns we establish in our lives are rooted in the cumulative weight of the choices we make. We may be called upon to make harder choices and must be prepared to do so. Jesus tells us to persevere. By doing so, we will secure our lives.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In so many ways—large and small—the pandemic has upended our lives together. Families and, in a special way, young people, have faced distressing struggles. The pandemic made our connections with one another challenging and difficult. Exactly in that moment when we truly needed supportive relationships with one another, we found ourselves separated. Sadly, this included the relationships and connections that we have in and through the Church.

We did our best to move forward and I am proud of our collective response to the challenges of the pandemic. When I announced a general dispensation from the obligation to participate in Sunday Mass, many parishes offered on-line Sunday Masses, and went even further and established prayer lines and reached out to those in need. The TV Mass that I celebrated helped to keep us connected as a community of faith in Chicagoland. So many of you have told me how healing and comforting those Masses have been.

In the meanwhile, we are in a new moment. With vaccinations and boosters, restrictions on public gatherings have eased up. Many people feel more comfortable returning to Church. Yet, we know there are some elderly and immuno-comprised persons who are still not ready to return. And they should not return. These vulnerable brothers and sisters have an excusing cause for being absent and for this reason I will continue the TV Mass on ABC for the present time. But for the rest of us, I have decided, in consultation with my advisors, to lift the general dispensation from the obligation of attending Sunday Mass as we begin a new Church year on the First Sunday of Advent, November 26-27.

My hope is that the First Sunday of Advent will provide us with a fresh start to take up again our life together as a community of faith that gathers to worship God. I have asked our pastors to begin the Masses on November 26-27 with the traditional lighting of the Advent wreath. After the homily your pastor will lead the community in a renewal of baptismal promises, acknowledging that we owe our obligation to participate in Sunday Mass to God but also to each other. Our common profession of faith and of our desire to turn away from sin, will be concluded by a sprinkling rite with the waters of baptism.

Let this occasion of our renewal of faith and life, which we all so much want, provide us with a fresh start as we recommit ourselves to worship God and to be supportive of each other week after week as we gather around the Table of the Lord to be nourished and renewed.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Estimadas hermanas y hermanos en Cristo,

De muchas maneras, grandes y pequeñas, la pandemia ha trastocado nuestras vidas juntos. Las familias y, de una manera especial los jóvenes, han enfrentado luchas angustiantes. La pandemia hizo que nuestras conexiones entre nosotros fueran desafiantes y difíciles. Exactamente en ese momento cuando realmente necesitábamos relaciones de apoyo mutuo, nos encontramos separados. Tristemente, esto incluyó las relaciones y conexiones que tenemos en y a través de la Iglesia.

Hicimos nuestro mejor esfuerzo para seguir adelante y estoy orgulloso de nuestra respuesta colectiva a los desafíos de la pandemia. Cuando anuncié una dispensación general de la obligación de participar en la misa del domingo, muchas parroquias ofrecieron las misas del domingo en línea, y fueron incluso más allá y establecieron líneas de oración y se acercaron a los necesitados. La misa televisada que celebré ayudó a mantenernos conectados como comunidad de fe en el área de Chicago. Muchos de ustedes me han dicho cuan sanadoras y reconfortantes han sido esas misas.

Mientras tanto, estamos en un momento nuevo. Con las vacunas y los refuerzos, las restricciones a las reuniones públicas se han relajado. Muchas personas se sienten más cómodas regresando a la iglesia. Sin embargo, sabemos que hay algunas personas mayores e inmunocomprometidas que todavía no están listas para regresar. Y ellas no deben regresar. Estos hermanos y hermanas vulnerables tienen una causa que justifica estar ausentes y por esta razón continuaré la misa televisada por ABC por el momento. Pero para el resto de nosotros, he decidido, en consulta con mis asesores, suspender la dispensación general de la obligación de asistir a la misa del domingo al comenzar un nuevo año eclesiástico el Primer Domingo de Adviento, el 26-27 de noviembre.

Mi esperanza es que el Primer Domingo de Adviento nos brindará un nuevo comienzo para retomar nuestra vida juntos como una comunidad de fe que se reúne para adorar a Dios. He pedido a nuestros párrocos que comiencen las misas el 26-27 de noviembre con el tradicional encendido de la corona de Adviento. Después de la homilía, su párroco dirigirá a la comunidad en una renovación de las promesas bautismales, reconociendo que nuestra obligación de participar en la misa dominical se la debemos a Dios pero también unos a otros. Nuestra común profesión de fe y de nuestro deseo de apartarnos del pecado, será concluida con un rito de aspersión con las aguas del bautismo.

Permitamos que esta ocasión de nuestra renovación de fe y vida, que todos queremos tanto, nos proporcione un nuevo comienzo mientras nos volvemos a comprometer a adorar a Dios y a apoyarnos unos a otros semana tras semana mientras nos reunimos alrededor de la Mesa del Señor para ser nutridos y renovados.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Blase Card. Cupich

12 listopada 2022 r.

Drogie Siostry i drodzy Bracia w Chrystusie,

Pandemia na wiele sposobów, w dużym i małym wymiarze, zmieniła nasze wspólnotowe życie. Rodziny, a w szczególny sposób młodzi ludzie, stanęli w obliczu niepokojących zmagań. To przez pandemię nasze wzajemne kontakty stały się wyzwaniem i spotkały się z wieloma trudnościami. Zostaliśmy rozdzieleni dokładnie w momencie, kiedy niezmiernie potrzebowaliśmy wzajemnego wsparcia. Niestety, dotyczy to także więzi i relacji, które mamy w Kościele i przez Kościół.

Zrobiliśmy wszystko, co w naszej mocy, aby pójść naprzód, jestem dumny z tego jak wspólnie zareagowaliśmy i zachowaliśmy się w obliczu wyzwań związanych z pandemią. Kiedy ogłosiłem ogólną dyspensę od obowiązku uczestniczenia w niedzielnej Mszy świętej, wiele parafii zaoferowało niedzielne Eucharystie w wersji online, a nawet zrobiło jeszcze jeden krok i ustanowiło telefoniczne linie modlitewne, docierając do potrzebujących. Msze telewizyjne, które odprawiałem, pomogły utrzymać nas w łączności jako wspólnotę wiary w aglomeracji Chicago. Usłyszałem od wielu z Was, jak wiele pocieszenia i uzdrowienia te Msze wnosiły w Wasze życie.

Teraz jednak znajdujemy się na innym etapie. Dzięki szczepieniom i ich dodatkowym, wzmacniającym dawkom, złagodniały ograniczenia dotyczące zgromadzeń publicznych. Wiele osób czuje się bardziej komfortowo wracając do Kościoła. Wiemy jednak, że są osoby starsze i osoby o obniżonej odporności, które nie są jeszcze gotowe do powrotu. I nie powinny jeszcze wracać. Ci najbardziej zagrożeni bracia i siostry mają usprawiedliwienie dla swojej nieobecności w kościele i dlatego będę kontynuował odprawianie Mszy św. za pośrednictwem stacji ABC. Jednak dla reszty z nas, po konsultacjach z moimi doradcami, postanowiłem wraz z rozpoczynającym się w pierwszą niedzielę adwentu, 26-27 listopada, nowym rokiem kościelnym znieść ogólną dyspensę od obowiązku uczestniczenia w niedzielnej Mszy świętej.

Mam nadzieję, że pierwsza niedziela adwentu będzie dla nas początkiem podjęcia na nowo naszego życia jako wspólnota wiary, która gromadzi się, aby wielbić Boga. Poprosiłem naszych duszpasterzy, aby Msze św. w dniach 26-27 listopada rozpoczęły się tradycyjnym zapaleniem wieńca adwentowego. Po homilii Wasz proboszcz poprowadzi wspólnotę w odnowieniu przyrzeczeń chrzcielnych, uznając, że zobowiązanie do uczestnictwa w niedzielnej Mszy św. dotyczy Boga, ale także siebie nawzajem. Nasze wspólne wyznanie wiary i pragnienie odwrócenia się od grzechu, zakończy obrzęd pokropienia wodami chrztu świętego.

Niech ta okazja do odnowienia wiary i życia, którego wszyscy tak bardzo pragniemy, będzie dla nas świeżym początkiem. Raz jeszcze ponownie zobowiążmy się do wielbienia Boga i wspierania się nawzajem tydzień po tygodniu, kiedy wspólnie będziemy gromadzić się wokół Stołu Pańskiego, aby karmić się Ciałem Chrystusa i odnawiać swoją wiarę.

Szczerze oddany Wam w Chrystusie,

Marc Cardinal Cupich
Arcybiskup Chicago
