THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

James Merritt reminds me of my youth with this story. Growing up in the 1950s, unlike today, we had only one television. It was in black and white, no color at the time. Often certain programs were always going to be seen by the entire family. One of these was "To Tell the Truth" It was one of the most popular game shows on TV. A person in a certain profession was brought in, along with two other people, and they were asked questions by a panel of celebrities to determine who the person really was. The job of the three contestants was to try to fool the celebrities into selecting the wrong person. The real celebrity had to always tell the truth. The other contestants could say anything to misdirect the panelists. When the celebrities made their choice, the MC would then say: "Would the real ___ please stand up?" After a moment of suspense, the real person would indeed stand up. If one asks God the Father, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit the question: "Will the real God please stand up?" then all three would have to stand in order to tell the truth! Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, the namesake of our parish. The Most Holy Trinity is a mystery because it is about God, and God is a mystery. But there are two sides to a mystery: We will never completely understand the mystery; and in a mystery, there is always something else to discover or learn. God has even left us clues throughout this universe of His Trinitarian nature. Here are three basic features of this universe. There is space, matter, and time. Space is length, breadth, and height. Matter is energy, motion, and phenomena. Time is past, present, and future. We even see it in ourselves. Humankind can be described as body, soul, and spirit. Likewise, our God is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Often-times there is a reminder that the Three are One. Every-one baptized, not in the "names—plural—of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit"; but rather in the "name—singular—of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit." The word one literally means "one unity." It is a collective one. Remember again the word trinity. The prefix, tri, literally means three. Unity literally means one. Tri-unity means three in one. Our belief is one God; Three Persons. Each Person in the Godhead is distinct from the other Person. What was written here is limited. Remember the earlier comment and definition of mystery. What is here is only a partial glimpse of our God.

TRINITY SUNDAY

THIS IS FR. DANIEL VILLARREAL

Our new Parochial Vicar is coming on July 1st to begin his term with us here at Holy Trinity.

We will have a Welcoming Reception for Fr. Daniel

Sunday, July 2nd at 3-4:30PM in the Banquet Hall

Rev. Daniel Eduardo Villarreal Páez! Daniel was born in Monterrey, México, being the fourth and last son of Hector and Nelda Villarreal. He holds a B.S. in Chemistry by Tec de Monterrey. He also completed graduate studies in Bioethics at a local school in Mexico and got a M.A. in Theology by the Sydney College of Divinity. Before entering the seminary, he worked as a chemist in Switzerland and as a high school and college professor in Mexico. After a long process of discernment, Daniel came to San Antonio in 2012, joining Assumption Seminary. His vocation call originated through the experiences he had while serving in a vibrant evangelization ministry for many years. He was allowed to do graduate studies in spirituality at Oblate School of Theology and is currently doing research in the areas of charismatic spirituality and inner healing. He is the founder of DIEC (Desarrollo Integral en Cristo), a lay ministry that works in Mexico and the United States and that is dedicated to the evangelization of the youth and young adults. He coordinates a family catechesis program present in several parishes of our Archdiocese. He is also the director of Dosis, a ministry of inner healing and deliverance. He was appointed by Archbishop Gustavo as part of the Archdiocesan Team for the V Encuentro. Daniel was ordained to the priesthood on May 20, 2017 and is very excited by his appointment to serve as parochial vicar in Holy Trinity.

God of Mercy,

and send us forth to encounter
our brothers and sisters,
to walk along beside them,
listen to their hopes and dreams,

in the Eucharist and send them as missionary disciples

Amen.

The V Encuentro is a four-year multi-cultural process of ecclesial reflection and action that invites all Catholics in the United States to intense missionary activity, consultation, leadership development, and identification of best ministerial practices in the spirit of the New Evangelization. The process has been proclaimed as a priority activity of the USCCB's Strategic Plan for 2017-2020. The V Encuentro starts at the grass-roots level and calls for the development of resources and initiatives to better serve the fast-growing Hispanic population in dioceses, parishes, ecclesial movements, and other Catholic organizations and institutions in light of its theme: Missionary Disciples: Witnesses of God's Love. In essence, the V Encuentro is a gift from the Hispanic/Latino Church to all of the Church.

WHAT IS THE FIFTH ENCOUNTER (V-ENCUESTRO)

Who participates in the V Encuentro?

All leaders in arch/dioceses, parishes, lay ecclesial movements and other Catholic organizations and institutions, such as Catholic Schools and Catholic Charities, are invited to participate by encountering not only Hispanic/Latino Catholics, but those who have distanced themselves from the Church, particularly those living in the periphery through the missionary process of evangelization, outreach and consultation of the V Encuentro.

What is the goal of the V Encuentro?

The main goal of the V Encuentro is to discern ways in which the Church in the United States can better respond to the Hispanic/Latino presence, and to strengthen the ways in which Hispanics/Latinos and those feeling left out, respond to the call to the New Evangelization as missionary disciples serving the entire Church, and how we can answer the call to missionary discipleship in a multi-cultural church, united in our diversity. In the Archdiocese of San Antonio, it is envisioned to be a timely and effective vehicle through which to execute the Archdiocesan Shared Vision and Pastoral Plan proclaimed at Pentecost 2013, to generate a missionary discipleship that will lift the entire church of San Antonio to effect the New Evangelization in all areas of the local Church's ministry and service. It is also an additional means to assist parishes to reach their Parish Goals proclaimed at Pentecost 2015.

SAVE THE DATE
HOLY TRINITY
PARISH ENCUESTRO
SATURDAY, AUGUST 26, 2017

You can visit the Archdioceses web link for the V Encuentro at:

Emphasizing the need for a continual pastoral conversation that allows the Church, consistent with its missionary nature, to respond with more fidelity and enthusiasm to the presence in parishes and dioceses. The Church will empower the people to live their vocation more fully as joyful missionaries to the whole Church.

Theme Missionary Disciples:

Five Generative Themes

1. Called to a Loving Encounter with Jesus
2. With Words and Actions: Do it!
3. Walking together with Jesus
4. Bearing Fruits of New Life

THE DIVINE MERCY Weekly Message

A noble and delicate soul, even the most simple, but one of delicate sensibilities, sees God in everything, finds Him everywhere, and knows how to find Him in even the most hidden things. It finds all things important, it highly appreciates all things, it thanks God for all things, it draws profit for the soul from all things, and it gives all glory to God. It places its trust in God and is not confused when the time of ordeals comes. It knows that God is always the best of Fathers and makes little of human opinion. (#148)

Mensaje semanal De La DIVINA MISERICORDIA

Un alma noble y delicada puede ser también la mas sencilla, pero de sentimientos delicados; tal alma en todo ve a Dios, lo encuentra en todas partes, sabe encontrar a Dios incluso en las cosas mas insignificantes. Para ella todo tiene algún significado, aprecia mucho todo, agradece a Dios por cada cosa, de cada cosa saca provecho para el alma y dirige a Dios toda alabanza. Confía en Él y no se impresiona cuando llega el momento de la prueba. Sabe que Dios siempre es el mejor Padre y da poca importancia a las consideraciones humanas. (#148)

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Each week we offer a question for further reflection by our parishioners. The encouragement is for everyone to ponder that question or to dialogue in your family prayer time, over the particular question. Begin with prayer and then have someone pose the question. Listen with respect to those who respond and close with another short prayer, perhaps the Lord's Prayer.

As a follow up to this week's readings, we invite you and / or your family to reflect on the following questions to further your own growth in faith.

This week's question is:

What part of the world do you find hard to love? Islam? Terrorists?
Another race? A family member? Yourself?

¿Qué parte del mundo encuentras más difícil de amar? ¿Islám? ¿Terroristas?
¿Otra raza? ¿Un miembro de la familia? ¿A tí mismo?

It's Okay to Be Human

In Jesus, God became human and fully experienced the wide range of emotions we all encounter in life. Jesus experienced times of loneliness, sadness, hurt, anger, disappointment, grief, and abandonment. That is part of being human. Another part of being human is needing help from each other. God never intended us to be completely self-sufficient. Part of God's plan is for each of us to turn to others for help when we need it.

So when you are experiencing difficult times, don't struggle alone. Our Stephen Ministers will walk with you, listen to you, encourage you, pray with you, and provide confidential one-to-one care to help you through tough times. Stephen Ministers can bring the love of Jesus back into your life.

To learn more about Stephen Ministry and how you or someone you know could be matched with a Stephen Minister, talk with one of our Stephen Leaders:

Denise Kirmse, 497-2187
Liz Jimenez (Spanish), 432-349-9077 or Pam Hughes, 394-5723
or email Pam at pjsmemories@gmail.com.

Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care!

Reflection ~ Source of Truth

The Catholic Church is the source of Christ's truth. While you may not always understand or agree with that truth, it is the truth nonetheless. Because it is of God, truth has by its very nature a healing and comforting aspect to it. Although sometimes difficult, the truth will always lead you to the right place--a place of peace. If you are feeling the desire to distance yourself from the Church, you are moving away from the very thing that will bring you the abundant peace and joy you are seeking. As you reflect and discern the impact of your divorce or separation on the rest of your life, it is best to remain engaged with the Church, her Sacraments, her teaching, and her community. So, go to Mass, go to reconciliation, go to adoration in front of the Blessed Sacrament (if available), seek out (or start) a divorce ministry, stay plugged into your faith and your Church. Seek the Truth!

Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked,

Nor stand in the way of sinners,
nor sit in company with scoffers.

Rather, the law of the LORD is his joy;

and on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree planted near streams of water,
that yields its fruit in season;

Its leaves never wither; whatever he does prospers.

Psalm 1:1-3

*Jesus then said to those Jews who believed in him,
"If you remain in my word, you will truly be my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." John 8:31-32*

Lots to discuss...

- How scared can you be? Or, "This scared the beebies out of me".
"What do I do now?"
- "Maybe a second opinion is what I need."
What will the doctor think if I ask about one?
How to get a referral?
Transfer, or, copy and carry records.
- After surgery, now what? Physical changes.
More surgery to fix things.
Or don't fix what 'isn't' broke.
- Above all, take charge of your health.
Keep good records. Can be tedious.
Keep copies of all lab and imagery reports.
Of all prescriptions and refills.
Track the times for refills.
- Insurance, co-pays, deductibles, get advice.
- Manage your appointment times.
Right days and right times.
Coordinate with work schedules. Get help.
- Think positive: don't expect to feel bad or worse.
Eat well if possible. Eat what you like, if possible.
Get rest. Expect to feel as well as possible - whatever that means. You'll know.
Fight depression: Talk, listen, think, exercise if possible.
- Always, if possible, have someone with you to take notes and listen. If your treatment center does not provide chairs for a companion, find one that does. Do what you can do cut down your travel times. Manage your time and don't worry about the doctors. They'll manage theirs. If they say, "Be there at 5:00 a.m.", ask for a more convenient time. You need your rest.
- If you worry about your doctor not believing you, find another. (Its difficult for patients to describe their symptoms sometimes.) Symptoms change, come and go, weird, intense, mild. You'll be asked to rate your pain from "1-10", with 10 being severe. Think about that for a while. Sometimes no pain, then wham!
- Ask why the doctor thinks you need this or that test, lab, scan, treatment or prescription of any kind, and be satisfied with the answer before you proceed. Pay attention to side effects.
- Not saying, "Don't trust your doctors," just take control of your life. It's your life. Ask family for help. They can handle more than they think they can. Give them a chance to 'step up to the plate'. Also, let them know if they are overwhelming you at times with information that you might not need. Watch out for the family member who thinks he/she can manage your life better than you (maybe he/she can, sometimes). If you need the help, great, welcome it, and make it part of your positive plan to get better and survive.

For anyone who can't make the meetings, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. 4th Thursday of each month - January through October, please call. We do listen and can usually help. Watch the bulletin for changes. Next meeting June 22.

Cancer Support Group

Next meeting is Thursday evening, June 22 at 7:00 PM
Faith Formation Building,
2nd floor conference room.

Please come, we're here to listen.
Your first time? You will not be alone.
Having trouble saying the word cancer?
We have all been there.
Looking for support? This is it.
What can go wrong? Nothing.
Prayers? Endless - just for you.
Patient? Caregiver? Family or friend?
Meet caring supporters - here to help.
Witness courage, faith, understanding
Experience what support really means
And, be glad that you came
No reservation needed - just come...

Iuvenes Credentium College ~ Spanish College Ministry
Meets Every Wednesday
7:30PM-8:45PM
St. Simon Room in the Faith Formation Building

For young adult ages 20-35

How do we talk about morality in a world that no longer believes in truth? When we're bombarded with messages of "Be tolerant!" "Don't judge!" and "Coexist!"

many good people feel afraid to say anything is right or wrong anymore...

We are so excited to be announcing our next YAC Bible Study series, "Who Am I To Judge" by Edward Sri. Join us for 8 weeks as we discuss morality and how to respond to relativism with logic and love in a world that we know desperately needs it. We will be meeting on Sunday afternoons from 12:30pm – 2:00pm

Workbook cost is $15.00.

And if you can only make it to a session or two, we would still love you to sign-up. Please go to <https://www.holytrinitysat.org/yac> to register.

Note: YAC Meetings will be postponed until the bible study is complete.
