The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

*"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field,
which a person finds and hides again,
and out of joy goes and sells all that he has
and buys that field."

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

King Duncan reminds us of a story from Dr. Norman Vincent Peale's book, Positive Imaging. Dr. Peale tells the story of walking by a tattoo parlor along one of Hong Kong's narrow streets. In the shop window there was a display of decorations that could be imprinted on your skin – flags, slogans, anchors, daggers, skulls, cross-bones, and mermaids. But there was one that caught his eye. The one which caught Dr. Peale's eye was the phrase: "Born to Lose." This made him curious, and he went into the shop. Luckily, the proprietor spoke a little English, and so Dr. Peale asked him if people really did have that message permanently imprinted on themselves. The answer was yes. The last customer who wanted it had it emblazoned across his chest. "Why on earth would anyone want to be branded with a gloomy slogan like that?" Dr. Peale asked. The Chinese man shrugged his shoulders and said, "Before tattoo on chest, tattoo on mind." Now is that not a profound idea! There is a tattoo on our minds long before one appears in our lives. Scripture has a similar insight. Paraphrasing it says: "As a man thinks in his heart, so is he." What one thinks becomes reflected in one's actions or behaviors. What a difference it would make for us if we just had the right tattoo on our minds! Our first reading comes from 1 Kings. Solomon, who succeeded his father, David, as ruler of Israel, had the right idea. He asked not for long life, or riches or the lives of his enemies. Instead, he sought understanding. Knowing he was about to be thrust into being a leader of a diverse group of people, knowing of his own inexperience, he desired the gift of wisdom to discern right from wrong. Are there not times when we, too, are inexperienced? What do we reach out for on those occasions? Or do we? Do we instead plow ahead – perhaps sometimes recklessly causing greater harm than what we were initially presented? Sometimes it is difficult to see and know the difference between foolishness and wisdom. Consultation with others, reflection on the potential choices, learning what others experienced in a similar situation: All these can help us respond with wisdom rather than foolishness or even stupidity.

Mmgr. Mike

THE DIVINE MERCY Weekly Message

O my Creator and Lord, my entire being is Yours! Dispose of me according to Your divine pleasure and according to Your eternal plans and Your unfathomable mercy. May every soul know how good the Lord is; may no soul fear to commune intimately with the Lord; may no soul use unworthiness as an excuse, and may it never postpone [accepting] God's invitations, for that is not pleasing to the Lord. There is no soul more wretched than I am, as I truly know myself, and I am astounded that divine Majesty stoops so low. O eternity, it seems to me that you are too short to extol [adequately] the infinite mercy of the Lord! (#440)

Mensaje semanal De La DIVINA MISERICORDIA

Oh Creador y Señor mío, aquí tienes todo mi ser. Dispón de mí según Tu divina complacencia y según Tus designios eternos y Tu misericordia insondable. Que cada alma conozca cuan bueno es el Señor; que ninguna alma tenga miedo de tratar con el Señor, y que no se excuse de ser indigna y que nunca aplase para después las invitaciones de Dios, ya que esto no agrada a Dios. No hay alma mas miserable que yo, como verdaderamente me considero, y estoy sorprendida de que la Majestad Divina se humille tanto. Oh eternidad, me parece que eres demasiado corta para glorificar la infinita misericordia del Señor. (#440)

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Each week we offer a question for further reflection by our parishioners. The encouragement is for everyone to ponder that question or to dialogue in your family prayer time, over the particular question. Begin with prayer and then have someone pose the question. Listen with respect to those who respond and close with another short prayer, perhaps the Lord's Prayer.

As a follow up to this week's readings, we invite you and / or your family to reflect on the following questions to further your own growth in faith.

This week's question is:

What about you could be described as being like the "pearl of great price?"

Box Tops for Education

Rolling Hills Catholic School/Antonian Middle School participates in the Box Tops for Education program, which have collectively helped America's schools raise over $514 million in cash and merchandise. Every year, our students collect Box Tops, which we can redeem to support the many educational programs at our school.

In the last few years, we have raised under $400 in cash from Box Tops but this year our goal is to reach over $1000. We would like to partner with Holy Trinity Catholic Church, which is one of the parishes many of our students attend, to help support our school's efforts.

If you are willing to help us pass the word to your parishioners through your bulletin to save Box Tops for RCHS/AMS. We can provide a collection container for the church/front office and stop by to pick up the Box Tops.

Ultrasounds Save Lives

Knights of Columbus

Allied Women's Center

We are asking you to participate in the Knight's Ultrasound Initiative. Since 2009, Over 700 machines have been purchased by the Knights of Columbus throughout the United States.

Our Council with your help will partner with the Supreme Council in purchasing an ultrasound machine for Allied Women's Center, a Catholic crisis pregnancy center in San Antonio. Research shows that approximately 90% of women considering abortion choose to carry their babies to term after viewing ultrasound images. Allied Women's Center assists over 2000 women annually. They save the lives of hundreds of babies each year. Having an ultrasound machine would significantly increase Allied's success rate in saving babies and helping families. Ultrasound machines provide abortion-minded pregnant women a new way of viewing the life within them.

We would like you to consider giving generously to help to meet our goal. All funds raised will directly benefit Allied Women's Center. It is a tax-deductible donation. Our goal is $20,000. During the masses on August 20 & 27, the Knight's will be handing out envelopes and collecting donations. Envelopes are now at the entrance of the church if you would like to donate early. You can go to www.kofc9967.org to donate by credit card. Please discern what you would like to donate to the to our goal. Any amount of donation is greatly appreciated and moves us towards our goal. Thank you for your support for this great opportunity.

Celebration of Life Baby Shower July 22, 2017

Dear Holy Trinity Parishioners,

On behalf of Monsignor Mike and the Catholic Daughters of Americas Our Lady of the Holy Trinity Court 2661, we would like to express our gratitude to all of you for your GENEROSITY of baby gifts, diapers and gift cards to help make the Celebration of Life Baby Shower on July 22nd a huge success!

The mothers and children at both Gaudelupe and Seton Homes were extremely appreciative of what we did for them. There was one mother who was courageous to tell her story and communicate how God has been instrumental in her life. She is definitely beginning to see how God's plan is working in her life and wanted to encourage the other mothers to put their trust in the Lord.

Again, we thank you and may God bless you.

In Christ,

The Ladies of the Catholic Daughters

Reflection ~ Seek The Church

The Catholic Church is the source of Christ's truth. While you may not always understand or agree with that truth, it is the truth nonetheless. Because it is of God, truth has by its very nature a healing and comforting aspect to it. Although sometimes difficult, the truth will always lead you to the right place—a place of peace. If you are feeling the desire to distance yourself from the Church, you are moving away from the very thing that will bring you the abundant peace and joy you are seeking. As you reflect and discern the impact of your divorce or separation on the rest of your life, it is best to remain engaged with the Church, her Sacraments, her teaching, and her community. So, go to Mass, go to reconciliation, go to adoration in front of the Blessed Sacrament (if available), seek out (or start) a divorce ministry, stay plugged into your faith and your Church. The Church needs you!

*Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked,
Nor stand in the way of sinners,
nor sit in company with scoffers.
Rather, the law of the LORD is his joy;
and on his law he meditates day and night.
He is like a tree planted near streams of water,
that yields its fruit in season;
Its leaves never wither; whatever he does prospers.
Psalm 1:1-3*

Last Call (for the Fall)!

"Therefore encourage one another and build up each other." 1 Thessalonians 5:11

Stephen Ministry was established in St. Louis in 1975 as a Christ-centered caring ministry, named after St. Stephen. In the book of Acts, St. Stephen was chosen to provide caring ministry to those in need. Since the time of the Apostles, caring ministry has been considered a hallmark of the Christian faith community. In the late 1990's Stephen Ministry was established at Holy Trinity and has been caring for those in need in our community ever since. Today we are asking for your help. We really are in need of additional Stephen Ministers who can help us care for our fellow parishioners.

But who are Stephen Ministers you ask? They are lay ministers, equipped with special training to meet one-on-one, man to man, woman to woman, to bring God's love into the lives of people who are going through a difficult time. How do they do this?

They do this by listening, caring, supporting and praying for and with their care receivers on a weekly basis.

In the midst of this confidential caring relationship God's healing love comes pouring through.

A new training class will begin in September and go through the end of November.

If you are a good listener and a compassionate person, prayerfully consider if God is asking you to serve in this way. Then,

- Call or email one of your Stephen Leaders: Denise Kirmse, 497-2187, Liz Jimenez, 432-349-9077, or Pam Hughes, 394-5723 or email Pam at pjsmemories@gmail.com and find out more about the training program.
- Pick up an application form at the church office or email Pam at pjsmemories@gmail.com. Applications will be accepted through August 5th.

And finally, please continue to pray for this ministry and encourage anyone you know who is hurting to reach out and ask for help. Stephen Ministers are here to help! Thank you and God bless.

SOCIAL CONCERNS MEETING

The following are highlights from the SC meeting held on July 8, 2017.

Present: Rolland Cole, Msgr. Mike Yarbrough, Debbie Freno, Carol Short, Laura Hansbrough, JJ Hansbrough, Bob Lorenz, Pam Hughes, Kay Barrett,

Excused: Fr. Daniel Villarreal, Deana Abiassi, Patrick & Kathy Fetzer, Rita Farmer, Ana Flores, Bob Short. Susan Senia,

Opening Prayer: Meeting opened with a prayer led by Bob and the entire SC committee.

Bob: He reported on a Haven for Hope Meeting. He met with two "Haven for Hope" representatives in June to discuss our last year 2016 and our coming year 2017 Holy Trinity homeless project "Christmas Under the Bridge." For new members of Holy Trinity parish, hygiene items, men's and women's clothing, and blankets are collected at our Church in early November and given to the homeless at "Haven for Hope-Courtyard" on Christmas morning. For many homeless, this is the only gift they receive on Christmas Day. The two staff members Bob met with informed him that the homeless are so grateful and that they hear many conversations of thanks and appreciation for our parish's Christmas gifts. Our gifts also are more than just gifts. At times our kindness on Christmas Day serves as such a positive influence on the homeless that this Christmas Day event serves as a motivation for them to change their life by participating in the programs at "Haven for Hope." The two "Haven for Hope" representatives offered these suggestions for improving our donations. Most homeless limit themselves to one back-pack and large sizes of certain hygiene items are not recommended for those with one back-pack. Shampoo sizes 16 oz. or less and Body Lotions sizes 8 oz. or less; travel sizes are recommended. Regular blankets in darker colors are requested for the homeless sleeping on the ground. Loose weave blankets are usually not the best for outdoors. Tennis shoes, sneakers, and socks are important and often requested because homeless individuals are usually outdoors and on their feet for most of the day. Unisex or men's plain colored T-shirts without wording are in high demand. Flip-flops are not often requested by the homeless. Bags for our Holy Trinity 2017 "Christmas Under the Bridge" will be available beginning the weekend of October 28 and 29. Pick-up of your donations will be the following two weekends. Thanks for your continuous support and let's make this another joyful Christmas for the homeless of San Antonio. Thanks.

[Editor's Note: Christmas Under the Bridge collection goes to Haven for Hope. Pathways gifts go too children who are taken quickly out of abusive environments. The list of needs is in each bag.]

Carol: Prayer Shawl Ministry: We continue to meet on the first Tuesday of the month at 1:00 in the Family Room of the Banquet Hall. The July meeting fell on the birthday of our country, so it was the first month we have missed a meeting in our 5 years of service. In the last quarter we gifted 5 shawls in April, 12 shawls in May, and 13 shawls in June. Members create Prayer Shawls, numerous articles needed for the Threads of Love ministry to fulfill their mission to the local hospitals neonatal nurseries, inspired by the love and dedication to this pro-life ministry. We will be creating Christmas Elf hats for the December babies. We are presently creating Knitted Knockers to supply prosthesis to oncologist and surgeons for their patients. We ask all members of Holy Trinity parish to feel free to request a prayer shawl by calling Carol Short at 210-497-4639, or filling out a request form found in the chapel or the foyer of the church. Recently we reduced the amount of our budget as most of the ladies are able and willing to donate their time and finances to create the items that will be given. We do appreciate donation if the recipient wants to donate to supplies for our continued efforts. We supply gift bags, tissue, cards, materials for rosaries, and novena booklets for Mary Undoer of Knots in English and Spanish...

Meals on Wheels: We are now picking up our meals at Abiding Presence Lutheran Church on San Pedro, as Senior Services needs to cut their expenses and has consolidated delivery sites. We are not required to turn in forms at end of the route and we keep the bags to organize our deliveries. Some workers find this site easier to get to. We are presently delivering 6 meals and have the most northern route...

The Havens: Volunteers continue to support the activities at The Havens and provide a communion service at the end of the activities for those residents that are Catholic

J.J. and Laura: We are still awaiting information and direction from Catholic Charities as to what they might need from us. Back packs were handed out recently. An after school program is to be offered in the future.

No reports this meeting: CAM and Rosary Ministry

Pam: Here is the update for the Stephen Ministry for the Social Concerns Committee meeting on Saturday, July 8th. Stephen Ministry at Holy Trinity currently has 13 active ministers, 3 of whom are leaders. The ministers are caring one on one to 12 care receivers at this time and we have one call in that is awaiting placement. Because of the ebb and flow of the needs of those reaching out, we feel it is time to train another group of ministers. We will be recruiting at the Masses this weekend, July 8-9, and over the next few weeks. Applications will be due by August 5th. Training classes will be held on Monday evenings and 3 Saturdays this fall to fulfill the 50 hours of initial training before commissioning in December/January. Our active ministers meet with their care receivers about one hour per week and, on the 1st and 3rd Thursday evenings of the month, all the ministers meet for peer supervision and Continuing Ed. One of our leaders is considering stepping down as a leader early next year after fulfilling her two year commitment. We thank Denise Kirmse for her past two (2) years of Stephen Ministry Leadership. We have one male minister who is considering attending Leadership Training in the early part of next year and we would like to send one additional person for training sometime next year. We are asking for recommendations for individuals in the parish community that you might feel would be a good candidate for leadership. This person does not necessarily have to be a Stephen Minister already but should have a compassionate heart, a desire to bring Christ's love to those who are hurting in the community, and display leadership qualities that would help us:

- cast a vision and build awareness of Stephen Ministry at Holy Trinity
- recruit, select and train Stephen Ministers
- connect the ministers with people who need care
- provide ongoing supervision and Continuing Ed for the ministers
- and basically keep our Stephen Ministry vibrant and strong

Regarding networking with other Stephen Ministry congregations in the San Antonio area, our leaders meet quarterly with the other churches to discuss ways to improve our own church's ministry and to suggest ideas to others that have worked for us. We currently network individually with St. Joseph Honey Creek and St. Pius X who do have the ministry in their parish. In the future, we would like to consider inviting the other Catholic churches in our deanery to an informational meeting to explain the ministry to them and see if any of them are interested in establishing their own Stephen Ministry program. We ask all of you for your prayers as we continue to minister to those hurting individuals in our community.

Pam Hughes, Liz Jimenez, & Denise Kirmse - Stephen Ministry Leaders

SOCIAL CONCERNS MEETING ~ Continued

The following are highlights from the SC meeting held on July 8, 2017.

Kay: She reported on the Journey Companions in the parish. This Ministry continues to bond widows of Holy Trinity parish through social and spiritual activities. The group has become very connected in its first year of formation. We continue to attract new members through the bulletin announcement and by member invitation. Our activities have grown in scope. In the last three months we have ventured out to the Tobin Center, the Vexler Theater, the Oblate School of Theology for the Henri Nouwen conference and toured The Painted Churches with the Forever Young Seniors. These were new experiences for most of our participants. We continue to present either a monthly Weekday luncheon or a Sunday Brunch at local restaurants. Four times a year there is a Planning Meeting/Luncheon in the Banquet Hall, which is a free gathering for all members. Kay is very grateful to the Parish for providing funds to defray the cost of this event. Spiritual activities seem to appeal to some of the Companions. First Saturday Mass and devotions at Holy Spirit are now on our monthly calendar. On Mother's Day a few "orphaned" mothers gathered for Mass at the Lourdes Grotto at the Oblate Complex with brunch afterward. This seemed very meaningful for those spending this day alone. Kay is trying to be aware of those left "home alone" on holidays and attempt to bring these members together for an activity or a meal. Members continue to assist each other when needed. Friendships have formed among those with common interests. This effort has developed into a meaning ministry for our Parish

CANCER SUPPORT GROUP: our methods are simple. No therapy, but empathy, interest and support. Confidentiality, sign-in sheet with name, email and phone number. No address. Sign-in info used only for group contact. If attendee signs-in he/she agrees to keep all information discussed during the meetings confidential. If there are questions about, "What if I see someone at church who I met at a meeting, can we talk about our illness?" Yes. As long as it's obvious that both parties agree to carry on with the conversation and relationship. But be aware of who is listening and protect the identities of other survivors, patients and family members who attended the meetings. Many other questions arise from time to time, but common sense prevails, hopefully. For the first time since we began five years ago, a parishioner visited us asking what the Cancer Support Group was about. By then almost everyone had introduced themselves with the information each chose to share with the group. Well into the meeting the reply to this inquiry was, "What you've seen is what you get." Of course there is more to the Cancer Support Group than updating each other on the current status quo. Explaining that we are a self-help group raised more questions than it answered. For the remaining time the discussion unveiled how the process of self-help unfolds depending on who attends the meetings. A regular 'member' of the group explained how that first experience seemed a lot more negative than expected. Everyone talked about 'their' journey with cancer and it seemed like her journey was no big deal. "Maybe this is not for me," she said. But, thinking about it for a couple of months changed that mindset and a new perspective arose. The person returned. That was two years ago. For the next part of the meeting more discussion explained how the group helps one another. Then I talked about the personal issues that lead to my decision to ask for volunteers who would continue this ministry. First, I needed to talk with Monsignor Mike, but thought it best to bring it up with the group before this was made public. Everything at the meetings are confidential, even who attends, of course. So here we are two or three weeks after the meeting and the cats out of the bag. It was encouraging how everyone at the meeting, even the first timers, affirmed their support for the group and that it should continue. There were favorable comments about these articles. From similar remarks over the years, there was no doubt that the Cancer Support Group is a ministry that has become part of the parish's outreach to parishioners and others in the community. At this time I think it is important to inform the parish that our outreach has extended as far as Canada. Catholics there have expressed an interest in starting cancer support groups in their archdiocese. We have given them the simple ways in which our group started and explained the importance of confidentiality and the theme of self-help. These two approaches helped define a support group that allowed everyone to come in and did not limit the discussions to a format or subject matter. And as we joined the American Cancer Society's Connections website, our name, defining us as a Catholic ministry, opened the door to people looking for support and being comfortable with prayer and faith. We have hosted non-Catholics, non-Christians, agnostics and atheists, nursing students, radiation specialist interns, college students and medical professionals. And we are all about patients, caregivers, survivors and others touched by cancer. We are not, as you know a prayer group, but we start and end each meeting with various prayers appropriate for a Cancer Support Group. We have not required non-believers to participate in the prayers. Of course we talk about God, faith, peace, healing, the power of prayer, and my personal deal with God. He said, "Ask and you shall receive." That's His deal, let's take advantage of it. For the first time, this article is more an account of what happened rather than my impressions. Finally, please, prayerfully consider taking this ministry forward. It takes a willingness to encourage others to help one another through perhaps the most life altering events one can face. Events that change one's life forever, can bring families closer than ever, even bring one closer to God, realizing how God's providence truly guides our lives if only we let it. We will take a two month break and resume the regular meeting in September. So, no meeting in July or August, giving you time to think about taking on this ministry. We pray that several of you will find it in your heart to come forward. Several people sharing a common interest in helping works well. I'm sure meeting agendas and methods will change as the ministry progresses.

Truly... ...PEOPLE WHO BELIEVE AND BELONG - THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS WHERE YOU ARE.
