The stone that the builders rejected

Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

The Believe, Belong and Beyond Capital Campaign has received its first donation!

We are grateful for the gift and in the coming weeks we will contact every parish family and ask them to make a sacrificial donation to the campaign.

Our campaign prep continues to build momentum as we head toward the campaign.

The parish staff has taken on much of the workload and Monsignor Mike continues to direct the campaign while he recovers from his surgery.

Our effort is a part of Archbishop Gustavo's On the Way - ¡Ándale! Campaign.

The combined campaigns will help us build a Ministry Building and help Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of San Antonio.

If you would like to volunteer to be a part of the campaign you can call the parish office at 497-4200 or email them at believebelongandbeyond@holyltrinitysat.org.

In the meantime, please pray for the church leaders and volunteers that they may run a successful campaign.

ARCHDIOCESE OF SAN ANTONIO

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

2718 W. Woodlawn Avenue | San Antonio, Texas 78228-5124 | 210-734-2620 | Facsimile 210-734-0708

Ven, Holy Spirit, Ven!

October 2, 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"As generous distributors of God's manifold grace, put your gifts at the service of one another, each in the measure you have received." - 1 Peter 4:8-10

Next year as we mark the 300th anniversary of San Antonio, we recognize and celebrate the Church's pivotal role in establishing the faith from the very beginning. Today the archdiocese encompasses 19 counties across South Central Texas with a growing population of 2.6 million people, of whom 1 million are Catholic, and projections show our area will be home to over 1.5 million Catholics in the next twelve years.

To position the archdiocese to meet many pressing pastoral needs because of the growth, I am pleased to announce in all the parishes this weekend the public launch of our historic sixty-million dollar On the Way - ¡Ándale! Capital Campaign. As the first archdiocesan capital campaign in over 60 years, it is an extraordinary effort aimed at addressing large-scale and important capital priorities to allow us to continue to minister well to the people of God in our growing communities. The $60 million target is ambitious, and I am delighted to share the good news with you that we have already raised over $18.2 million or 30%, thanks to the gracious generosity of some early lead donors.

In the coming months, you will be hearing more about the On the Way - ¡Ándale! Capital Campaign. All of the parishes of the archdiocese will participate in the campaign in one of four waves. The Pilot Wave is already under way. Starting at today's Mass, I am asking that all our parish communities remember the capital campaign in the Prayers of the Faithful until the conclusion of the campaign in early 2019.

While it is true that we measure the success of the On the Way - ¡Ándale! Capital Campaign in dollars raised, it is even more true to say that this capital campaign will be a success if it generates a renewed fervency of faith, a recommitment on our part to extend our outreach to those in need, and creates in all of us a good steward's heart.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop Gustavo García-Siller, M.Sp.S.
Archdiocese of San Antonio

THE DIVINE MERCY Weekly Message

During the rosary today, I suddenly saw a ciborium with the Blessed Sacrament. The ciborium was uncovered and quite filled with hosts. From the ciborium came a voice: These hosts have been received by souls converted through your prayer and suffering. At this point, I felt God's presence as a child would; I felt strangely like a child. (#709)

Mensaje semanal De La DIVINA MISERICORDIA

Hoy, mientras rezaba el rosario, vi de repente el copón con el Santísimo Sacramento. El copón estaba descubierto y con bastantes Hostias. Desde el copón salió una voz: Estas Hostias fueron recibidas por las almas convertidas con tus plegarias y tu sufrimiento. En aquel momento sentí la presencia de Dios como una niña, me sentía extrañamente una niña. JOURNEY COMPANIONS

Have you thought about joining this group, but you are not sure if it is right for you? Perhaps this information will help you decide. We are different than most healing ministries. Our mission is to build bonds of friendship by assisting widows in establishing new social routines as we come together as Sisters in Christ. In doing so, we help each other move beyond our grief and find new joys in life. The activities that we present are meant to introduce new experiences with new friends. For example, we come together for theater, concerts, museums, retreats, day tours and of course "lunches and brunches". Ideas for our program all come from our member's suggestions. Having a calendar of social events to look forward to is quite meaningful to someone who has been left alone. If you are a widow and a member of Holy Trinity Parish and think you would enjoy a new beginning in your life, please call us. We are here to help you get started.

For more information please contact Kay Barrett at 210-490-0162 or Jane O'Neill at 210-414-2337.

Sending Prayers Your Way!

To all of our parishioners: We said a prayer for you today, a prayer that if you are hurting or alone, suffering from some loss or simply just need someone to walk with you for a while in a caring, non-judgmental way, that you will find the courage to reach out to the Stephen Ministry Program here at Holy Trinity. A Stephen Minister is ready to journey with you, providing distinctively Christian care-giving in a confidential environment for as long as you need it. Remember, everything a care receiver tells a Stephen Minister and even the identity of the care receiver remain strictly confidential. It is in this safe environment of trust and acceptance that God can bring hope and healing to a care receiver.

Stephen Ministry Training Update: This week our Stephen Ministry trainees take a break from their lessons to more fully absorb what they have been learning and to begin to assimilating the skills they have learned into their everyday life. We ask that you continue to pray for them on this journey to becoming a Christ-centered caregiver.

If you or someone you know is hurting or in the middle of a crisis, Stephen Ministers are here for you. To learn more about what Stephen Ministry is and what it can do for you or someone you know, talk to one of our Stephen Leaders:

Denise Kirmse, 210 497-2187,
Liz Jimenez, 432-349-9077 (Spanish), or Pam Hughes, 210 394-5723
or email Pam at pjsmemories@gmail.com.

Cancer Support Group

Meetings are changing to:
3rd Wednesday of each month

Next Meeting Oct. 18, 2017
7:00 - 8:00 pm

at
Faith Formation Building, 2nd floor
St. Teresa room 202

Cancer support groups are meetings for people with cancer and those touched by the disease. They can have many benefits. Even though a lot of people receive support from friends and family, the number one reason they join a support group is to be with others with similar cancer experiences. Some research shows that joining a support group improves both quality of life and survival. Support groups vary greatly, and if you had one bad experience, it doesn't mean this group isn't a good option for you!

Support groups can:

- Help you feel better, more hopeful, and not so alone
- Give you a chance to talk about your feelings and work through them
- Help you deal with practical problems, such as problems at work, family or school
- Help you cope with side effects of treatment

CDA Mission Statement

Catholic Daughters of the Americas strives to embrace the principle of faith working through love in the promotion of justice, equality, and the advancement of human rights and human dignity for all."

Formed in 1903, the Catholic Daughters of the Americas® is one of the Oldest and Largest organizations of Catholic Women in the Americas.

Under the patronage of the Blessed Mother,
the Catholic Daughters of the Americas
are united by their faith in Jesus Christ, in their devotion to the church and the Holy See.

Who are the Catholic Daughters?

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas is one of the oldest and largest organizations of Catholic women in the Americas.

They donate to charities, administer and strive "to be the helping hands where there is pain, poverty, sorrow or sickness."

The CDA motto is "Unity & Charity."

Catholic Daughter women enjoy each other's company at meetings and work hard for their parishes and communities. Deeply spiritual, together they share faith, love of God and a distinctly feminine spirituality alluded to by Pope John Paul II when he spoke of the necessity of "feminine genius" in today's world. This includes concerns of today's church and society as well as issues that affect the well-being of women and children.

Reflection ~ Why Me?

"Why me?," was the question I posed to my brother when I broke the news to him about my impending divorce. I was not a perfect spouse, but I was completely committed to my marriage--for life. I really tried so hard to be a loving and faithful spouse. So, why did my marriage end up in the trash heap? Where did I go wrong? What could I have done differently? Where the heck was God in all of this mess?

I wrestled mightily with those, and many other questions, as my divorce moved toward its fateful conclusion. I kept replaying my marriage over and over in my mind searching for answers, trying to identify that one domino that caused the rest to fall. I kept going in circles, getting nowhere. I brought my struggle to my counselor, and she helped me understand the concept of free will. She explained that God gives each of us free will as a gift. It is what makes us fully human. Without it, we are simply puppets on God's string, never fully accountable for our actions. God loves us so much that He sets us free to make our own choices. He lovingly hopes that we use this free will to choose to love Him in return. Sometimes we do, and too often we don't.

Our spouses have free will as well, and sometimes they use it in ways that are very hurtful to us and our marriage. Try as we might, we can't control them. So, while we each play a part in the success or failure of our marriage, we can't control how our spouse chooses to use their free will. They very well could have been the one to push the first domino down, and there was nothing we could have done to stop it. Free will can be used for great good, or for great harm--even the destruction of a marriage. Remember that. Divorce hurts God's heart more than it does ours. Yet, He will usually not step in and violate our free will, even if it means saving the marriage. All we can ever do is use our free will to love God and others well, and pray that other people do the same. One day we will all be held accountable for how wisely we used our free will. Choose well!

His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' - Matthew 25:21

¿POR QUÉ SER CATÓLICO?

FORTALECIENDO LA FE ... HACIENDO DISCÍPULOS Y MISIONEROS

Los católicos a menudo nos enfrentamos a oportunidades para compartir nuestra fe con los demás, pero carecemos de los conocimientos básicos y la confianza para hacerlo. ¿Por qué ser católico? Tiene un rico enfoque bíblico y catequético que da una base sólida para que cada católico exprese su fe y sea capaz de alcanzar a otros en la fe.

Invitamos a los hombres de Holy Trinity a participar en este programa basado en el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica ¿Cómo podemos animar a los católicos para que compartan abiertamente sobre lo que creen?

¿Cómo podría la gente responder cuando otros les preguntan sobre lo que creen y las enseñanzas católicas?

¿Cómo los padres pueden transmitir una real y profunda vivencia de su fe católica a sus hijos y familiares?

Día y Horario: Martes, 7:00pm - 8:30pm
Fechas: 29 de Agosto al 28 de Noviembre del 2017
Lugar: Edificio de Formación de la Fe
(Salon St. Elizabeth - 2do piso)

Costo del libro: $20.00

Espiritualidad para el Siglo XXI

Una espiritualidad sana siempre ha sido cuestión de poner un número de cosas en un delicado equilibrio y luego caminando sobre una cuerda floja para no caer de cualquier lado. Salud espiritual es mucho la tarea de vivir la tensión correcta entre un número de cosas: Contemplación y acción, el monasterio y lo domestico, pasión y pureza, deber y auto-realización, esta vida y la siguiente, intelecto y voluntad, la comunidad y la individualidad... todas ellas, son un conjunto completo de teclas de un piano, son necesarias si queremos jugar todos los melodías que las diferentes circunstancias de nuestra vidas demanda. Es aconsejable no cortar parte del teclado. —Fr Ron Rolheiser
