PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Pastor's Message

In today's Second Reading, Paul speaks about a thorn, a difficulty he is having. We never discover what the problem is. We know it as "a thorn in the flesh." We could speculate as to what this "thorn" might be.

It could be generic. Perhaps it was Paul's humanity being limited. Perhaps it was his seemingly constant suffering for Christ. Could it have been a physical impairment? What about his continued struggles with the various churches he founded and visited? Could it have been more spiritual fights within himself, similar to Mother Theresa? Again, Paul never identifies this "thorn". But, regardless of what it was, it didn't stop Paul from doing what he did – spread the Good News of Jesus Christ. Often Paul struggles with how long-lasting is his preaching going to be? When he's no longer there, will his preaching still be effective, be present, be alive and working? Rejection was a concern for Paul. Perhaps it came from knowing how Jesus was rejected by His community. We are reminded of that again in today's Gospel. We hear the story of Jesus' rejection in his own town of Nazareth. Jesus failed to get His point across. The heart of the story is the hard-heartedness and stubbornness of the townsfolk. They even ridicule Jesus, belittling Him as only a carpenter. They are insulted that He comes across as better than they. And how dare He strive to be better than His assigned station in life! We know that God is high and holy, distant and different. But to be among us is blasphemy! So why is this important? It shows the extent God will go to demonstrate his love for us. God entered the dust in order to take us to the heavens. God became ordinary in order to make us extraordinary. So, God becomes one of us, a carpenter. And this is important because carpenters make things. Jesus made tables and chairs, cabinets and carts, sheds and houses for the people of Nazareth. Jesus the woodworker was also Jesus the builder of men and women. Carpenters use wood to build. Jesus was a builder – the builder of what came to be called the Kingdom of God. It demonstrates the humanity of Jesus. And this is how Jesus builds the Kingdom of God – through our shared humanity. The humanity of Jesus is surprising and encouraging. It helps me to know that I am not alone in my loneliness, in my sorrow, in my suffering, in my grieving and even in my temptations. The book of Hebrews says that Jesus experiences all the temptations of humankind. And Paul reminds himself – and us – that God's grace is sufficient for any of us. God's power is made perfect in weakness. God uses the weak, the humble, the seeming failures in life, and the apparent nobodies, to build his Kingdom. Are you some of the material God is using to build his kingdom?

WELCOME FR. MIKE ENGLISH

Father Michael Patrick English was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of San Antonio on June 2, 2018. He was born February 9, 1979 in Arlington Heights, Illinois to Ana (deceased in 2015 from breast cancer) and Frank English. Five months later his family-including mom, dad, Michael and his older brother Frank, relocated to San Antonio and he was baptized at St. Luke Catholic Church in August 1979. Fr. Michael attended Baskin Elementary, Castle Hills Elementary, Eisenhower Middle School, Churchill High School, and San Antonio College, before receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of North Texas in Radio, Television, and Film in 2003. He co-produced a public access television show from 1997-2003 and worked as a Technical Recruiter for eight years in Chicago and returned to San Antonio as a Technical Recruiter in 2007. Upon return to San Antonio, Father Michael came home to the Catholic Church through St. Luke's RCIA in 2007-2008 when he received Confirmation and Eucharist as a result of a request from his brother to become the godfather for his niece. It was during the RCIA process that he had a transformative encounter with the Risen Lord and fell in love with His Church. He soon became a daily communicant, catechist, and lector. During this time, Fr. Jim Barlow served as his spiritual guide and mentor. In 2011, he entered into priestly formation for the Archdiocese of San Antonio at Assumption Seminary, and as mentioned above was ordained priest on June 2, 2018. Father Michael also completed a three-year Spiritual Direction program through St. Peter upon the Water on June 3rd. Fr. Michael will be assigned as Parochial Vicar at Holy Trinity Catholic Church. Father Michael currently produces a television show on channel 20 in San Antonio. He is a DEVOTED Spurs fan.

The Art of Really Listening

Have you ever reflected on how many times in the Bible we hear of God's listening? In Exodus 2:24 we read how "God heard their groaning and he remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac and with Jacob." Through his prophet Isaiah God said, "Before they call I will answer; while they are still speaking I will hear." (Isaiah 65:24) And we see too how Jesus called upon His Father, thanking Him, asking Him to heal, to have mercy, to take away this cross, and then placing it all in His Father's hands.

Sometimes we wish we could do something for those around us who are hurting. But perhaps, though it may not seem like much, all we are called to do at the moment is to "be quick to listen, slow to speak" (James 1:19a). God can work through our caring listening like a soothing salve on a wound, bringing about healing, deeper self-understanding, and the abundant life that Jesus promised.

Listening is an essential part of Stephen Ministry. Stephen Ministers use active listening skills to help people recognize and accept the feelings they are experiencing. If you or someone you know is hurting, having someone to listen with compassionate understanding without judging and with prayerful attention may be just what is needed.

To find out more about how Stephen Ministry works and how you or someone you know could benefit from a Stephen Minister, talk with one of our Stephen Leaders:
Gaby Terrazas, 210 872-1917 (Spanish), or Pam Hughes, 210 394-5723
or email Pam at pjsmemories@gmail.com.

Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

THE DIVINE MERCY Weekly Message

Prayer. – A soul arms itself by prayer for all kinds of combat. In whatever state the soul may be, it ought to pray. A soul which is pure and beautiful must pray, or else it will lose its beauty; a soul which is striving after this purity must pray, or else it will never attain it; a soul which is newly converted must pray, or else it will fall again; a sinful soul, plunged in sins, must pray so that it might rise again. There is no soul which is not bound to pray, for every single grace comes to the soul through prayer. (#146)

Mensaje semanal De La DIVINA MISERICORDIA

La oración. A través de la oración el alma se arma para enfrentar cualquier batalla. En cualquier condición en que se encuentre un alma, debe orar. Tiene que rezar el alma pura y bella, porque de lo contrario perdería su belleza; tiene que implorar el alma que tiende a la pureza, porque de lo contrario no la alcanzaría; tiene que suplicar el alma recién convertida, porque de lo contrario caería nuevamente; tiene que orar el alma pecadora, sumergida en los pecados, para poder levantarse. Y no hay alma que no tenga el deber de orar, porque toda gracia fluye por medio de la oración. (#146)

JOURNEY COMPANIONS

Have you thought about joining this group, but you are not sure if it is right for you? Perhaps this information will help you decide. We are different than most healing ministries. Our mission is to build bonds of friendship by assisting widows in establishing new social routines as we come together as Sisters in Christ. In doing so, we help each other move beyond our grief and find new joys in life. The activities that we present are meant to introduce new experiences with new friends. For example, we come together for theater, concerts, museums, retreats, day tours and of course "lunches and brunches". Having a calendar of social events to look forward to is quite meaningful to someone who has been left alone. If you are a widow and a member of Holy Trinity Parish and think you would enjoy a new beginning in your life, please call us. We are here to help you get started.

For more information please contact
Kay Barrett at 210-490-0162 or Jane O'Neill at 210-414-2337.

Reflection ~ Peaceful, Easy Feeling

The stress and strain of divorce is so intense. The emotional pain is overwhelming. It is a battle just to get through the day. You can't think straight. You walk around with an ache in the pit of your stomach. Often you are afraid of what the future will hold. You can't imagine a day when things will be "normal" again.

Here is a way to begin to offset the pain and regain some peace in your life. Think back to those times in your life when you were more carefree, when life was simple. What types of things did you really enjoy doing? How did you really enjoy spending your time? What hobbies did you have? What activities did you do? What music did you listen to? Pick one of these things and do it. Even if it brings you just one minute of peace in the midst of your turmoil, it is productive. The idea is to find that one thing that brings you peace and make that part of your daily routine. Not only will you find your anger will diminish, but those moments of peace will grow in duration and frequency.

Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it. The eyes of the Lord are directed toward the righteous and his ears toward their cry. - Psalm 34:15-16

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It seems that Jesus is always facing some kind of opposition. Today, those from his native place amaze him because of their lack of faith. We oppose Jesus as well. It is not easy to be challenged and realize our great need to change. We grow comfortable with ourselves and our surroundings and resist change. We become defensive when the wisdom Jesus utters asks us to leave ourselves and our concerns and think more about others. We lack faith in God, faith in ourselves, and faith in one another. We are asked to keep our eyes fixed on the Lord and allow ourselves to be stretched. Jesus knows what he is talking about. Do we really believe this?

El arte de escuchar de verdad

¿Alguna vez te has puesto a pensar cuántas veces se menciona en la Biblia que Dios escucha? En Éxodo 2:24 leemos cómo "Oyó Dios sus lamentos y se acordó de su alianza con Abraham, Isaac y Jacob." A través de su profeta Isaías Dios dijo: "Antes de que me llamen, les responderé; y antes de que terminen de hablar, habrán sido atendidos". (Isaías 65:24) Y también vemos cómo Jesús llamó a Su Padre, dándole las gracias, pidiéndole su sanación, que tuviera misericordia, que se llevara esa cruz, y después puso todo en manos de Su Padre.

Algunas veces nos gustaría hacer algo para ayudar a quienes vemos sufrir a nuestro alrededor. Pero aunque pareciera algo insignificante, tal vez simplemente estamos llamados a "ser prontos para escuchar, pero lentos para hablar" (Santiago 1:19a). Dios puede trabajar a través de nuestra escucha atenta como si fuese un ungüento calmante sobre una herida, posibilitando la sanación, un profundo entendimiento personal y la vida abundante que Jesús prometió.

Escuchar es una parte esencial del Ministerio Stephen. Los Ministros Stephen usan habilidades de escucha activa para ayudar a la gente a reconocer y aceptar los sentimientos que están experimentando. Si tú -o algún conocido- estás dolido, tal vez contar con alguien que escuche con entendimiento compasivo, sin juzgar y con atención sincera es justo lo que necesitas.

Para obtener más información sobre cómo funciona el Ministerio Stephen y cómo un Ministro Stephen puede beneficiarte o beneficiar a algún conocido, comunícate con uno de nuestros Líderes Stephen:
 Gaby Terrazas llamando al 210 872-1917 (español)
 o Pam Hughes ya sea llamando al 210 394-5723

¡Nuestros Ministros Stephen están listos para apoyarte!

INTERFAITH WELCOME COALITION: BUS STATION / AIRPORT MINISTRY

The Interfaith Welcome Coalition (IWC) is a San Antonio area based coalition of faith communities, organizations and individuals who work collaboratively to welcome refugees, asylum seekers and at risk immigrants to our community. The Bus Station & Airport Ministry welcomes and assists mothers & their children who are seeking asylum from Central American countries. They are dropped off every day of the week at the Bus Station & Airport by ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement) after having been vetted as having a "credible fear need" to seek asylum. These families have endured unbelievable hardships to get to this point so expressions of "bienvenidos" smiles, backpacks, lunches and explanations of travel in the U.S. are moments of much needed kindness and compassion.

There are many opportunities for volunteers and financial assistance. Contact Sandy Enders, a Holy Trinity parishioner at 210-827-4650 or senders@satx.rr.com for further information.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Each week we offer a question for further reflection by our parishioners. The encouragement is for everyone to ponder that question or to dialogue in your family prayer time, over the particular question. Begin with prayer and then have someone pose the question. Listen with respect to those who respond and close with another short prayer, perhaps the Lord's Prayer. As a follow up to this week's readings, we invite you and / or your family to reflect on the following questions to further your own growth in faith.

This week's question is:

What keeps you going when you don't feel support?

¿Qué te mantiene en marcha cuando no sientes apoyo?

~ Holy Trinity's Moms Group ~

We are a group of moms working towards a closer relationship with God. Moms who strive to ignite a passion for God in our children and families. Moms who know we can't do it alone, support each other and need each other.

Moms who band together for spiritual growth, social activities, and service projects in an effort to make a difference in this world, one tiny face at a time. We meet the 1st and 3rd Friday's of the month At 9:30am in the Faith Formation Building

Please contact Bridie Chaudoir or Meghan Renfro

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Sometimes we need a dose of healthy skepticism. Do you see some of the claims on the Internet, in social media, or even on the cover of supermarket tabloids? If we are not careful, we can easily be led astray.

However, when we find ourselves skeptical all the time, unable to trust anyone or anything, we have a problem. Trust is essential in a conversion process, and we all are in a continual process of turning toward and moving closer to God. If we find it hard to trust the promises of God, then we will find ourselves lost and bewildered.

Sometimes the biggest obstacle to a stewardship way of life is lack of trust. This is true for individuals as well as parish communities. Do we believe that God will provide for our needs? Do we believe that if we give it all away we will receive even more in abundance? Do we believe that there is true freedom in complete surrender?

Many will say that the principles of a stewardship way of life sound good spirituality and are inspiring. But when really faced with the tough decisions, they will fall back on placing trust in themselves, material goods, or money. Are we true disciples and good stewards as we claim? Where do you place your trust? Have you chosen a path where you are all in or are you still keeping something for yourself because you just aren't sure all this talk of "consider the lilies" is real or just pretty words on a page?
