Pastor's Message

Today is the fourth consecutive solemnity we are celebrating. This weekend is The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ, formerly Corpus Christi. These celebrations are primary feast days that honor our God as Father or Jesus or the Spirit. Today we recognize the gift of the Eucharist that Jesus has left us as a reminder of what He has done for us all. This solemnity, or better, it is the solemn commemoration of the institution of that sacrament called the Eucharist. It is, moreover, the Church's official act of homage and gratitude to Christ, who by instituting the Holy Eucharist gave to the Church her greatest treasure. Holy Thursday marks the anniversary of the institution, but the commemoration of the Lord's passion that very night suppresses the rejoicing proper to the occasion. Today's observance, therefore, accents the joyous aspect of Holy Thursday. It was none other than St. Thomas Aquinas who edited and/or composed the Mass and the Office – the prayers of the day – for this feast day. This was requested by Pope Urban IV in the year 1264. It is a classic piece of liturgical work, wholly in accord with the best liturgical traditions.

Our three readings for the Liturgy – Genesis, 1 Corinthians and Luke – accent sharing, sacrifice and nurturing with food. Our first reading from Genesis gives us an example of tithing that Abraham initiated with Melchizedek. Our second reading shows the gift of sacrifice that Jesus is willing to do for us. And our gospel accents how we nurture others by the sharing of what gifts we have received. And they, in turn, feed us with their gifts. All of us are invited to build up one another through sharing, sacrifice and nurturing. We are blessed and gifted with the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. It is our Catholic belief that the bread and wine become the Real Presence of Christ in our celebration of faith. When that takes place during the Eucharistic prayer, proclaimed by the celebrant, it is no longer ordinary bread and wine. It has now become the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ! And so we reverently take the gift of Jesus into our hands or on the tongue. We can't earn or even demand this. It is truly the primary gift to all of us from our God. We are being fed by God Himself. A sign that a person wishes to become Catholic and join us in our faith is that yearning that takes place to receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

So as you come forth today – or any day for that matter – do so with the mindset that this gift is extraordinary and it is an example we are to follow – sharing, sacrificing and nurturing – others as we ourselves are receiving.

Msgr. Mike

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

How can we ever succeed at truly loving God and our neighbor and fully embrace Gospel living? Achieving this goal without an intimate connection with Christ is impossible. The Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ, connects us with God in a unique and most intimate way. His very life and presence is wedded with ours. Being forgiven and nourished, we are given the strength and conviction to pick up our wounded and broken lives and be living heralds of Good News. Our world is broken and needs authentic, living witnesses to bring it back to truth. Nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ, are you ready to be sent?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

When I was a child, I can remember stopping by my parish or another local Catholic church to just spend some time in prayer before the Holy Eucharist. We didn't have exposition and adoration much in those days, but we were keenly aware of the presence of Jesus in the tabernacle. I would sometimes stare at the lighted candle near it and know that Jesus was alive.

I had never heard someone speak about a stewardship way of life back then. If I am honest, the primary message I heard in those days was along the lines of "We need to be as good as we are able." Sacrifice was only at Lent, disciples were people in the Bible, and generosity mostly had to do with the collection basket and the poor box at the church entrance. I even went to Catholic schools!

Maybe the message of stewardship was there somewhere packaged differently, and I just missed it. It wasn't until I was an adult, and after acquiring two theology degrees, that I understood both with my head and my heart what a stewardship way of life really meant. But I look back at those days, and I realize that the groundwork was laid for me to understand these things. It was those times before the Holy Eucharist that I began to understand true sacrifice. It was at those times that I began to understand how actions and realities that seem so simple to the human eye can be so profound. And it was at those times that I began to see true love knows no bounds.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

How do you explain "Real Presence" to children.

Answer:

The first Communion class is filled with excitement to the point of bursting! They are just awestruck by every new thing they learn about Jesus. Their enthusiasm is contagious as they rattle off the names of the things in church, the vessels and vestments used at Mass, and the names of their pastors and priests. Of course, they know Christ can do anything because he's God. He comes to us in holy Communion because he loves us so much that he wants to be with us. And he comes to us in the form of bread and wine. We really receive him in the Eucharist. Sometimes it is easier to explain this to children than to adults. Their faith and trust in Jesus is not limited by the questions and doubts that often come with the question of how he does it. Rather, they focus on the question "why," and the answer is something they can easily grasp: love. Christ wants to be with us because he loves us. Nothing is purer in truth or in faith. Not even the theological explanation of transubstantiation, or philosophical reasoning or symbolic references, come close. Christ takes on the form of bread and wine to be simple and approachable, so that no one is afraid or turned away. His love for us is complete and total. We try to love him the same way in return. For a child, it is simple. For us adults, we keep trying. "Unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven" (Mt 18:3).

BENEDICTION SERVICE

June 25 at 7:00PM in the Church

Please join us Tuesday evening, June 25th, for the Monthly Benediction Service. During this month of June, we lift up all priests: may they, though the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are the most poor. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be prayed in song and there will be a few minutes of silent prayer and adoration before Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. The service will last approximately 50 minutes.

All parishioners, families and children are invited.

The Eucharist

On feasts such as this, we recall miracles like the wedding feast at Cana or the multiplication of the loaves. Perhaps we remember the road to Emmaus, when Jesus was made known "in the breaking of the bread." In these stories, God satisfies our hunger in a supernatural way. But the cry of the human heart goes much deeper. "Man cannot live on bread alone," after all. In the Eucharist, God's supernatural presence takes the form of physical food. In the absence of physical nourishment, the body slowly begins to break down. Without an intentional pursuit of spiritual nourishment, our souls will similarly suffer. Our inner lives need rest and rejuvenation. We need daily connection with our Creator. We need to receive from the One who feeds us. The radical reality of the Eucharist speaks to our deeper aches, to the God who alone satisfies.

On behalf of Archbishop Gustavo, we invite you and your family to serve our Catholic community by participating in the 2019 Annual Archbishop's Appeal, Encounter: Live in Faith, Give in Love. Your prayers and gifts serve all of us by raising up our next generation of priests and deacons, providing sound catechesis and Catholic education for our children, bringing the sacraments to the hospitalized and home-bound, broadcasting the Mass and other faith-filled programming to thousands, and bringing Christ's mercy as it feeds, clothes, shelters, and cares for the most vulnerable. If you have already responded to the Archbishop's letter sent to your home, thank you! If you have not yet had an opportunity to respond to this year's Appeal, please prayerfully consider how to renew your gift, or make one for the first time. Pledge envelopes and pencils are available. Once completed, place your envelope in the offertory during Mass. You may also make your gift online at www.archsa.org/archbishops-appeal, or by calling the Office of the Archbishop's Appeal at 210-734-1604. Thank you for your prayers and generosity. May God continue to bless you! The 2019 AA campaign runs through 2019.

The overall goal for 2019 AA is again $4,500,000.

THE DIVINE MERCY

Weekly Message

De La DIVINA MISERICORDIA

Mensaje semanal

A noble and delicate soul, even the most simple, but one of delicate sensibilities, sees God in everything, finds Him everywhere, and knows how to find Him in even the most hidden things. It finds all things important, it highly appreciates all things, it thanks God for all things, it draws profit for the soul from all things, and it gives all glory to God. It places its trust in God and is not confused when the time of ordeals comes. It knows that God is always the best of Fathers and makes little of human opinion. (#148)

Un alma noble y delicada puede ser también la mas sencilla, pero de sentimientos delicados; tal alma en todo ve a Dios, lo encuentra en todas partes, sabe encontrar a Dios incluso en las cosas mas insignificantes. Para ella todo tiene algún significado, aprecia mucho todo, agradece a Dios por cada cosa, de cada cosa saca provecho para el alma y dirige a Dios toda alabanza. Confía en Él y no se impresiona cuando llega el momento de la prueba. Sabe que Dios siempre es el mejor Padre y da poca importancia a las consideraciones humanas. (#148)

ASK YOURSELF, “WHAT WOULD JESUS DO?”

Central American fathers, mothers, and children, who seek asylum in the US from the violence and poverty they suffer in their countries, are bussed in every day from Dilley and Karnes Detention Centers to catch a bus or a plane in San Antonio, so they can go on their journey to join their relatives who live throughout the U.S. Between 75 and 100 men, women and children arrive every morning and afternoon at both the bus station and the airport. Late afternoon each day, a large number arrive on bus from Laredo. Sister Denise LaRock, Daughter of Charity of St Vincent de Paul, coordinates the volunteers at the bus station under the auspices of the Interfaith Welcome Coalition. The volunteers greet them, help them get their travel tickets and insure they get on their bus or their plane. The majority of the asylum seekers are Spanish speakers.

Holy Trinity Parishioners:

We need Spanish speaking volunteers at the bus station and the airport, or volunteers to provide lunches, donate money for the back packs, etc. If you are interested in being part of this important bus and airport ministry please contact

~ JOURNEY COMPANIONS ~ A Ministry for Parish Widows

Have you thought about joining this group, but you are not sure if it is right for you? Perhaps this information will help you decide. We are different than most healing ministries. Our mission is to build bonds of friendship by assisting widows in establishing new social routines as we come together as Sisters in Christ. In doing so, we help each other move beyond our grief and find new joys in life. The activities that we present are meant to introduce new experiences with new friends. For example, we come together for theater, concerts, museums, retreats, day tours and of course "lunches and brunches". Having a calendar of social events to look forward to is quite meaningful to someone who has been left alone. If you are a widow and a member of Holy Trinity Parish and think you would enjoy a new beginning in your life, please call us. We are here to help you get started.

Marriage Enrichment

Sacred EXpression
(by servantspouse.com)

Sacred EXpression: Loving with the power of the Holy Spirit, mostly known as Theology of the Body, is the understanding about the meaning of male and female with respect to sexuality and desire. The body makes visible the invisible, the spiritual and the divine. We are made in God's image, so in the body we see God made visible. God created us male and female so that we could image his love by giving ourselves as a sincere gift to each other. As a way to strengthen your marital bond with your spouse, take a few minutes this week to read and study about God's plan and design for your physical intimacy as a couple. Click here to read more.....

Matthew 19: 1-5 "When Jesus had finished these words, He departed from Galilee and came into the region of Judea beyond the Jordan; and large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there. Some Pharisees came to Jesus, testing Him and asking, 'Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason at all?' And He answered and said, 'Have you not read that He who created them from the beginning MADE THEM MALE AND FEMALE, and said, FOR THIS REASON A MAN SHALL LEAVE HIS FATHER AND MOTHER AND BE JOINED TO HIS WIFE, AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH?'"

Reflection ~ Freedom

"I can't forgive him, he's not sorry for what he did." was the response from Stacy when she was asked how she felt about forgiving her former spouse. She went on to explain that she thought that, just as in order to receive forgiveness from God for our sins we must be truly sorry, the person we must forgive must be equally sorry to be eligible for forgiveness. Right idea, wrong application. We must be sorry for our sins in order to be forgiven. However, forgiving someone else for their transgression is our decision, not theirs.

When we forgive someone, we benefit from the forgiveness, not the other person. They may never be aware that we have forgiven them. It doesn't matter. Their ultimate forgiveness is between them and God. Forgiving someone is essential to our healing because it is an intentional letting go of all the hurt, anger, and injustice committed by the other person. While we would be justified in holding this person hostage to their transgression, our decision to let it all go is a great act of mercy that sets us free. Letting go of our "right" to retribution, frees us from our own self-induced bondage to the pain from the past. If we don't let go, it saps the life out of us as we drag around this heavy burden. We get stuck in our past by reliving it everyday. And, like a wound that we keep pulling the scab off of, we never heal. The most loving act we can do for ourselves is to forgive those that have hurt us. Only then can we heal and be truly free to live and love.

Then Peter came up and said to Jesus, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven. - Matthew

Summertime Stress Slowing You Down?

We like to think of summer as being a relaxing, enjoyable time. But hurts, struggles, crises, and problems don't take a vacation. Many times our difficulties seem even worse during the summer because everyone else seems to be enjoying life while you are feeling down. If you are experiencing a difficult time—emotionally, spiritually, or relationally—you don't have to suffer alone. Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers, ready to listen, care for and encourage you, pray with and for you, and provide one-to-one Christian care to help you through whatever it is that you are facing. Men are matched with male Stephen Ministers, and women are matched with female Stephen Ministers. It's free. It's confidential. And it will make a difference in your life!

Here is our prayer for our care receivers each day. "Come Holy Spirit, fill our hearts with the fire of your love. Keep us mindful of your presence and your love for each of us. Let us trust in you to give us the words and actions that our care receivers need this day. May we always seek to do your will and let us rejoice in your everlasting consolation. We ask this through Christ our Lord."

To learn more about what Stephen Ministry is and what it can do for you or someone you know, talk to one of our Stephen Leaders:

John Tracy, 210 215-0411,
Gaby Terrazas, 210 872-1917 (Spanish), or Pam Hughes, 210 394-5723
or email Pam at pjsmemories@gmail.com.

Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Project Cool Kickoff

Celebrating its 23rd season, Project Cool is still going strong with organizations hosting fan drives and volunteers distributing fans to seniors. The goal of the program is to provide 5,500 fans as a low-cost, low-energy means to keep seniors cool without incurring high utility bills.

Donations of 20" box fans can be dropped off at Guadalupe Community Center or any Fire Station (except Station #23). Anyone interested in receiving a free box fan should call 211, The United Way Helpline, to find a convenient site for pick up.

Summer Youth Program Requests Donations

Students in the After School and Summer Youth Program strive for excellence even when facing challenges at home. This school year, our students have been recognized for perfect attendance, A/B Honor Roll, Most Improved, and the Citizenship Award.

During the summer, our youth return to Guadalupe Community Center to receive food, tutoring and mentoring, and fun activities to maintain academic success and social development. Help us help them by providing the best camp experience for children to remember for a lifetime! Donations are requested through Amazon, but can also be delivered to Guadalupe Community Center, 1801 W. Cesar E. Chavez Blvd., Monday-Friday 8am-5pm.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Each week we offer a question for further reflection by our parishioners. The encouragement is for everyone to ponder that question or to dialogue in your family prayer time, over the particular question. Begin with prayer and then have someone pose the question. Listen with respect to those who respond and close with another short prayer, perhaps the Lord's Prayer. As a follow up to this week's readings, we invite you and / or your family to reflect on the following questions to further your own growth in faith.

This week's questions are:

Christ related with all types of people. What type of people do you find easy to include in your life?
What type of people is easy to exclude?

Cristo se relaciona con todo tipo de personas.
¿Qué tipo de personas te resulta fácil de incluir en tu vida?
¿Qué tipo de personas te es fácil de excluir?
