Twenty-Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time

"Increase our Faith"...This expression said by the apostles to Jesus Christ in today's Gospel goes far beyond their admission of lacking Faith in Jesus' call to live a certain way. The Gospel's are also a reflection of what the Church is living today. Jesus reveals to us today that the Apostle's admission of Lacking Faith is also our own. "Increase our Faith" should be our prayer crying out to Jesus who can alone give us the Faith to believe. This faith that he gives is the size of a mustard seed, but it is not the size that matters, but it's potential. We have been given at baptism and by our parents a particle of faith it may seem. Jesus today is pointing at us the potential that it has. Mustard trees can grow into large trees that bear fruit. Our faith has the capacity to give fruit to others, and a fruit different from any other tree in the world. Let us pray for our faith to grow. Let us pray to God to increase our faith.

Vigésimoséptimo Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario

"Aumenta nuestra fe" ... Esta expresión dicha por los apóstoles a Jesucristo en el Evangelio de hoy va mucho más allá de admitir su falta de fe en el llamado de Jesús a vivir de cierta manera. Los Evangelios también son un reflejo de lo que la Iglesia está viviendo hoy. Jesús nos revela hoy que la falta de fe de los apóstoles, también es nuestra falta de fe. "Aumentar nuestra fe" debería ser nuestra oración a Jesús, quien solo puede darnos la fe para creer. Esta fe que él da es del tamaño de una semilla de mostaza, pero no es el tamaño lo que importa, sino su potencial. El bautismo y nuestros padres nos han dado, puede parecer, una partícula de fe. Jesús hoy nos señala el potencial que tiene. Los árboles de mostaza pueden convertirse en árboles grandes que dan fruto. Nuestra fe tiene la capacidad de dar fruto a otros, y una fruta diferente a cualquier otro árbol en el mundo. Oremos para que nuestra fe crezca. Oremos a Dios que aumente nuestra fe.
