Parish Mission Statement

We, the community of St. John Neumann, desire to guide all souls toward God. This we accomplish by evangelizing through our ministries. Our liturgical celebrations center around the Eucharist.

Our Vision

We seek to become a spiritual home where God's love for us and our love for Him abounds freely and within an atmosphere of brotherhood and good will.

Nuestra Misión Parroquial

Nosotros, la comunidad de St. John Neumann, deseamos guiar a todas las almas a Dios. Logramos esto evangelizando a través de nuestros ministerios. Nuestras celebraciones litúrgicas están centradas en La Eucaristía.

Nuestra Visión

Deseamos convertirnos en un hogar espiritual donde el amor de Dios por nosotros y nuestro amor por El abunde libremente dentro de un ambiente de buena voluntad y de hermandad.

Thirty-Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

Can we know of any signs of the end of days? A Christian is faced with this reality constantly because we are firstly human. We do not live forever and as we age, certain experiences in life or art will remind us that our time here on earth is short. Today's Gospel shows us that Christ calls us to think of this question from a different perspective. Our personal last days, or the last days of humanity are brought into a perspective of fulfillment. All that is on earth will fall and that which we see as glorious, will lose its adornment. This is not a sign of something terrible, but a sign of what must come. The next few gospels will be addressing the Christ's teaching on the End of Days. What Christ calls us to in today's Gospel is perseverance. His promise in staying faithful to the end is that we will not be destroyed and that God will stay faithful to us. Our sufferings of today are sign of the Last Days Christ brought since the time of the incarnation. We are made for heaven and our sufferings only prepare us for the days to come. I pray for the grace of perseverance to the Call our Lord gives us.

Trigésimoprimer Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario

¿Qué señala los últimos días? Un cristiano se enfrenta a esta realidad constantemente porque en primer lugar somos humanos. No vivimos para siempre. Envejecemos y ciertas experiencias en la vida o el arte nos recordarán que nuestro tiempo aquí en la tierra es corto. El Evangelio de hoy nos muestra que Cristo nos llama a pensar en esta cuestión desde una perspectiva diferente. Nuestros últimos días personales, o los últimos días de la humanidad, son llevados a una perspectiva de realización. Todo lo que hay en la tierra caerá y lo que vemos como glorioso, perderá su adorno. Esto no es una señal de algo terrible, sino una señal de lo que debe venir. Los próximos evangelios abordarán las enseñanzas de Cristo sobre los últimos días. Cristo nos llama en el Evangelio de hoy a la perseverancia. Su promesa de permanecer fiel hasta el final es que no seremos destruidos y que Dios se mantendrá fiel a nosotros. Nuestros sufrimientos de hoy son signos de los últimos días que Cristo trajo desde el tiempo de la encarnación. Estamos hechos para el cielo y nuestros sufrimientos solo nos preparan para los últimos días. Ruego por la gracia de la perseverancia a la Llamada que nuestro Señor nos da. Juan Aguacate
