Today's Gospel Reflection Mark 7:31-37

Jesus restores a man's hearing and speech.

Jesus is journeying through Gentile territory. Jesus had previously visited this region and healed a person possessed by a demon. Jesus was already famous there, which explains why people brought the deaf man to him.

Mark shows that Jesus' own mission affirms the early Church's mission to the Gentiles. This was a significant issue to the early Christian community, which found that the good news of Jesus took root and spread quickly among the Gentiles. Yet there is an irony in the story of healing that Mark tells. Jesus gives the man the gift of speech, but then tells him not to use it. Jesus asks that the news of his healing power, which is evidence of his identity as the Messiah, not be spread.

Reflexión del Evangelio de hoy Marcos 7, 31-37

Jesús restaura la audición y el habla de un hombre

Jesús está viajando por territorio gentil. Jesús había visitado previamente esta región y sanó a una persona poseída por un demonio. Jesús ya era famoso allí, lo que explica por qué le llevaron al sordo.

Marcos muestra que la propia misión de Jesús afirma la misión de la Iglesia primitiva hacia los gentiles. Este fue un tema importante para la comunidad cristiana primitiva, que descubrió que las buenas nuevas de Jesús echaron raíces y se extendieron rápidamente entre los gentiles. Sin embargo, hay una ironía en la historia de curación que cuenta Marcos. Jesús le da al hombre el don de la palabra, pero luego le dice que no lo use. Jesús pide que no se difunda la noticia de su poder sanador, que es evidencia de su identidad como Mesías.

Next week is the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Peter proclaims that Jesus is the Messiah.

Catechetical Sunday in 2024 will be on Sunday, September 15. The theme for this year is "Lord, when did we see you hungry?"

Catechetical Sunday is a day to honor and recognize the work of catechists and teachers who help spread the Gospel and teach the faith. It's also a time to reflect on the role of each person in passing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel.
