Prayer For Election Day

Dear Lord, so many are feeling anxious, worried and stressed today. We ask you to fill us with your peace and help our minds to be at rest. Help us to remember that no matter who becomes President, you are still on the throne and fully in control. We pray that honesty, fairness and truth will prevail. We ask that you would grant us your wisdom and fill us with your love, that we might overcome all that divides us. We humble ourselves before you as we pray, Lord and we ask you to heal our land and shed your grace and mercy on America once again. We ask these things in Jesus' name.

Amen

Today's Gospel Reflection Mark 1228b-34

Jesus is questioned by a scribe about the greatest commandment.

The question posed in today's Gospel requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional commandments, numbering into the hundreds. For a devout Jew, adherence to the Mosaic Law is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel.

Jesus was not the only Jewish religious teacher to connect these two commandments, love of God and love of neighbor. Both of these commandments were central elements of the religious tradition that Jesus learned from his Jewish community.

The scribe who questions Jesus in today's Gospel engages in a positive dialogue with Jesus. He agrees with Jesus' teaching that the commandments to love God and love neighbor stand above the commandment to offer worship and sacrifice in the Temple. With this dialogue, Jesus appears to close the debate with the Jewish authorities. Mark reports that no one dared to question Jesus further.
