HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

In Ernest Hemingway's short story "Capital of the World," a Spanish newspaper, El Liberal, carried a poignant story about a father and his son. It went like this.

A teen-aged boy, Paco, and his very wealthy father had a falling out, and the young man ran away from home. The father was crushed.

After a few days, he realized that the boy was serious, so the father set out to find him.

He searched high and low for five months to no avail.

Finally, in a last, desperate attempt to find his son, the father put an ad in a Madrid newspaper.

The ad read, "Dear Paco, Meet me at the Hotel Montana noon Tuesday. All is forgiven. I love you. Signed, Your Father.

On Tuesday, in the office of Hotel Montana, over 800 Pacos showed up, looking for love and forgiveness from their fathers. What a magnet that ad was! Over 800 Pacos!!

We all hunger for pardon. We are all "Pacos" yearning to run and find a father who will declare, "All is forgiven."

Father's Day reminds us that we need more loving, forgiving fathers.

What Makes a Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,

The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so,

He called it ... Dad
