"God will carry you in His arms. Do not fear what may happen tomorrow; the same understanding Father who cares for you today will take care of you then and every day. He will either shield you from suffering or will give you unflinching strength to bear it. Be at peace, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations."
—St. Francis de Sales

A Message from Your Pastor:

Dear brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ,

Praise the Lord.
Today we are celebrating the feasts of two great Apostles, Peter and Paul. They are gifts of God to the Church. Looking at their call we understand the marvelous work of God's grace in their life. Simon Peter who confessed to Jesus when He asked "who do you say that I am?" Peter replied saying "you are Christ, the Son of the living God". Here we see that Peter had the gift of seeing Jesus as He is, the Son of the living God. He is called to take the leadership to serve, to teach, and to offer his life for Christ. Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles says in his letter to the Galatians about his vocation. "God, who from my mother's womb had set me apart and called me through His grace, so that I might proclaim Him to the Gentiles". As a young man "Saul" was met by Jesus Christ during his journey to arrest the Christians. After his conversion he became the zealous preacher of the Word of God particularly among the Gentiles.
These two great saints are given to us by God. Their life is an example for us to realize that we are entrusted with the responsibility in the family and in the community to be God's messengers. We have been given the mission to preach God's word in our family and in society. May Saints Peter and Paul intercede for each of us to remain Christ's witnesses in our lives.

Happy feast of Saints Peter and Paul.

God bless you,

Fr. Amir

 There is a 2nd Collection NEXT week for Maintenance. Thank you for your generosity!

Thank you to everyone who have continued to contribute to the weekly offering!
