FAMILY CONNECTION: THE SIXTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Taken together, the parables found in today's Gospel offer both a sobering reminder about the Kingdom of God and words of encouragement. As the wheat and the weeds must grow together until the harvest, so we may not know whether our actions contribute to God's Kingdom until God's final judgment. With this word of caution in mind, we act always in prayer that our actions will be consistent with God's plans. In the parables of the mustard seed and the yeast, we hear words of encouragement. God can bring the Kingdom of Heaven from even the smallest of beginnings. Thus, we ask God to work through us for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Set aside some time this week to make bread with your family. Show the amount of yeast that is required to raise an entire batch of bread. Observe that little things can go a long way. After the bread has been baked, gather together as a family. Read together today's Gospel, Matthew 13:24-43. Reflect together on what Jesus means when he teaches that the Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed and like yeast. In these parables, Jesus is teaching us that even the little things that we do can make a big difference in the lives of others. What are some of the little things that we can do in our family that help to make things better for others? Decide on one action to take together. Pray that God will use your action to make a difference in the world. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

PRACTICING SMALL ACTS OF KINDNESS BY JAMES P. CAMPBELL, D.MIN.

Frederic Ozanam (1813–1853) was a Catholic layman in France. In 1832 an epidemic of cholera swept through Paris, killing up to 1,200 people each day. As Frederic walked through the poorer suburbs on his way to the university where he was a student, he was deeply moved at the hopeless state of families who had lost fathers and mothers. He and his six friends decided to see what they could do. They began by giving a widow the remainder of their winter wood supply.

Frederic and his friends continued their work, and soon they were helping the less-fortunate people of Paris in many ways. Some people scoffed and asked, "How can seven men make a difference?" But they did. Eventually they formed an association and called it the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. The society they began has today some 107,000 members in the United States and 1,000,000 worldwide in 130 countries, providing aid in the form of medical supplies, food for the poor, counseling and education programs, and other services.

As Christians, we are called to care for one another and for the world God created through small acts that are part of our daily lifestyle. We don't have to look very far to find where we're needed; if we pay attention, the opportunities are usually right under our noses, in our own families, schools, parishes, and neighborhoods. As Mother Teresa once said, "We can do no great things—only small things with great love."

SAINT OF THE WEEK: BRIDGET OF SWEDEN

From age 7 on, Bridget had visions of Christ crucified. Her visions formed the basis for her activity—always with the emphasis on charity rather than spiritual favors.

She lived her married life in the court of the Swedish king Magnus II. Mother of eight children—the second eldest was Saint Catherine of Sweden—Bridget lived the strict life of a penitent after her husband's death.

Bridget constantly strove to exert her good influence over Magnus; while never fully reforming, he did give her land and buildings to found a monastery for men and women. This group eventually expanded into an Order known as the Bridgetines.

In 1350, a year of jubilee, Bridget braved a plague-stricken Europe to make a pilgrimage to Rome. Although she never returned to Sweden, her years in Rome were far from happy, being hounded by debts and by opposition to her work against Church abuses.

A final pilgrimage to the Holy Land, marred by shipwreck and the death of her son, Charles, eventually led to her death in 1373.

Bridget was canonized in 1391 by Pope Boniface IX. In 1999, Bridget, Saints Catherine of Siena and Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, were named co-patronesses of Europe. Her feast day is July 23.

Venerable
Fr. Solanus Casey

Community Devotion to Venerable Solanus Casey

Many in our families and community are in need of prayers due to illness, poverty and other hardships. We ask all of our parishioners and guests to pray for Fr. Wade as he faces cancer treatments. You can pray for this intention and your own through the intercession of Fr. Solanus Casey by reciting the prayer found below. On behalf of Fr. Wade and your parish family, thank you for your prayers.

Prayer for the Beatification of Venerable Solanus Casey

Imprimatur: +Adam Cardinal Maida, Archbishop of Detroit. March 31, 2007 © F.S.G. 3/07

O God, I adore You. I give myself to You. May I be the person You want me to be, and may Your will be done in my life today. I thank You for the gifts You gave to Father Solanus. If it is Your Will, bless us with the beatification of Venerable Solanus so that others may imitate and carry on his love for all the poor and suffering of our world.

As he joyfully accepted Your divine plans, I ask You, according to Your Will, to hear my prayer for (your intention) through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

+Blessed be God in all His designs.

ST. FERDINAND VBS 2017: SONWEST ROUNDUP!

The St. Ferdinand campus was overrun with little people this past week. VBS 2017: SonWest Roundup was a great success. About 30 pre-k - 5th graders, 10 pre-teen and teen helpers, and several adult leaders enjoyed games, songs, crafts, and lots of learning about Moses, the Israelites, and Jesus!

This year's theme was the old west! Crafts included making your own cowboy hat, and even making your own horse! We got pretty good at line dancing, shouting "YEE-HAW"

On behalf of the staff at St. Ferdinand and Good Shepherd, we wish to extend our sincerest thanks to all of the volunteers, youth helpers, and parents who worked so hard to show our young people God's love this week! It was truly a special time to share God's word and fellowship with the youngest in our community!

Thank you for your support and prayers this week. We are very blessed to have a parish that is so supportive of ministry for young people.

PRAYER & FAITH RESOURCES

Pray with Pope Francis

Please consider Pope Francis' prayer intention for the month of July:

That our brothers and sisters who have strayed from the faith, through our prayer and witness to the Gospel, may rediscover the merciful closeness of the Lord and the beauty of the Christian life, we pray...

Por nuestros hermanos que se han alejado de la fe, para que, a través de nuestra oración y el testimonio evangélico, puedan redescubrir la cercanía del Señor misericordioso y la belleza de la vida cristiana, oremos...

Pray with Bishop Vasquez

Please consider Bishop Vásquez' prayer request for the 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time (June 23):

For the Church, that as disciples of Christ we would allow the tiny seed of faith to grow in us, so that God may plant further seeds in others through our faithfulness and service, we pray...

Por la Iglesia, para que, como discípulos de Cristo, permitamos que la pequeña semilla de la fe crezca en nosotros, de manera que Dios pueda plantar más semillas en otros a través de nuestra fidelidad y servicio, oremos...

GOSPEL MEDITATION: THE SIXTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

A parable is an interesting literary form that throws together or compares familiar events or items, while also providing a spiritual teaching. The parable of the grain and the weeds involves a concern about non-believers who are part of the early community of followers of Jesus. The disciples are restrained from removing them. How quick are we to try to root out someone we perceive as less perfect or less desirable than ourselves? Do we make room for God's greatness and counterintuitive ways?

Una parábola es una forma literaria interesante que junta o compara eventos o temas familiares, mientras que provee también de una enseñanza espiritual. La parábola de la semilla y la mala hierba aborda la preocupación sobre los que no creen que son parte de una comunidad temprana de seguidores de Jesús. A los discípulos se les prohíbe removerlos ¿Qué tan ansiosos estamos por remover a alguien a quien percibimos como menos perfectos o menos deseables que otros? ¿Hacemos espacio para la grandeza de Dios y sus maneras ajenas a la intuición?

MASS PREPARATION: JULY 30 ,2017 THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Kings 3:5,7-12

Solomon pleases God when he asks for a wise and understanding heart to better govern the people.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 119:57,72,76-77,127-130

The law of the Lord is more precious than silver and gold.

Second Reading: Romans 8:28-30

God chose us to be conformed to the image of his Son.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 13:44-52

Jesus teaches about the Kingdom of Heaven.

Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center

Upcoming retreats

The Starting Anew Retreat at Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center in Belton July 21-23 is a retreat for those who have gone through a divorce and had their dream of a lifelong marriage shattered. Cedarbrake staff Brian Egan and Beverly Collin will facilitate this retreat, which acknowledges the pain but also looks to build new dreams and restore hope for the future. The cost is $170 to $210 depending on occupancy. To register or for more information, call (254) 780-2436.

The Healing Journey Retreat will be held at Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center in Belton on Aug. 3 from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. This is a chance to come to a deeper understanding of forgiveness and to experience God's healing power. Beverly Collin, assistant director at Cedarbrake, along with The Mercy of God Prayer Team will present this retreat. Retreatants will learn that forgiveness is also about letting go of pain in order to heal. The cost is $40 and includes lunch. To register or for more information, call (254) 780-2436.
