FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICHARD

My dear brothers and sisters,

As I mentioned to you on the weekend of November 4-5, Bishop Vasquez has decided to consecrate the Diocese of Austin to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Bishop Vasquez states in his decree, "I consecrate and entrust the Diocese of Austin to the Maternal care of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and her Immaculate Heart, in order that we might be drawn more fully into union with her beloved Son, Jesus, and His Sacred Heart, and more perfectly submit to the will of God."

This consecration will take place on Sunday, December 10, the Second Sunday of Advent (including the Vigil Mass). This will be accomplished through the common prayer of all the parishioner throughout the Diocese. We at St. Ferdinand's and Good Shepherd will participate by praying the Prayer of Consecration after the homily.

May the Immaculate Heart of Mary help us grow closer to her Son!

With God's Blessing,

Fr. Richard Tijerina

from the Echoes of Faith Catechetical Formation Series will be offered on Sunday, January 7, 2018, 9:30-10:45 a.m. and 12:30-2:30 p.m in the Religious Education Building. The four segments of this module look at the lifelong cycle of human growth and development from these perspectives: building knowledge, relating to others, learning to live a moral life, and growing in faith. This is a foundational module upon which sound catechetical methods and strategies can be built. There will be no regularly scheduled classes this day so that catechists may have the opportunity to attend. Coffee and light refreshments will be on hand until 10:00 a.m. and again at 12:30. Certificates will be awarded for full participation.

SAINT OF THE WEEK: FRANCIS XAVIER

Jesus asked, "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" (Matthew 16:26a). The words were repeated to a young teacher of philosophy who had a highly promising career in academics, with success and a life of prestige and honor before him.

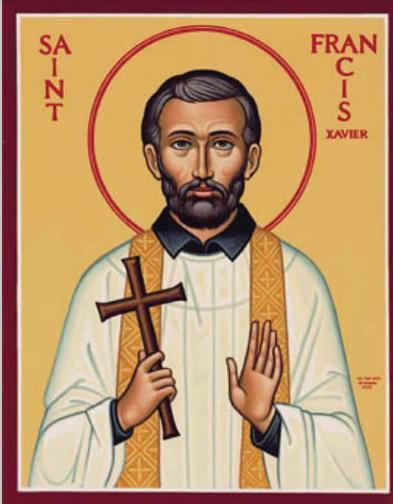

Francis Xavier, 24 at the time, and living and teaching in Paris, did not heed these words at once. They came from a good friend, Ignatius of Loyola, whose tireless persuasion finally won the young man to Christ. Francis then made the spiritual exercises under the direction of Ignatius, and in 1534, joined his little community, the infant Society of Jesus. Together at Montmartre they vowed poverty, chastity, obedience, and apostolic service according to the directions of the pope.

From Venice, where he was ordained a priest in 1537, Xavier went on to Lisbon and from there sailed to the East Indies, landing at Goa, on the west coast of India. For the next 10 years he labored to bring the faith to such widely scattered peoples as the Hindu, the Malayans, and the Japanese. He spent much of that time in India, and served as provincial of the newly established Jesuit province of India.

Wherever he went, Xavier lived with the poorest people, sharing their food and rough accommodations. He spent countless hours ministering to the sick and the poor, particularly to lepers. Very often he had no time to sleep or even to say his breviary but, as we know from his letters, he was filled always with joy.

Xavier went through the islands of Malaysia, then up to Japan. He learned enough Japanese to preach to simple folk, to instruct, and to baptize, and to establish missions for those who were to follow him. From Japan he had dreams of going to China, but this plan was never realized. Before reaching the mainland, he died. His remains are enshrined in the Church of Good Jesus in Goa. He and Saint Thérèse of Lisieux were declared co-patrons of the missions in 1925.

MEDITACIÓN: LAS OVEJAS Y LAS CABRAS

MEDITACIÓN

Tú y yo somos hombres y mujeres de fe que vivimos dentro de las normas de Occidente. Estamos irremediablemente (una frase muy descriptiva) orientados al futuro —tanto que a veces tenemos que asistir a conferencias que nos enseñan cómo estar presente en el momento. Corremos frenéticamente tras las perspectivas del futuro que cambian a la velocidad de la tecnología. Se botan lo de ayer, es olvidado, mientras vemos a un futuro que esperamos que haga a nuestras vidas mejores y más productivas.

Irónicamente, uno de nuestros problemas puede ser que no dormimos lo suficiente. Estamos despiertos demasiado, anticipando lo que podríamos extrañar. Esto a veces se conoce como el miedo a perderse. Nos mantiene en nuestras pantallas por temor a perder algo importante, que cambia la vida, que de otro modo nos pasaría de largo.

Nuestra cosmovisión cultural que está orientada al futuro hace que apreciar este pasaje del Evangelio sea un desafío. Necesitamos frenar, aprender a vivir en el presente y permitir que «la santa anticipación» entre en nuestras vidas. Este es el regalo de la temporada de Adviento. Escucharemos los Evangelios de anticipación y preparación que culminarán en la celebración de la Navidad. Esperar es bueno; la santa espera es mejor. El Adviento nos da permiso para esperar nuevamente, vivir en el presente y apreciar verdaderamente el regalo de la Navidad en el pesebre de Belén.

ORACIÓN

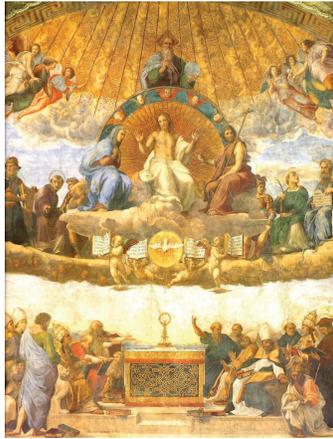

Esta sería una buena semana para orar con el rey David en el Salmo 57: 7-11. Recuerde que el llamado del Evangelio es estar listo, estar alerta y mantenerse despierto.

«Mi corazón está dispuesto, Dios mío, mi corazón está dispuesto a cantarte himnos. Despierta, alma mía; despierten, arpa y salterio; ¡despertaré al nuevo día! Te alabaré con himnos, Señor, en medio de pueblos y naciones. Pues tu amor es grande hasta los cielos; tu lealtad alcanza al cielo azul. Dios mío, tú estás por encima del cielo. ¡Tu gloria llena toda la tierra!»
