Free Will

Before man are life and death, . . . whichever he chooses shall be given him. (Sirach 15:17)

Free will. It's God's greatest gift to us, and it's also our riskiest characteristic. Free will has enabled us to decide for ourselves what kind of people we will be. It has enabled us to create music and art, to build cities and roads, to marry and have children. It has also enabled us to destroy instead of create, to hurt and betray instead of heal and build up. Most important, it's through our free will that we decide whether to follow Jesus or our own thoughts and desires.

Sirach seems keenly aware of how much of a two-edged sword our free will can be. Each of us, he says, is free to choose between "fire and water, . . . life and death, good and evil" (Sirach 15:16, 17). And God will respect whatever we choose.

Of course, our heavenly Father longs for us to choose life in him, but he will never force himself on us. He is not like the petty gods dreamed up by the pagans, who use threats and manipulation to keep their people in line.

God also knows that free will has consequences. And so Sirach teaches, "Whichever he chooses shall be given him" (Sirach 15:17). While God honors our choices, he also respects the results those choices bring.

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us a real-life illustration: "Whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment" (Matthew 5:22). If you choose to nurture anger, resentment, and condemnation, don't be surprised if other people begin treating you in the same way. But if you build an environment of trust and respect, that's what you will receive.

So choose life today. Use this awesome gift of your free will to choose gentleness, patience, and all the other fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23). Above all, choose Jesus. Welcome him into your life, and let his love soften your heart. It's the best choice you could ever make.

"Jesus, help me to choose you in every situation today."

Libre Albedrio

Antes del hombre hay vida y muerte, . . . lo que elija se le dará. (Sirach 15:17)

Libre albedrio. Es el mayor regalo de Dios para nosotros, y también es nuestra característica más arriesgante. El libre albedrio nos ha permitido decidir por nosotros mismos qué tipo de personas seremos. Nos ha permitido crear música y arte, construir ciudades y caminos, casarnos y tener hijos. También nos ha permitido destruir en lugar de crear, herir y traicionar en lugar de sanar y edificar. Lo más importante, es a través de nuestro libre albedrio que decidimos si seguir a Jesús o nuestros propios pensamientos y deseos.

Sirach parece muy consciente de lo bien que puede ser una espada de dos filos. Cada uno de nosotros, dice, es libre de elegir entre "fuego y agua, . . . vida y muerte, el bien y el mal" (Sirach 15:16, 17). Y Dios respetará lo que elijamos.

Por supuesto, nuestro Padre celestial anhela que escojamos la vida en él, pero nunca se forzará a nosotros. Él no es como los pequeños dioses sonadores por los paganos, que usan amenazas y manipulación para mantener a su gente en línea.

Dios sabe que el libre albedrio tiene consecuencias. Y así enseña Sirach: "Lo que elija se le dará" (Sirach 15:17). Si bien Dios honra nuestras decisiones, también respeta los resultados que esas decisiones traen.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos da una ilustración de la vida real: "Quien esté enojado con su hermano será susceptible de juicio" (Matthew 5:22). Si decides nutrir la ira, el resentimiento y la condena, no te sorprendas si otras personas comienzan a tratarte de la misma manera. Pero si construyes un ambiente de confianza y respeto, eso es lo que recibirás.

Así que elige la vida hoy. Usa este increíble don de tu libre albedrio para elegir la dulzura, la paciencia y todos los demás frutos del Espíritu (Gálatians 5:22-23). Sobre todo, elige a Jesús. Dale la bienvenida a tu vida, y deja que su amor ablande tu corazón. Es la mejor elección que podrías tomar.

"Jesús, ayúdame a elegirte en cada situación de hoy."

BEST LENT EVER®

Lent comes every year. It's meant to be a time when we invite God to help us become the-best-version-of-ourselves. But for many of us, Lent isn't a transformative experience. It's just a time when we give up chocolate or something else we enjoy, then go back to it at Easter.

This year, you can change that with BEST LENT EVER. You'll receive daily emails with short inspirational videos, practical tips for your everyday life, and real-life stories to encourage you in your journey. All you have to do is sign up at DynamicCatholic.com/Best-Lent-Ever. Information will be available beginning Ash Wednesday, February 26th.

Dear Fr. Brion Zarsky and parishioners of St. Ferdinand,

Thank you for being the hands and feet of Jesus Christ and living with the love of God in your hearts. May you be blessed now and always.

Yours in Christ, Leeanna Holmes, Development Officer
