Pope Leo XIV - "A Lion for the Church", Part II

(based on the book by the same name)

Two years after ordination, in 1984, Fr. Prevost received his license in Canon Law from the prestigious Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas in Rome. Soon after, he was sent on mission to Chulucanas, Peru in 1985. In this rural community, Fr. Robert not only used his law degree to help the local tribunal, but had to wear many hats to meet the needs of the community. The blending of high-level training with grassroots pastoral work instilled in him a lifelong habit: to approach governance and rules with a pastor's heart. He had become a priest-scholar with a missionary heart, equally at home discussing canon law in Latin or catechizing villagers in Spanish.

Bishop Daniel Turley Murphy, OSA - Bishop of Chulucanas, Peru often said that Fr. Robert "has the smell of the sheep", complementing his devotion and involvement with the people he shepherd.

The future Pope Leo XIV was very much a shepherd for over a decade in Peru before being called back to the United States in 1999. He was elected as Prior Provincial, a supervisor role for his local order, in Chicago while still keeping his strong ties with the missions in Peru. By 2001, he was elected as Prior General of the worldwide Augustinian Order and was the first American to lead the Augustinians worldwide. He served as this global leader for 2 six year terms.

On September 26, 2015, Fr. Prevost was confirmed by Pope Francis as Bishop of Chiclayo. From the outset, he gained a reputation as a "people's bishop" - opting for a modest residence and that made him known as being very accessible.

"Above all, a bishop must proclaim Jesus Christ and live the faith so that the faithful see in his witness an incentive to them to want to be an ever more active part of the Church." - Pope Leo XIV

During his episcopate, Bishop Prevost was very active within his diocese. In March 2017, disastrous floods struck his diocese and the bishop sprang into action. He toured the worst-affected barrios - launching a diocesan recovery campaign, "Peru da la mano" to support rebuilding homes. He was quoted as saying, "the people's resilience and faith amid the mudslides humbled me."

By 2023, being called to Rome, Chiclayo's barrios had felt the touch of their "Padre Obispo". His overnight visits to rural and outskirts of Chiclayo villages left an imprint upon his flock. He and his clergy were known to camp out in different deaneries, holding open-air masses and lodging with local families.

"People have to, in some way, be led or invited into an experience where they can rediscover what it means to have faith, what it means to have a relationship with Jesus Christ, what it means to recognize that God is indeed a part of our lives."

- Pope Leo XIV

On September 30, 2023, Bishop Robert Prevost joined the College of Cardinals. As a cardinal, he was often described as a man of deep pastoral commitment and warm personality beneath a soft-spoken exterior. He was a firm supporter of Pope Francis' social justice agenda and a voice of common sense for the Church's outreach to the poor.

On May 8, 2025, Cardinal Robert Francis Prevost was elected as the next successor of St. Peter - taking on the name Leo XIV.

De el Diácono, Ramiro Garza

Papa León XIV - "Un León para la Iglesia", Parte II (basado en el libro del mismo nombre)

Dos años después de su ordenación, en 1984, el P. Prevost obtuvo su licenciatura en Derecho Canónico en la prestigiosa Pontificia Universidad de Santo Tomás de Aquino en Roma. Poco después, fue enviado en misión a Chulucanas, Perú, en 1985. En esta comunidad rural, el P. Robert no solo utilizó su título en derecho para ayudar al tribunal local, sino que tuvo que desempeñar múltiples roles para atender las necesidades de la comunidad. La combinación de formación académica de alto nivel con trabajo pastoral de base le inculcó un hábito de por vida: abordar el gobierno y las normas con el corazón de un pastor. Se había convertido en un sacerdote erudito con corazón misionero, igualmente cómodo discutiendo derecho canónico en latín o catequizando a los aldeanos en español.

Monseñor Daniel Turley Murphy, OSA —obispo de Chulucanas, Perú— solía decir que el P. Robert "tiene olor a oveja", en alusión a su devoción e implicación con el pueblo al que pastoreaba.

El futuro Papa León XIV fue, de hecho, un pastor durante más de una década en Perú antes de ser llamado de regreso a Estados Unidos en 1999. Fue elegido Prior Provincial, un rol de supervisión de su orden local, en Chicago, manteniendo al mismo tiempo fuertes vínculos con las misiones en Perú. Para 2001, fue elegido Prior General de la Orden de San Agustín a nivel mundial, siendo el primer estadounidense en liderar a los agustinos a nivel global. Ocupó este cargo por dos mandatos de seis años cada uno.

El 26 de septiembre de 2015, el P. Prevost fue confirmado por el Papa Francisco como obispo de Chiclayo. Desde el inicio, ganó reputación como un "obispo del pueblo" —optando por una residencia modesta, lo que lo hizo muy accesible.

"Ante todo, un obispo debe proclamar a Jesucristo y vivir la fe de manera que los fieles vean en su testimonio un incentivo para querer ser parte cada vez más activa de la Iglesia."
— Papa León XIV

Durante su episcopado, el obispo Prevost fue muy activo dentro de su diócesis. En marzo de 2017, inundaciones desastrosas azotaron su diócesis y el obispo actuó de inmediato. Recorrió los barrios más afectados —lanzando una campaña diocesana de recuperación, "Perú da la mano", para apoyar la reconstrucción de viviendas. Fue citado diciendo: "La resiliencia y la fe del pueblo en medio de los huaicos me conmovieron profundamente."

Para el año 2023, al ser llamado a Roma, los barrios de Chiclayo ya habían sentido la presencia de su "Padre Obispo". Sus visitas nocturnas a las zonas rurales y periféricas de Chiclayo dejaron una huella en su rebaño. Él y su clero eran conocidos por acampar en distintos decanatos, celebrar misas al aire libre y alojarse con familias locales.

"La gente tiene que ser guiada o invitada, de alguna manera, a una experiencia donde puedan redescubrir qué significa tener fe, qué significa tener una relación con Jesucristo, qué significa reconocer que Dios realmente es parte de nuestras vidas."
— Papa León XIV

El 30 de septiembre de 2023, Monseñor Robert Prevost se unió al Colegio de Cardenales. Como cardenal, era frecuentemente descrito como un hombre de profundo compromiso pastoral y de cálida personalidad, bajo un exterior sereno. Fue un firme defensor de la agenda de justicia social del Papa Francisco y una voz de sentido común en el alcance de la Iglesia hacia los pobres.

El 8 de mayo de 2025, el Cardenal Robert Francis Prevost fue elegido como el siguiente sucesor de San Pedro, tomando el nombre de León XIV.

GOSPEL

God the Father sent the Holy Spirit to take the place of Jesus on earth. When you are at home, in school, or in church, the Holy Spirit helps you learn new words and new skills. He helps you in your studying and praying. The Spirit helps you remember things from last week and last year. The Spirit helps you use this knowledge to lead you to heaven.

PRAYER

Father, I am thankful for the Holy Spirit who helps me learn new things.

Dear Jesus, Divine Physician and Healer of the sick, we turn to you in this time of illness. O dearest comforter of the troubled, alleviate our worry and sorrow with your gentle love, and grant us the grace and strength to accept this burden. Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servant to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen.
