Episode One: The Poor Peasant

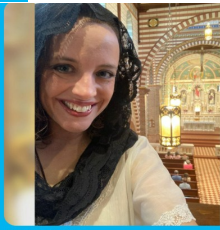

VINCENT DE PAUL
The Poor Peasant

Southwestern France, 1594. For the peasant farmers of rural France, life is a backbreaking grind of endless work, little food and poor health, made worse by oppressive taxes, expensive wars and the threat of Muslim pirates from North Africa, who enslave the Catholic inhabitants of coastal towns. On his poor family's small plot of land, a young man dreams of a way out of his miserable existence. This is the story of Vincent de Paul.

In our divided society, disagreements on cultural issues often trap us in hostile camps, tempting us to disregard and disrespect, rather than listen to each other with reverence. What if we could reclaim the combative debate world, and return to a dignified approach of addressing important topics to be discussed in the public square? What are the principles to consider as we grapple with the quickly shifting landscape of technology? Echo Community, in partnership with Our Lady of the Lake, is offering an exciting, informative, and charitable night of debate on the premise: "AI Does Not Belong in Catholic Education & Formation." Join us for a thoughtful dash on how artificial intelligence intersects with Catholic faith.
