FIAT FRIENDS

A Catholic Book Study for Mothers and Mothers-to-be

You are invited to journey with us as we strive to understand, embrace, and live our vocation of motherhood.

Decades before Vatican II called for the sanctification of the laity, St. Elizabeth of the Trinity prophetically claimed that holiness is not exclusively the domain of priests and nuns but is truly for everyone, even you!

In this tender yet powerful book, author Claire Dwyer takes you on a spiritual journey with this little-known but fast-ascending saint.

The purpose of your life is not something to discover in the remote future. You can begin to live your ultimate end union with the Trinity right now in the secret center of your heart, where the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit already dwell. St. Elizabeth of the Trinity has revealed the way.

Read this book, and you will see with new eyes that your eternal destiny is already living within you, in this present paradise.

Join us as we learn about God's wonderful plan for the vocation of Catholic Motherhood.

Dates: Tuesdays: January 13 through May 12, 2026.

Time: 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Place: The Upper Room at St. Peter Parish, 318 S. Jefferson Avenue, Covington.

Please register by filling out the form below and returning it to St. Peter Catholic Church Rectory with payment of $20, made payable to St. Peter Catholic Church. Fee includes the book, which can be picked up at the rectory. Scholarships are available.

Some Good Things to Know...

- When I reach my destination, is there someone there to meet me?

Upon arrival at your trip destination, obtain luggage and exit the baggage area. Outside the baggage claim doors, a representative will greet you with a Proximo Travel sign. If your flight is delayed or you cannot locate the Proximo Travel representative, please contact your tour guide at the number provided in your final packet before proceeding.

- When will I meet up with the group?

We have people traveling with us from all of the USA and Canada. Here at Proximo Travel, LLC we try to have the group meet in the USA the day of their departure before the flight to their final destination. However, this is not always possible. Therefore, you will meet your entire group upon arrival to your trip destination.

- What happens if I cancel my trip?

Proximo Travel, LLC has teamed up with Travel Guard to provide our passengers with trip cancellation insurance. They offer a variety of policies to choose from. Please visit our website, www.proximotravel.com to find a link to purchase Travel Guard or to get more information about the services they offer.

- Be at the airport at least 3 hours before departure.

This applies only to the airport of origination, not necessarily to the airport of connection. For example, if you're flying from Pittsburgh to Paris then from Paris to Rome, you need to be at the airport in Pittsburgh 3 hours before departure. Not necessarily in Paris where your connection time might be less than 3 hours.

THE MONTHLY PRAYER REQUESTS FOR PRIESTS

WOULD YOU PRAY FOR A PRIEST EACH DAY?

PRAYER SUGGESTION

O Jesus, Eternal High Priest, live in (name a priest), act in him, speak in and through him. Think your thoughts in his mind, love through his heart. Give him your own dispositions and feelings.

Teach, lead and guide him always.

Correct, enlighten and expand his thoughts and behavior. Possess his soul; take over his entire personality and life.

Replace him with yourself. Incline him to constant adoration and thanksgiving; pray in and through him. Let him live in you and keep him in this intimate union always. O Mary, Immaculate Conception, Mother of Jesus and Mother of priests, pray and intercede for (...)

Amen.

Transitional Diaconate Ordination Saturday

This Saturday, Dec. 13 at 10 a.m. four seminarians will be ordained as transitional deacons during a Mass celebrated by Archbishop Gregory Aymond at the St. Louis Cathedral. Please continue to pray for Brett Barrios, Joseph Ky Thanh Bui, William Sigi and James Vu as well as Allan Musosi Temberi for the Archdiocese of Toronto as they prepare for ordination. All are welcome to attend the Mass.

MEET THE DEACONS Brett Barrios

I had been working in the service industry for about 15 years. I really enjoyed talking to people and making new friends through the years. Several years with lots of hard work. After 15 years in management operations, I felt a longing for something else. After feeling this way for a while, I knew what I wanted to do. I wanted to serve people, but from a deeper relationship with Christ. I decided to leave the restaurant life behind me and start a new journey as a seminarian to explore the possibilities of serving people. And when Jesus heard it, He said to them, "These who are with me will have no need of a physician, but those who are sick I will come and call them to me." Mark 3:27

MEET THE DEACONS Joseph Bui

My discernment to the priesthood has been a gradual and silent journey. During my time in high school, I felt a calling in my heart that God wanted me to follow Him. When I came to the USA to pursue my Master's degree in Educational Administration, I felt dissatisfied with my career path as a teacher, and I struggled with my own life. I prayed for clarity and eventually I heard God's call which gave me peace and happiness. Since then I have wanted to go to my own work, but the Lord leads me and guides me on this path. To be honest, this was not easy. I have fallen, but the Lord has raised me up and has been patient with me. Finally I said, "Yes" to the Lord and, "Here I am with you, Lord!"

MEET THE DEACONS William Sigi

I have had the call to consider priesthood since I was 17 while attending Archbishop Rummel High School, but as we all know, life happens. One thing I do know is that God is patient as well as persistent, so at the age of 54, after being accepted as a seminarian for the Archdiocese of New Orleans, I happily gave up my employee and individual benefits insurance practice of 20 years to do the will of the Father.

MEET THE DEACONS James Vu

"I did not want to be a priest until the summer before my senior year of high school. I imagined myself standing in the priest's shoes and from there on, the signs kept coming. I received secondary right out of high school. I spent four years at St. Joseph Seminary College in Covington where I graduated and then went to Notre Dame Seminary. After spending two years there, I decided to stay away from formation for a little bit. During this time, I worked as a teacher and also as the Administrative Assistant for the Archdiocese of New Orleans Office of Worship. It was during this time that I grew deeper in knowledge of myself and my relationship with God. Now that I am back, I look forward to deepening my vocation."

Catholic Mass Etiquette

A few weeks ago, during Mass, the people in the pew behind me would not stop talking. They chatted away throughout the whole celebration. Needless to say, it was driving me crazy. I was getting more and more aggravated mostly because I was struggling to keep my own children quiet and they were setting a horrible example. I was just about to say something (possibly in an angry tone) when I came to the realization that they weren't Catholic. Not that it should be an excuse, but it is entirely possible that they just did not know the proper etiquette for Mass. How would they know if they had never been to a Catholic Mass before?

As Catholics, we joyfully welcome people of all faiths and backgrounds to attend our liturgy and participate in our worship, but there are a few guidelines that might be helpful for a visitor to be conscious of. These guidelines are intended to help you understand how to best respect the sacredness of the Catholic Mass and respect the beliefs of others.
