A LA DOUCE MEMOIRE DE

P.O. Joseph Zenon Giroux

Né le 12 octobre, 1924
Mort à Cologne
le 19 juillet, 1944

O mort tu nous sépares, et tu
arraches l'un à l'autre ceux qui vi-vaient unis dans l'amour. Ne pleurez pas, je vais à Dieu, je vais vous attendre au ciel: la famille s'y reformera et les larmes seront séchées.
Pitié miséricordieux Jésus pour
notre cher fils que nous pleurons!
Nous l'avons aimé, ne l'oublions pas! Seigneur, doux Jésus, don-nez-lui, le repos éternel.
Une communion; une prière. s'il
vous plait.

PRIVATE FELIX EDWARD MATTE
 Among those reported missing in the assault against German-held Dieppe was Pte. Felix Edward Matte, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Matte, 1015 Cadillac street.

Born in Dover Township, Private Matte came to Windsor with his family and received his education in East Windsor schools. He gave up his employment in September, 1940, to join the reinforcements of the Essex Scottish Regiment.

He arrived in England in October, 1941, and was shortly afterward posted to the regiment.

Private Matte was unmarried. He has three brothers and three sisters. His last letter was received in May and indicated that he was training hard.
