Prayer Before Mass

Come Holy Spirit and quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass. I am saint and sinner. Open my ears to Your words. Open my mouth in prayer and song. Open my eyes to see your mystery in symbol and sign. Open my heart in love for You and my neighbor. Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from prayer. Strengthen me to take the Mass into my life this week. Amen.

Notes from Fr. Joe Wormek

Well we have actually entered the season of Spring. It is a season of new life and hopefully we are seeing signs of renewed life, or new life in our relationship with the Lord from this Lenten Journey. How are things going for your Lenten Season? Did you choose to do the best activity for yourself, or did you miss the mark? Well, today is the half-way point of the Lenten Season. There is time to improve or to tweak your commitment.

Today's special work in the Gospel is the gift of SIGHT. It is such a beautiful gift. We can certainly take it for granted in our lives. One of the common temptations that we can experience, comes from how we see things and how we can judge others. Many times, things appears to be a certain way, but after further investigation it was not what it seemed to be at all. If this is a tendency you experience in your life, then this week we may want to try to focus on refraining from passing false judgment on others. We must remember God is the only judge, because He sees and knows all things.

Thanks for all you do!!!

Your Pastor,

Fr. Joe Wormek

Steward Reflection

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart." 1 SAMUEL 16:7

How often do we invest our time, talent and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talents and treasure here on earth.

Christ's Renewed Engaged Warriors

The next gathering for our high school faith sharing group will be on Monday, March 27th from 6pm to 8pm. We are going to look at the book, "The Shack" and explore clips from the movie. If any of our teens are familiar with either, we invite you to come to this gathering and share what you have taken away from the story. As always, there will be dinner provided.

RCIA Testimonies

My name is Lindsey Martin. I grew up in the Arnold/Imperial area. I moved to Washington, MO in 2014. I am engaged to Joe Brahan and we are planning a May wedding. Joe and I have a daughter who is 20 months old. Lola has brought so many joys to our busy lives! I work as a Customer Service supervisor at STL Medical Supply in Fenton, MO. When I am not working, I enjoy spending time with Joe and Lola! Joe was raised Catholic and I was raised Presbyterian. After we were engaged and had Lola, we decided that she would be raised Catholic and that I would convert for a full Catholic wedding and so our family can be involved with the local church! The RCIA program has brought my family closer to God and has taught me more about the Catholic faith. I look forward to meeting and getting to know more of the Borgia parishioners.

My sponsors name is Kathleen Marquart.

My name is Melonie Nance. I grew up in the Washington area. My husband Dennis & I have been married for 44 years. We have 1 daughter, Jaime and her husband Scott Obermark and 2 sons, Daniel Nance & Eric Nance & his wife Angela. We've been blessed with 5 grandchildren & a sixth due in June . They are Josie, Ryker & Reid Obermark. Emmy Nance & Liam Nance. I am retired & enjoy watching my grandchildren & spending time at our vacation home in Branson. I grew up going to the Methodist church. My husband is Catholic & all of our children were baptized Catholic. With the encouragement from my family & friends & my desire to learn more about the Catholic faith, I decided to go through the RCIA program. I feel like it has brought me closer to my family & to God. Cannot wait for my Baptism, Confirmation & First Communion into the church. My sponsors name is Scott Obermark

My name is Paula Pedrotti, and with the exception of a few years I have been a lifelong resident of Franklin county. I graduated from Pacific High School in 1993 and went on to graduate from Jefferson College and then the University of Missouri Saint Louis in 2005. I began working in public safety in 2005 as a 911 operator and have continued to work in that field since that time. My mother raised myself and my brother in the Baptist tradition but even though I had strong faith I did not feel passionately about being a Protestant. When I was introduced to the Catholic faith, I felt as though my soul had found its home. The first time I walked into the Church I felt as though my soul was filled with peace and I knew then that this was where I belonged. Because of my work schedule I had a difficult time completing RCIA classes and have finally, after many years of yearning, completing them despite my 40-70 hour per week work schedule. I very much enjoy listening to EWTN on my long commute to and from work. I am so thankful for the RCIA program and St. Francis Borgia Parish as they have all worked so hard to help me on my journey despite my complex work schedule. My sponsors name is Jane Maune

- The Roman Catholic Foundation is legally separate from the Archdiocese of St. Louis, with an independent, all-Catholic Board of Trustees providing oversight to Foundation staff.
- Rubin Brown LLP audits the Foundation annually, including testing of Beyond Sunday pledge and payment processing. Please view our audited financials at: rcfstl.org/about-the-rcf/financial-statements/.
- The Internal Audit department of the Archdiocese of St. Louis evaluates and works to improve the risk management, accounting controls, and governance processes and practices of the Archdiocese, auditing 20-30 parishes per year.
- Each parish's 40% parish share is deposited into a separate Beyond Sunday account with the St. Louis Archdiocesan Fund (SLAF).
