Prayer Before Mass

Come Holy Spirit and quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass. I am saint and sinner. Open my ears to Your words. Open my mouth in prayer and song. Open my eyes to see Your mystery in symbol and sign. Open my heart in love for You and my neighbor. Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from prayer. Strengthen me to take the Mass into my life this week. Amen.

Notes from Fr. Joe Wormek

As we celebrate this week our country's independence, we also celebrate the religious freedom that we live with in this country. We see continually the struggle of our constitution and laws about the separation of Church and state. The religious freedom which we so enjoy is something we so often take for granted. We have been truly blessed, and we should never take this for granted in our lives and in our country. Let us say an extra prayer this week in thanksgiving for the freedoms which we enjoy especially our religious freedom. God bless America!

Thanks for all that you do for the mission of Jesus Christ here at St. Francis Borgia!!!

I am leaving today (Sunday) on vacation and I will be back on Tuesday, July 9. I get to visit the Holy Land of golf!

UnBound

I have extended an invitation to Rev. Richard Tillman to come to our parish on the weekend of July 7 & 8, 2018. Father Tillman will speak to you about the work being done by Unbound (previously known as CFCA), and how this provides a trustworthy way to actively participate in the social outreach of the Catholic Church and answer the Gospel call to serve the poor.

Founded by lay Catholics, Unbound is an organization that has served more than 600,000 children, youth and elderly in 18 developing countries since 1981 - empowering them to make more choices in their lives, live with dignity and reach their potential.

Unbound's unique sponsorship program is highly personalized. It matches a child, youth or aging person at a project overseas with a sponsor in the U.S. who cares about and encourages that person. With a monthly contribution, a sponsor helps to provide much-needed nourishing food, medical and dental care, the chance for a child to go to school, livelihood programs for families and much more. All of these efforts are directed at affirming the dignity of every person in their local community.

Please join me in welcoming Father Tillman to our parish.

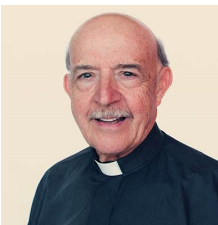

Sincerely yours in Jesus Christ,

REV. RICHARD TILLMAN

"Believing is seeing and refers to the ability of the audience to relate the scriptures to their own lives and the lives of the poor in order to become true disciples of Christ in action."

Father Richard Tillman, a priest of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, served as pastor in the inner city, suburbs and rural parishes. His social work background empowered him to work with diverse communities. He coordinated the Campaign for Human Development of the Archdiocese of St. Louis with the government war on poverty program. Additionally, he continuously advocates in protecting the rights and dignity of immigrants.

Stewardship Reflection

"...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality." 2 CORINTHIANS 8:14

We are responsible not only for our own lives, but for the lives of those around us. It is important that we not only grow, nurture and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the "Body of Christ". We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

Who's More Generous?

Does the Christian duty to help the poor seem to be overwhelming? We hear more and more are out of work, more and more are homeless, and we see more and more pictures of starving children. Even in St. Paul's time there was more than enough poverty to go around. He was trying to build interest (in our second reading) in a project to help the Christians in Jerusalem. We see two of his reasons here.

First he tells what fine Christians they are, and hopes that they will be just as good in giving to his collection. (Reminds me of letters from the bishop, telling parishioners how good and generous they have been in the past.) But Paul isn't just flattering the Corinthians; he is challenging them to continue to show their love for God in their support for fellow Christians. The second reason was to show a good example: By helping the church in Jerusalem, they would show that Christians were united in faith and love for each other. He also doesn't make a competition out of who could be most generous. He expects them to be more interested in love for each other than in outdoing each other.

The main example he uses is Jesus, who made himself poor (i.e., human) so that we could be rich in grace and forgiveness. Paul challenges them, and us, to follow that example in giving from our wealth so that others can survive. Note that he doesn't expect them to live in poverty, just to share what they have out of love for Christ. Perhaps they may need help themselves sometime, and could count on the other church to do the same for them.

Today, we can ask ourselves, "Do I give to the poor because I feel guilty about all that I have? Or do I want to show my love for Jesus when I see him in the poor? Do I give because I want the parish to look more generous than the neighboring parish, or to show that we are all united in concern for each other?" By looking at why we give to charities, we may find ourselves being even more generous than we expected.

SFB Library Book Review

Book: The Everlasting Man

By: G.K. Chesterton

Considered by many to be Chesterton's greatest masterpiece of all his writings, this is his whole view of world history as informed by the Incarnation. Beginning with the origin of man and the various religious attitudes throughout history, Chesterton shows how the fulfillment of all of man's desire takes place in the person of Christ and in Christ's Church.

The St. Francis Borgia Parish Library is located on the street level entrance of Jesuit Hall. We have so many wonderful books to assist you on your Faith Journey. Check it out!

Bible Study—Jeff Cavin's Great Adventure

If you wish you had a deeper understanding and appreciation of the Bible, join Donna Kay Brown and Kevin Kenney in studying Jeff Cavin's Great Adventure series. The first course is The Bible Timeline, The Story of Salvation. Read 14 narrative books from Genesis through Acts and discover the amazing story woven throughout Scripture. Learn how the key people, places and events in the Bible fit together to reveal God's plan for humanity. Study the Bible from a Catholic perspective and see how our faith is rooted in Sacred Scripture. See how the events in the Old Testament are fulfilled in the New Testament by Christ and the Church. Gain a greater appreciation of the Scripture readings you hear during Mass. See how God reveals himself to us through Scripture and learn how God's Word applies to your life today. Develop a lifelong hunger for knowing God in his word and lay a strong foundation for further Bible reading and study.

We hope to form a permanent Bible study group and make our way through all of the courses in the series or other courses as desired. We guarantee you that Jeff Cavin takes a complex subject and makes it simple, enlightening and entertaining.

Those who are interested may call Kevin (314-623-4555) and give him your contact information. We will all gather as soon as possible and decide on dates/times for our study which we plan to begin in late August.
