Prayer Before Mass

Come Holy Spirit and quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass. I am saint and sinner. Open my ears to Your words. Open my mouth in prayer and song. Open my eyes to see Your mystery in symbol and sign. Open my heart in love for You and my neighbor. Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from prayer. Strengthen me to take the Mass into my life this week. Amen.

Notes from Fr. Joe Wormek

This past Saturday and Sunday, I read Archbishop Carlson's letter of his response to the Grand Jury finding in several dioceses in Pennsylvania. I gave some reflections about the letter at the 11:00 am Mass and I thought that I would share them with you.

I believe one instance of Catholic Clergy abuse is one too many. One of the great virtues of Jesus is compassion. We need to show great compassion to anyone who has ever been abused. We do not judge them. They feel bad enough and sometimes they question themselves as to what did they do to have this happen to them or even they go as far as thinking and feeling that it was their fault. It can be children, teens or even adults who have suffered abuse in their lives. We need to love them and support them with compassion as we walk with them on their journey of life. The Book of Genesis reminds us God has created them in His image and likeness. This is not an experience which one can just get over, it is something that they carry with them the rest of their lives. We need to pray with them and for them. We need to show the ultimate compassion and love of Jesus when we are with them or even if we are in a conversation about them. As Jesus says we need to love them.

Thank you all,

Fr. Joe Wormek

Stewardship Reflection

"If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve…As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." JOSHUA 24:15

When we commit to serve the Lord, we must be willing to become a partner in the work of the Lord. A partner is a person who invests time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports the parish and Church mission. If we say we serve God, we must actually do something and not merely talk about it!

Why does the Church often refer to tithing as "giving back"?

Throughout sacred scripture God tells us that everything belongs to God. He made the world and all that is in it. He made us and blessed us with absolutely every gift we have. Our lives, our families, our health, our education, our unique talents and skills, our job and our income are all blessings from God, entrusted into our care for the good of all people. Thus, when we tithe we are really only giving back 10% of something that ultimately belongs to God anyway. The amazing thing is that our God is a generous and abundant God who lets us keep and enjoy 90% of all His blessings.

"The Lord's are the earth and its fullness: the world and those who dwell in it." -Psalm 24:1

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – We Will Serve the Lord

How rich the readings are today! The First Reading offers every family and household a guide for fullness of life, namely, serving the Lord. Remembering the wonderful things the Lord has done for us in our own lives provides the fuel we need to make a return to the Lord in service (cf. Psalm 116). It is a helpful exercise to take time each day to be grateful and call to mind all the gifts God has given to us, and these gifts include even suffering for the sake of others. Finally, Simon Peter's question in the Gospel is striking and is a great reminder for us that only Jesus Christ has the words of eternal life. There is no one else to whom we can go for the fullness of life we desire deep within our hearts. This week, let us resolve to constantly call to mind all that God has done for us, express our gratitude to Him through acts of service and charity, and stay rooted in His infinite goodness that propels us to the fullness of life. archstl.org/dynamic

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS
OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

Statement from Archbishop Carlson Regarding Recent Sexual Abuse Findings

ST. LOUIS – Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson, Archbishop of St. Louis, released the following statement regarding the recent sexual abuse findings:

The recent allegations of sexual abuse of children and vulnerable adults by Catholic clergy as revealed by a grand jury investigation in Pennsylvania are extremely disturbing. Priests are called to be spiritual fathers to their people, and bishops are called to be shepherds of their flock, to protect the people in their care. We know that in many cases that has not happened. The trust of the faithful has been violated.

We must act on behalf of the victims of this abuse in order to bring to them the love, healing, and light of Christ.

Our own Archdiocese of St. Louis has not escaped the scourge of clergy sexual abuse over the past few decades. Since 2002, the archdiocese has renewed its efforts and made every attempt to protect those who cannot protect themselves and to ensure that the light of Christ is present everywhere—especially where children or vulnerable people are present.

I pledge my continued commitment to the protection of children and young people. Our archdiocesan policy regarding the protection of children is stringent, thorough, and includes multiple points of accountability. All clergy, seminarians, employees, and volunteers whose service in the Church brings them into contact with children must have a regular background check. Since 2002, over 100,000 adults who are employed by or volunteer in our parishes and institutions have participated in the professionally developed program, "Protecting God's Children." The program equips those who serve the Church to foster a safe environment for our children and vulnerable adults.

In the fall of 2017, a former member of the FBI conducted a complete review of our child protection and Review Board policies and procedures. Our program was judged to be thorough and comprehensive.

Established in 2002, the Archdiocesan Review Board currently consists of a majority of lay members not employed by the archdiocese who review every allegation of clergy sexual abuse and provide me with advice concerning allegations. I have always followed the advice of this board. The board includes lay members with backgrounds in law enforcement, medical ethics, psychology, psychiatry, and a medical doctor whose expertise is in the diagnosis and treatment of juvenile sexual abuse.

Our seminary's admission process involves a thorough psychological evaluation, which includes detailed knowledge of the man's mental and psychological health. The seminary has two full-time lay psychologists to assist in human development, and each man meets regularly with an in-house spiritual director and formation advisor. In addition to all these points the faculty, administration, formation advisors, and psychologists gather three times a year to discuss the progress of each seminarian in every dimension of his formation, so that any potential problems can be identified and addressed.

Today no clergy against whom a substantiated claim of abuse of a minor has been made have permission to conduct priestly ministry in the Archdiocese of St. Louis. I support and encourage anyone with an allegation to contact law enforcement.

The Church relies on the help of God's grace to remain firm in Her resolve and effective in Her action to protect children and young people. I will be inviting the priests of the Archdiocese of St. Louis to join me in offering Masses for all victims of sexual abuse. I pray that we may always express the pure love of Christ particularly for children and the most vulnerable in our midst.

PRAY AND FAST—The United States bishops have declared a NOVENA of prayer and fasting for PROTECTION OF HUMAN LIFE.

Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy's announcement that he will retire has catapulted Roe v. Wade (the Supreme Court's landmark abortion case) into the news. Pro-abortion groups are pulling out all the stops to urge the U.S. Senate to reject any nominee who does not promise to publicly endorse Roe. And they are misrepresenting the legal and social reality of Roe and what would happen if it is overturned.

The upcoming Supreme Court vacancy provides us with yet another occasion requiring focused prayer. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops does not support or oppose the confirmation of any presidential nominee. However, given this historic moment, the U.S. bishops are urging all people of good will to pray that a change in the U.S. Supreme Court may move our nation closer to the day when every human being is protected in law and welcomed in life.

From Friday, August 3, 2018 to Friday, September 28, 2018, the weekly Call to Prayer will be adapted as a nine-week Novena for the Legal Protection of Human Life. In addition to the current invitation to fast on Fridays, participants are encouraged to pray one Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be for the intention of the novena. Visit web site usccb.org for more information.

My Schnucks Card Program

For Customers who use the eScrip (My Schnucks Card) program, it is important to know that you can choose to either contribute to a nonprofit through eScrip, or earn Schnucks Rewards points.

We are working to build a feature into the Schnucks Rewards program that will allow you to scan the Schnucks Rewards mobile app and still use eScrip. This feature will be available in September. We will let you know when it's ready to go.

In the meantime, to support a nonprofit, scan your eScrip My Schnucks Card, but do not scan your Schnucks Rewards app and do not enter your phone number.

To earn Schnucks Reward points for yourself instead, scan the Schnucks Rewards barcode in the mobile app or enter your phone number at checkout.

While Schnucks has donated more than $15 million to nonprofits through the eScrip My Schnucks Card program, fewer than 10% of our shoppers are taking advantage of this opportunity to support organizations that are making a difference in our communities. Building our charitable giving program into the Schnucks Rewards program makes it more easily accessible to even more shoppers.

Thank you for helping Schnucks support the nonprofits who are doing so much to enrich our communities and as always, thank you for shopping at Schnucks.
